Structure, Governance And Management

Jeeyar Educational Trust UK was created by a trust deed dated 16 January 2011. It was accepted as a charity by the Charity Commission on 20 January 2011.

The Jeeyar Educational Trust is governed by the trust deed.

The day to day running of Jeeyar Educational Trust is performed by the Trustees. The Trustees are appointed according to the trust deed.

The board of trustees is made up of permanent and non permanent member. HHSri Tridandi Srimannarayana Ramanuja Chinna Jeeyar Swami or his nominee or successor is a permanent trustee.

New Trustees are required to undergo an induction programme including an introduction to the objectives, scope and policies of the Charity, Charity Commission information and trustee responsibilities.

Objectives And Activities

The objectives for which the charity was established are the relief of need for the public benefit in the UK and India in accordance with Hindu religious principles by:

- A. Promoting and protecting the physical and mental health of those affected by blindness or cancers, their families and carers in particular but not exclusively through the provision of financial assistance, support and particular advice
- B. The preservation and protection of good health by the support of medical camps
- C. Advancing education in particular but not exclusively by providing and assisting in the provision of facilities for improving literacy, conducting seminars, educational camps, workshops and study groups
- D. The relief and assistance of people who are the victims of war or natural disaster, trouble or catastrophe in such ways as the trustees see fit

The Trustees when deciding on the Charity's activities for the year, are mindful of the Charity Commissions guidance on public benefit. The Charity is to support people and their families regardless of gender, faith or personal circumstances.

Achievements And Performance

The Trustees are pleased with the results for the year.

Financial Review

The Trustees have investment policies that they consider will best fulfil the charity's objectives.

The Trustees have no formal policy to maintain a level of reserves, however, they are conscious of their responsibilities and monitor the level of reserves to ensure the charity can meet its liabilities.

Plans For Future Periods

The Trustees plan to continue to promote the Charity and raise funds for its causes.

Accountants

Ideal Accountants London Ltd were appointed as accountants for the year.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
