For the benefit of the public to relieve the suffering of dogs in need of care and attention and, in particular, to provide and maintain kennels or other facilities for the reception care and treatment of these dogs. And to promote humane behaviour towards animals by providing appropriate care, protection, treatment and security for animals which are in need of care and attention by reason of sickness, maltreatment, poor circumstances or ill usage and to educate the public in matters pertaining to animal welfare in general and the prevention of cruelty and suffering among animals.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The main activities of the charity were continuing to re-home unwanted or mistreated dogs and to find them new forever homes. We have tried to start making the public more aware of the effects of 'back yard breeding' and to try and support local families with help with the cost of neutering dogs. We are trying to find quality homes for many dogs in our care because of covid breeding. Many have extreme issues and sadly won't be able to live in normal homes. We no longer take foreign dogs as the UK is in crisis with abandoned dogs and needs support. This year we have opened a shop in Gloucestershire. And are about to open another one in Chard in 2025.

Charity Commission on public benefit		Rushton Dog Rescue was set up to reduce and rehabilitate the number of stray and ill-treated dogs. Most of which was created by the public. Rushton work hard to reduce and eliminate strays and recover illtreated dogs. Rushton dog rescue are trying to educate the larger public of the importance of neutering and not breeding dogs for profit. The trustees are satisfied that the benefit aspect and public aspects are satisfied.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	We continue to find more foster homes to temporarily house dogs. Lots of these are available at short notice. The number of dogs we have rehomed this year has been disappointing. But only as we have lots of sanctuary dogs that require a lot of care and vet costs. We continue to develop a large number of supporters and followers. Rushton also has a number of volunteers that work on site at Freedom Farm and help with the rehabilitation of dogs. We now have shop volunteers too. We have also just been granted planning on a vet clinic on site at freedom farm. We will be fundraising and applying for grants for this in the coming year. We have also improved the kennels on site and laid new flooring on most of the blocks. This is improving hygiene and the well being of our dogs. We have a collaboration with Jolleys pets store which has reduced our dog feed costs. Our Christmas calendar also proved a huge success.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	We continued to make a deficit this year of £9,837 but smaller than last years loss of £11,533. This is largely due to excessive interest costs. HSBC helped us massively when we had cash flow issues but the result is huge interest costs. Our incoming resources were similar to the previous year and despite increased interest charges we have reduced our main outgoings.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity has no policy on reserves. They are designated as general unrestricted. Any reserves that are generated will be used to fund the charities main objectives like for vet, transport and or housing costs etc.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	As a result of 2025 accounts now being prepared on an accruals basis under FRS 102, closing reserves are showing at £16,891 (2024 £27,727)
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	We would like to be able to hold reserves to use for future projects and rescue missions. However, this is hard to plan as they often occur spontaneously which means we cannot predict or budget for them to occur. We could provide a contingency for such an occurrence but all donations received are ear marked for existing dogs/ rescue missions this is impractical to do.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

CHARITY COMMISSION
FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Section A

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/directors/ members of

Charity Name
Rushton Dog Rescue

On accounts for the year ended

31 January 2025

Charity no.:

1139999

Company no.:

N/A

Set out on pages

1-5 of Trustees Annual report and 1-16 of the Annual Accounts

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; or
- the accounts do not accord with such records; or
- the accounts do not comply with relevant accounting requirements under section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS102).

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
