Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document
(eg. trust deed, constitution)

Constitution

How the charity is constituted
(eg. trust, association, company)

Trust

Trustee selection methods
(eg. appointed by, elected by)

A special meeting of trustees and officers is called to discuss and appoint any new trustees. Trustees are recruited by the Committee from volunteers who have proved their commitment to the charity plus have the requisite skills, knowledge and experience.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

K9 Crusaders are fully insured by Cliverton Insurance, including public liability.

Health and Safety risk assessments are carried out regularly

In-house training is in place for safety around the site

First aid training and provision is available.

An accident book is provided

K9 Crusaders continues to develop a strong working relationship with other rescues, the local RSPCA and Cornwall Council's Dog Welfare and Enforcement officer.

K9 Crusaders has built on our established connections with Cornwall's Social Services and various Police departments, helping with local dog cases as required.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Our aims and objectives:

Rescue, rehabilitate and rehome dogs

Provide long term care for dogs which are unable to be rehomed. We have a non-euthanasia policy and do not believe in putting healthy dogs down.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

K9 Crusaders believe that the aims and objectives listed above are for the public benefit. In setting our objectives and planning our activities the trustees have given careful consideration to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

K9 Crusaders has supported the local community by providing advice and taking in as many dogs as possible that were in urgent need of our help. We have maintained our commitment to rescue, rehabilitate and re-home local dogs through the difficult circumstances of the COVID pandemic and its aftermath.

- REHOMING

Taking in unwanted dogs surrendered in Cornwall helping people in crisis, often who have suffered loss of home, bereavement or failing health.

- REHABILITATION

We have rehabilitated dogs with physical and behavioural problems and endeavoured to re-home these dogs to new loving homes.

- WORKING WITH LOCAL AUTHORITIES

The charity has an established involvement with local Social Services and Police Departments and is regularly asked to help with animal cases in the knowledge that, borne out of experience, we provide safe, responsible and reliable support.

- WORK PLACEMENTS & COMMUNITY WORK

Unfortunately, we were unable to accept work placements or go out to the Community during most of this period as a result of restrictions placed upon us by the COVID pandemic.

However we were able to continue our work within the Community, especially assisting those most in need, providing support and donations where possible.

- TELEPHONE ADVICE LINE

Our advice line is open 24 hours for emergency calls. We provide help and support with anything dog related and have seen a huge increase in the number of people needing our advice during these difficult times.

- CHARITY SHOP

The K9 Crusaders' charity shop in Redruth, run entirely by our amazing volunteers, has been very popular and has continued to expand. Our shop is of course dog friendly and our Shop Manager, who is a dog trainer, is able to offer a "drop-in" service and give advice and help to anyone who has problems with dog related issues.

The shop also provides opportunities for people to volunteer and gain new skills, as well as increasing confidence and reducing isolation.

Sadly, the pandemic restrictions forced us to close the shop for several months which badly affected our income for the year.

FUNDRAISING

K9 Crusaders is funded entirely by public donations and any grants they are able to secure. The K9 Crusaders Fundraising Committee and volunteers have worked tirelessly to bring in funds by various and varied means as listed below. The efforts of our volunteers and supporters have been invaluable during these difficult times when a great deal of our events have been unable to take place during the pandemic.

- Volunteers have organised on-line events including auctions and photo competitions.
- K9 Crusaders were delighted to be selected once again by our local Pets at Home store as their Charity of the Year. This was an exciting opportunity to work together with a specialist pet care business to raise funds and awareness. Despite being unable to attend the store due to the COVID restrictions we were still able to benefit from their Summer and Christmas fund-raisers.
- K9 Crusaders are also proud to be one of the beneficiaries of the Pets At Home VIP scheme which allows customers to nominate a local charity to benefit from points they receive on purchases. We then receive "Lifelines" which are vouchers to purchase food and accessories from the store.
- We also have had great support again this year from many local businesses who are more than happy to display our collecting tins on their counters and have donated items for our online auctions.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

K9 Crusaders endeavours to hold funds equal to 6 months operating costs, which the Trustees consider a necessary contingency, enabling the charity to have financial stability and to move forward with confidence.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

n/a

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/members of

K9 CRUSADERS

On accounts for the year ended

31st December 2021

Charity no
(if any)

Set out on 2 pages

attached

(remember to attach the page number of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

~~The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [insert name of applicable listed body]]. Delete [] if not applicable.~~

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (~~other than that disclosed below~~ *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
