Jeeyar Educational Trust UK

Year Ended 31 January 2025

Objectives And Activities

The objectives for which the charity was established are the relief of need for the public benefit in the UK and India in accordance with Hindu religious principles by:

- A. Promoting and protecting the physical and mental health of those affected by blindness or cancers, their families and carers in particular but not exclusively through the provision of financial assistance, support and particular advice
- B. The preservation and protection of good health by the support of medical camps
- C. Advancing education in particular but not exclusively by providing and assisting in the provision of facilities for improving literacy, conducting seminars, educational camps, workshops and study groups
- D. The relief and assistance of people who are the victims of war or natural disaster, trouble or catastrophe in such ways as the trustees see fit

The Trustees when deciding on the Charity's activities for the year, are mindful of the Charity Commissions guidance on public benefit. The Charity is to support people and their families regardless of gender, faith or personal circumstances.

Achievements And Performance

The Trustees are pleased with the results for the year.

Financial Review

The Trustees have investment policies that they consider will best fulfil the charity's objectives.

The Trustees have no formal policy to maintain a level of reserves, however, they are conscious of their responsibilities and monitor the level of reserves to ensure the charity can meet its liabilities.

Plans For Future Periods

The Trustees plan to continue to promote the Charity and raise funds for its causes.

Objectives And Activities

The objectives for which the charity was established are the relief of need for the public benefit in the UK and India in accordance with Hindu religious principles by:

- A. Promoting and protecting the physical and mental health of those affected by blindness or cancers, their families and carers in particular but not exclusively through the provision of financial assistance, support and particular advice
- B. The preservation and protection of good health by the support of medical camps
- C. Advancing education in particular but not exclusively by providing and assisting in the provision of facilities for improving literacy, conducting seminars, educational camps, workshops and study groups
- D. The relief and assistance of people who are the victims of war or natural disaster, trouble or catastrophe in such ways as the trustees see fit

The Trustees when deciding on the Charity's activities for the year, are mindful of the Charity Commissions guidance on public benefit. The Charity is to support people and their families regardless of gender, faith or personal circumstances.

Achievements And Performance

The Trustees are pleased with the results for the year.

Financial Review

The Trustees have investment policies that they consider will best fulfil the charity's objectives.

The Trustees have no formal policy to maintain a level of reserves, however, they are conscious of their responsibilities and monitor the level of reserves to ensure the charity can meet its liabilities.

Plans For Future Periods

The Trustees plan to continue to promote the Charity and raise funds for its causes.

Accountants

Ideal Accountants London Ltd were appointed as accountants for the year.

Objectives And Activities

The objectives for which the charity was established are the relief of need for the public benefit in the UK and India in accordance with Hindu religious principles by:

- A. Promoting and protecting the physical and mental health of those affected by blindness or cancers, their families and carers in particular but not exclusively through the provision of financial assistance, support and particular advice
- B. The preservation and protection of good health by the support of medical camps
- C. Advancing education in particular but not exclusively by providing and assisting in the provision of facilities for improving literacy, conducting seminars, educational camps, workshops and study groups
- D. The relief and assistance of people who are the victims of war or natural disaster, trouble or catastrophe in such ways as the trustees see fit

The Trustees when deciding on the Charity's activities for the year, are mindful of the Charity Commissions guidance on public benefit. The Charity is to support people and their families regardless of gender, faith or personal circumstances.

Achievements And Performance

The Trustees are pleased with the results for the year.

Financial Review

The Trustees have investment policies that they consider will best fulfil the charity's objectives.

The Trustees have no formal policy to maintain a level of reserves, however, they are conscious of their responsibilities and monitor the level of reserves to ensure the charity can meet its liabilities.

Plans For Future Periods

The Trustees plan to continue to promote the Charity and raise funds for its causes.

Accountants

ACE Accounts and Tax Limited were appointed as accountants for the year.
