Leeds Youth Opera

Objectives and activities

The charity's objects

The objects are specifically for the public benefit and restricted to the following:

To educate the public and in particular young people within the city of Leeds and elsewhere in the dramatic and operatic arts;

To further the development of public appreciation and taste in the said arts;

In furtherance of these objects but not otherwise

(a) to promote interest in and knowledge of opera repertoire and tradition,

(b) to promote the training of young people in opera craft,

(c) to promote the production of suitable works for young people, and

(d) to promote occasional participation with adult professional and amateur opera groups.

The charity's main activities

The objective of the Charity is to create a learning environment for young people in Leeds who are interested in vocal, dramatic and orchestral arts and to provide opportunities to learn theatre craft and musicianship through the medium of opera and associated genres.

The focus of the charity is on students aged 10-19 based in Leeds. The charity draws its students from singers in Leeds and surrounding areas who wish to combine their love of singing and engage in drama through performance in a public show.

This public performance, as if the students were engaged in an opera/musical theatre company, distinguishes the charity from other music engagement in Leeds.

To put on a public performance may require more mature singers from colleges and universities from across the region or working in Leeds who wish to continue singing for pleasure at a semi-professional level.

It combines the talent of these young people with excellent young musicians, predominantly from Leeds, including members of Leeds Youth Orchestra, who audition to play in each operatic production. Younger orchestra members are led by seniors, many of whom are undergraduates or graduates from Leeds University, Royal Northern College of Music, Leeds Conservatoire or other music colleges. In this way university level students obtain experience of being section leaders mentoring the younger players. The Charity seeks to develop future conducting and artistic direction and production talent by providing opportunities for young people in the early stages of their careers to support the Music Director and Stage Director as assistants or act as deputy stage managers, sound engineers, make-up or in other production roles for performances.

Some students with the charity have gone on to develop high profile careers in opera, musical theatre and music administration.

Public benefit statement

The Trustees are aware of the Charity Commission's advice on Charities and Public Benefit. The Trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities. LYO's aims are to enhance musical and dramatic development of young people between the ages of 8 and 25 through the medium of opera and musical theatre. LYO's primary focus is on singing, dramatic and musical development of young people between the ages of 11 and 19 but in order to deliver rounded performances engages young people up to the age of 25 for more mature principal and music section positions. It also provides opportunities for undergraduates and graduates to engage in artistic and musical direction, many of whom have gone on to work with Opera North or other opera companies.

Leeds Youth Opera

Achievements and performance

Covid had seriously disrupted the activities of the charity as online tuition had not been engaging and seeking to undertake any activity was exhausting for artistic staff and trustees.

September 2021 saw the re-commencement of rehearsals for the wonderfully comic and musically challenging opera, because of its variety of genres with musical in-jokes, of a production of The Enchanted Pig by Jonathan Dove with a libretto by Alasdair Middleton under conductor John Lyon and Stage Director Rosie Kat. It had been intended to produce this in 2020 but Covid had intervened. Fortunately, many of the principals returned for the production, but there was a lower engagement of young people in the company, notwithstanding that free places were offered to many. This show was enthusiastically received with performances at Interplay Theatre before its maximum audiences of 60 people over each of three nights in February 2022.

The trustees had branded 2022 as the postponed 50th Anniversary Year. 10 years before the foundation of Opera North, Leeds Youth Opera had been established, following a Welsh National Opera touring production of Falstaff, and shortly afterwards had received the patronage of the then Lord Harewood. The College of Music's Director and leading community musical groups formed the first trustees and even the Queen's Director of Music was involved as a patron to assist with scores and libretto for children.

The trustees had raised funds to commission a new one act opera for young people, ARC 23, composed by Lewis Murphy with a libretto by Laura Attridge around the themes of climate change, honesty, trust and confidence. To bring in more young people the trustees sought an additional grant from Leeds Music Education Partnership which it used to hold free outreach workshops at the community venue, Gipton Fire Station as well as enabling many young people to participate at reduced cost. This enabled the charity to involve a diverse group of young children aged 6 years and upwards in the production, giving them a first experience of singing and drama tuition and public performance.

The show was produced at the Carriageworks Theatre in Leeds in July 2022 in the presence of the Lord Mayor. It had been the intention to combine the commissioned show with a 50th Anniversary concert but there had been some administrative confusion on dates which did not coincide, so the 50th Anniversary Concert followed a week later at Morley Town Hall, in the presence of the Morley Lord Mayor. The 50th Anniversary Concert brought back alumni over all of the 50 years, as singers and audience, and included highlights such as the participation of Julian Close, who had a lead role in Richard Strauss's Ariadne auf Naxos at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York, in the week following the Concert.

Future Activities

The Trustees are happy to report that Interplay, the national sensory theatre company based in Armley, Leeds, has continued to support Leeds Youth Opera with rehearsal space and assistance with production. Stage Director Anita Adams returned to the charity in November 2021 together with Music Director Tom Mitchell to lead on rehearsals for a production of Shackleton the Musical, with music by Simone Chiappi and lyrics by Matthew Knowles to be performed in July 2023.

The charity is looking to refresh trustees and add administrative support to carry on the activities of the charity and bring in more children and young people to experience the excellent singing and drama tuition available through the company.

Leeds Youth Opera

Financial review

In the absence of a production in 2021 because of Covid, restricted funds were brought forward to support the artistic team for the two productions in 2022. Leeds Music Education Partnership reduced its core grant by 50% from £20,000 to £10,000 in September 2021.

Leeds City Council has continued to increase costs at its theatre venues, even those which were established for community arts groups, which affects the ability of community arts companies such as Leeds Youth Opera, to use those venues. The grant reduction, combined with lower participation of children in the activities of the charity as it emerged from Covid, led to reduced audiences, which affected the income from productions.

The trustees had sought to reduce costs by the performance of the Enchanted Pig at Interplay Theatre, with maximum audience of 60, against 180 at the Carriageworks Theatre, which is the only community venue with an orchestra pit in Leeds which enabled the production to break even.

The performance of ARC 23, a new opera, at the Carriageworks Theatre, with orchestra led to a production loss of over £7,500. A further loss £1,400 arose because of supporting participation of children in the two productions that year as a way to encourage children to engage in activities after Covid.

The net expenditure for the year was £8,670 (2021 net income of £6,224, including £8,478 net expenditure on restricted funds and £192 net expenditure on unrestricted funds).

Reserves policy

The charity's free reserves, excluding fixed assets, at the year-end were £4,631. The charity's activities rely upon restricted funding.

The trustees aim to maintain sufficient reserve funds to cover between three and six-months operating expenditure.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees report and the financial statements in accordance with the applicable law and UK Accounting Standards.

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for the year. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;

- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;

- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

- state whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

- prepare the accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

- 2 the accounts do not accord with those records; or
- 3 the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- 4 the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities [applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)].

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The trustees hold monthly board meetings. At these meetings the Trustees discuss and agree the strategy for the year and the programme of events in which the Charity will engage.

Method of recruitment and appointment of trustees

The trustees of the charity are also the directors for the purposes of company law and are appointed by the trustees of the charity.

The Trustees have a skills matrix and are currently seeking to add further marketing experience, administration and music education skill gaps among the trustees. The Trustees advertise for these positions in Arts News and Reach Volunteering website

Leeds Youth Opera

Objectives and activities

The charity's objects

The objects are specifically for the public benefit and restricted to the following:

To educate the public and in particular young people within the city of Leeds and elsewhere in the dramatic and operatic arts;

To further the development of public appreciation and taste in the said arts;

In furtherance of these objects but not otherwise

(a) to promote interest in and knowledge of opera repertoire and tradition,

(b) to promote the training of young people in opera craft,

(c) to promote the production of suitable works for young people, and

(d) to promote occasional participation with adult professional and amateur opera groups.

The charity's main activities

The objective of the Charity is to create a learning environment for young people in Leeds who are interested in vocal, dramatic and orchestral arts and to provide opportunities to learn theatre craft and musicianship through the medium of opera and associated genres.

The Charity draws its students, between the ages of 12 and 25 on joining, following auditions from singers in Leeds and surrounding areas and who wish to combine their love of singing and engage in drama through the dramatic art of opera. Its students come from schools, colleges and universities from across the region and are also drawn from people working in Leeds who wish to continue singing for pleasure at a semi-professional level as with Leeds Festival Chorus and Leeds Philharmonic Chorus. All principal parts are double cast to provide more opportunity and to rest the young voices of the company.

Its activities are therefore quite different from many open access youth song and drama groups in Leeds and surrounding areas.

It combines the talent of these young people with excellent young musicians, predominantly from Leeds, including members of Leeds Youth Orchestra, who audition to play in each operatic production. Younger orchestra members are led by seniors, many of whom are undergraduates or graduates from Leeds University, Royal Northern College of Music, Leeds Conservatoire or other music colleges. In this way university level students obtain experience of being section leaders mentoring the younger players. The Charity seeks to develop future conducting and artistic direction and production talent by providing opportunities for young people in the early stages of their careers to support the Music Director and Stage Director as assistants or act as deputy stage managers, sound engineers, make-up or in other production roles for performances.

Some students with the charity have gone on to develop high profile careers in opera, musical theatre and music administration.

Public benefit statement

The Trustees are aware of the Charity Commission's advice on Charities and Public Benefit. The Trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities. LYO's aims are to enhance musical and dramatic development of young people between the ages of 8 and 25 through the medium of opera and musical theatre. LYO's primary focus is on singing, dramatic and musical development of young people between the ages of 11 and 18 but in order to deliver rounded performances engages young people up to the age of 25 for more mature principal and music section positions. It also provides opportunities for undergraduates and graduates to engage in artistic and musical direction. LYO ran a successful open access Summer School in 2019 for 8-16 year olds which led young people into the main company.

Leeds Youth Opera

Achievements and performance

The July 2020 production should have been a production of The Enchanted Pig by Jonathan Dove with a libretto by Alasdair Middleton but, after initial rehearsals under conductor John Lyon and Stage Director Rosie Kat, who had been assistant director in Don Giovanni, Covid caused the cessation of rehearsals and the cancellation of the performance in July 2020. There was no Summer School in the Summer of 2020 because of Covid.

In September 2020, the company started online tuition with the goal of a production of the Magic Flute by Mozart online. The online singing tuition by John Lyon with répétiteur Jonathan Drummond was aimed at two groups of the company. For the juniors it was a combination of musical theatre, opera and chorus parts from the Magic Flute. Singing tuition went well initially and the medium of zoom permitted young people from as far away as the Netherlands to join in. As the medium was online no charge was made for the tuition. Many of the younger members of the company gradually developed zoom fatigue.

Stage direction was by a new local Stage Director for the company, Alex Palmer who found it difficult to stimulate members of the company online. The company was not ready for an online production in February and it was decided to continue rehearsals with the objective of trying to perform online by the Summer of 2021. Filming of a large part of the production took place in June and July 2021 when Covid restrictions had permitted small gatherings but with members of the company dispersed at the end of July 2021 there were some final scenes to be completed. It is expected the online production will be made available in 2022.

There was a successful Summer School under the tuition of John Lyon and Rosie Kat for 8–16-year-olds.

Future Activities

The charity was informed in early 2021 that its rehearsal space at Leeds Church Institute would no longer be available and new rehearsal space was required. The Trustees are happy to report that Interplay, the national sensory theatre company based in Armley, Leeds, has offered Leeds Youth Opera rehearsal space and assistance with production as the company recovers from Covid.

The trustees are also pleased that Rosie Kat came back to stage The Enchanted Pig in February. The charity has approached its delayed fiftieth anniversary year by commissioning a new opera for young people composed by Lewis Murphy with a libretto by Laura Attridge around the theme of climate change. It was originally intended that it would be performed in July 2021 but it is now the intention to perform it in July 2022. It is the intention of the trustees that alumni will be contacted in the course of the fiftieth year to celebrate the anniversary and be encouraged to donate to the charity.

The charity is looking to refresh trustees to carry on the activities of the charity and bring in more children and young people to experience the excellent singing and drama tuition available through the company.

Financial review

The net income for the year was £6,224 (2020 net expenditure of £8,286), including £4,165 net income on restricted funds and £2,079 net income on unrestricted funds.

The charity's activities rely upon restricted funding. Restricted funds of £8,478 were held at the year end

The trustees aim to maintain sufficient reserve funds to cover between three and six-months operating expenditure.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees report and the financial statements in accordance with the applicable law and UK Accounting Standards.

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for the year. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities (Charities SORP (FRS102)), and in accordance with the special provisions of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Leeds Youth Opera

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charitable company for the period ended 31 August 2021, which are set out on pages 6 to 12.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the charitable company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the charitable company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- 1 accounting records were not kept in respect of the company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
- 2 the accounts do not accord with those records; or
- 3 the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- 4 the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities [applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)].

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Structure, governance and management

The charity is a company limited by guarantee and was formed on 1 July 2010. It is governed by a memorandum and articles of association as amended by special resolution on 15 December 2010. The liability of the members in the event of the company being wound up is limited to a sum not exceeding £10.

The trustees hold monthly board meetings. At these meetings the Trustees discuss and agree the strategy for the year and the programme of events in which the Charity will engage.

Method of recruitment and appointment of trustees

The trustees of the charity are also the directors for the purposes of company law and are appointed by the trustees of the charity.

The Trustees have a skills matrix and are currently seeking to add further marketing experience, administration and music education skill gaps among the trustees.

Leeds Youth Opera

Objectives and activities

The charity's objects

The objects are specifically for the public benefit and restricted to the following:

To educate the public and in particular young people within the city of Leeds and elsewhere in the dramatic and operatic arts;

To further the development of public appreciation and taste in the said arts;

In furtherance of these objects but not otherwise

(a) to promote interest in and knowledge of opera repertoire and tradition,

(b) to promote the training of young people in opera craft,

(c) to promote the production of suitable works for young people, and

(d) to promote occasional participation with adult professional and amateur opera groups.

The charity's main activities

The objective of the Charity is to create a learning environment for young people in Leeds who are interested in vocal, dramatic and orchestral arts and to provide opportunities to learn theatre craft and musicianship through the medium of opera and associated genres.

The Charity draws its students, between the ages of 12 and 25 on joining, following auditions from singers in Leeds and surrounding areas and who wish to combine their love of singing and engage in drama through the dramatic art of opera. Its students come from schools, colleges and universities from across the region and are also drawn from people working in Leeds who wish to continue singing for pleasure at a semi-professional level as with Leeds Festival Chorus and Leeds Philharmonic Chorus. All principal parts are double cast to provide more opportunity and to rest the young voices of the company.

Its activities are therefore quite different from many open access youth song and drama groups in Leeds and surrounding areas.

It combines the talent of these young people with excellent young musicians, predominantly from Leeds, including members of Leeds Youth Orchestra, who audition to play in each operatic production. Younger orchestra members are led by seniors, many of whom are undergraduates or graduates from Leeds University, Royal Northern College of Music, Leeds Conservatoire or other music colleges. In this way university level students obtain experience of being section leaders mentoring the younger players. The Charity seeks to develop future conducting and artistic direction and production talent by providing opportunities for young people in the early stages of their careers to support the Music Director and Artistic Director as assistants or act as deputy stage managers, sound engineers, make-up or in other production roles for performances.

Some students with the charity have gone on to develop high profile careers in opera, musical theatre and music administration.

Public benefit statement

The Trustees are aware of the Charity Commission's advice on Charities and Public Benefit. The Trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities. LYO's aims are to enhance musical and dramatic development of young people between the ages of 8 and 25 through the medium of opera and musical theatre. LYO's primary focus is on singing, dramatic and musical development of young people between the ages of 11 and 18 but in order to deliver rounded performances engages young people up to the age of 25 for more mature principal and music section positions. It also provides opportunities for undergraduates and graduates to engage in artistic and musical direction. There was participation from undergraduates from the Royal Northern College of Music, University of Huddersfield and Leeds College of Music. LYO has run a successful open access Summer School in 2019 which led young people into the main company.

Leeds Youth Opera

Achievements and performance

The July 2019 production was a production of Die Fledermaus by Johann Strauss under the Artistic Direction of Madeleine O'Reilly and with conductor Tom Newall.

The production for February 2020 was Mozart's Don Giovanni. This was the first assignment for a new conductor John Lyon together with a new artistic director Austin Gunn (also the Artistic Director for Rocket Opera) and assistant Rosie Kat. The opera Don Giovanni deals with adult themes as does much opera and Leeds Youth Opera takes especial care to ensure in rehearsals that such themes are developed with a proper understanding for the different age groups who make up the students.

The planned production for July 2020 was The Enchanted Pig by Jonathan Dove with conductor John Lyon and Artistic director Rosie Kat. However, Covid meant that after initial rehearsals it was necessary to cease meeting in person and the performances were cancelled. The 2020 Summer School was also cancelled.

The company has been particularly pleased with the larger engagement of BAME students in the company in this period.

Future Activities

The charity operates in an environment where the provision of music education in Leeds schools has declined and there are more organisations providing opportunities for musical theatre activities which are also attractive to many of the young cohort which LYO seeks to engage. Opera North also has in recent years developed extensive outreach to children in Leeds and students can be more mobile between the different companies depending on what is on offer.

The charity will have to review the location of performances because of increased venue costs. The removal of funding for a repetiteur by Leeds City Council on the retirement of the charity's long serving repetiteur in July 2019 has added significantly to expenditure and the charity has been grateful to funding from the Emerald Foundation for transition funding over three years towards the costs of the repetiteur.

The charity has been informed that its rehearsal space at Leeds Church Institute will no longer be available and new rehearsal space will be required. The charity is very grateful to the support which Leeds Church Institute has provided since Leeds City Council closed the major rehearsal space for amateur music organisations in Leeds.

The trustees were very pleased to have recruited an experienced new artistic director and opera singer in Austin Gunn and a dynamic young music director John Lyon for the season which started in September 2019 who share the trustees' focus on encouraging the education of the young people of Leeds through song and drama.

The charity has approached its fiftieth anniversary year by commissioning a new opera for young people composed by Lewis Murphy with a libretto by Laura Attridge around the theme of climate. It was originally intended that it would be performed in July 2021 but it is now the intention to perform it in July 2022. It is the intention of the trustees that alumni will be contacted in the course of the fiftieth year to celebrate the anniversary and be encouraged to donate to the charity.

Financial review

The net expenditure for the period was £8,286, including net expenditure of £8,619 on unrestricted funds and net income of £333 on restricted funds.

The charity has been affected by the restrictions required by the Covid pandemic. The charity refunded some membership fees for the March-July 2020 period owing to the cancellation of rehearsals and the production of the Enchanted Pig.

The artistic teams from the Autumn of 2018 have been less successful in engaging and retaining Leeds students in the company's activities which has had an impact on membership subscriptions and show income from the families attending performances and the cancellation of the Summer School in 2020 and the Covid pandemic has reduced the number of students engaged with Leeds Youth Opera. Going forward the Trustees are planning to raise additional funds from donors and are reviewing the trust's eligibility for Theatre Tax Relief. The end of period financial position has improved and the reserves are growing towards the reserves policy objective.

The Trustees will be seeking to re-engage students with a Summer School in 2021 and the 50th anniversary operatic commission.

Reserves policy

The charity's free reserves, excluding fixed assets, at the year end were £2,491.

The trustees aim to maintain sufficient reserve funds to cover between 3 and 6 months operating expenditure.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees report and the financial statements in accordance with the applicable law and UK Accounting Standards.

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for the year. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;

- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;

- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

- state whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

- prepare the accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities (Charities SORP (FRS102)), and in accordance with the special provisions of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charitable company for the period ended 31 August 2020, which are set out on pages 8 to 13.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the charitable company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the charitable company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- 1 accounting records were not kept in respect of the company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
- 2 the accounts do not accord with those records; or
- 3 the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- 4 the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities [applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)].

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019) and with the Charities Act 2011.

Going concern

The trustees are satisfied that there are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue.

Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SOFA) when the charity becomes entitled to the resources, it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources and the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Grants and donations

Grants and donations are only included in the SOFA when the charity has unconditional entitlement to the resources.

Where grants are related to performance and specific deliverables, they are accounted for as the charity earns the right to consideration by its performance.

Liabilities are recognised where it is more likely than not that there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to pay out the resources and the amount of the obligation can be measured with reasonable certainty.

Taxation

As a charity the organisation benefits from rates relief and is generally exempt from income tax and capital gains tax but not from VAT. Irrecoverable VAT is included in the cost of those items to which it relates.

Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets costing more than £500 are capitalised and included at cost including any incidental expenses of acquisition. Gifted assets are shown at the value to the charity on receipt. Depreciation is provided on all tangible fixed assets at rates calculated to write off the cost on a straight line basis over their expected useful economic lives as follows:

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.
