DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are responsible for preparing the directors' report, the strategic report and the accounts in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year. Under the law the directors have elected to prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted

Accountancy Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these accounts, the directors are required to:

- * select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- * make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- * state whether applicable accounting policies have been followed, subject to any material
- * presume that the company will continue in business.
- * prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to
- * presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The directors are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of accounts may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.
