The Trustees of The Madrinha Trust present their annual report as Trustees together with the financial statements of the Madrinha Trust for the 1 January 2024 to 31 December 2024 as required by Charity regulations and legislation.

Structure, governance and management

a. Constitution

The Madrinha Trust is a registered charity, number 1140672, and is constituted under a Trust Deed. The trust is registered with the Charity Commission in England and Wales. There are no restrictions in the governing document on the operation of the charity or on its investment powers other than those imposed by general charity law.

b. The Trustees

The trustees who served the charity during the year were as follows: J Geoghegan (Chairman), S C McKeand-Han (Legal Advisor), A Singh, Dr C Chanda, G Dibiasi, E Patsalos, S Constantine-Haidry, V Kyte, W Dear, A Goulden (Treasurer).

All trustees give their time freely and no trustee remuneration was paid in the year.

c. The methods adopted for the recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The minimum number of trustees for the charity is three. Any additional trustees must be appointed by resolution of the trustees and must indicate their willingness to act as a trustee of the charity before he or she may act as such.

d. Policies adopted for the induction and training of Trustees

There is no formal procedure for the induction and training of trustees laid down in the Trust Deed. Trustees will have long standing business experience or direct experience of charitable education provision in the developing world. All trustees will be given and directed to guidance for trustees issued by the Charities Commission in order to help them understand their duties and responsibilities as a trustee of the charity.

e. The organisational structure of the charity and how decisions are made

The trust is managed by trustees. The Trust Deed stipulates that at least two meetings are held per year. During 2024, three trustee meetings were held.

The trustees have procedural powers in relation to decision making to:

- Appoint a chairman, treasurer and other honorary officers
- Delegate any of their functions to a committee, which must consist of two or more persons, the majority of which must also be trustees
- Make rules to govern the proceedings of trust meetings and committees
- Make regulations to govern the administration of the charity including the use and application of the income, property and funds, the operation of bank accounts and the commitment of funds.

The following officers are currently in place: chairman, treasurer and legal advisor who all support and advise the trustees. Decisions at trustee meetings are determined by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the trustees.

f. The major risks to which the charity is exposed and reviews and systems to mitigate risks

The trustees identify the major risks to which the charity is exposed each financial year when preparing and updating a strategic plan, particularly those related to the operations and finances of the charity. The trustees then review any major risks, which have been identified, and establish systems to mitigate those risks. The charity is satisfied that the systems are in place to mitigate their exposure to the major risks which have been so identified and reviewed.

g. Financial Risk Management Objectives and Policies

The main financial risks arising from the charity's activities are liquidity, fraud and other risks as described below.

Liquidity Risk

The charity prepares regular forecasts and reports to its members on a quarterly basis. The board of trustees approve the forecasts and signs off the year end accounts. The charity understands its cash flow requirements and its policy is to always maintain sufficient funds in a liquid form to ensure that the charity can meet its liabilities as they fall due. The charity is not reliant on grants or additional donations.

Other risks/ fraud risk^{[11][12]}

The charity is not exposed to risks involved in fundraising because its core activities are supported by donations from the founder and income from investment capital. The charity has limited its exposure to misappropriation of funds or mismanagement of its investments by contracting with Meridiem Investment Management LLP (formerly known as Veritas Investment Partners) an entity regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA). Investments are held in medium risk funds as advised by Meridiem. The charity is potentially exposed to misappropriation of grants. It controls this by seeking receipts and verifying use of funds wherever possible, for example, by attendance reports from the school that a student has attended. Payments are also made whenever possible to pre-selected reputable local partner charities in each country to minimise the risk of fraudulent payments. The charity relies on its investments delivering income and value growth to fund future activities. As with any investment, there is a risk that the value declines, this is mitigated through keeping a percentage of investments in short term money market funds and use of a professional investment manager, Meridiem, to manage the portfolio.

h. Relationships with other groups and charities

The charity recognises that there is much activity already in the area of improving education in the developing world. The Madrinha Trust aims to complement rather than compete with existing organisations and as stated in the charity's development plan aims to ensure that funds are not spent on any infrastructure costs of those organisations and that funds are additional to rather than a replacement of existing funds.^{[11][12]}

Up to the end of 2024 the Charity had established relationships with 13 other charitable organisations through which grants to scholar mentees are made. The relationships currently existent are:^{[11][12]}

The school improves social mobility and offers excellent teaching and facilities working with local partners to empower students, believing education is the route out of poverty and a right every child deserves.

The characteristics of our partner charities are as follows:

- Our partner charities have effective presence in the countries in which they operate, and a working knowledge of their individual educational, political and economic settings.

- Our partners are financially stable, have other sources of income and are not dependent on our funding.
- Our partners participate in our interactive sessions and celebrate the success of our scholar mentees.
- Our partner charities actively participate in recommending and recruiting suitable mentors, who are familiar with their region or country of operation.

Objectives and activities

a. A summary of the objects of the charity as set out in its governing document

The Trust deed of the charity was created on 1 February 2011 on funds settled by Michael Francis Geoghegan, the first three trustees being named as Jania Geoghegan, Maya Sanbar and Amrit Singh. The Trust deed outlines the objectives of the charity, the powers of the trustees and procedures for their appointment, rules for the proceedings of trustees and their procedural powers, requirements for records and accounts and procedures for the amalgamation and dissolution of the charity.

The objectives of the charity are the advancement of education and the relief of poverty by the provision of funds and financial assistance to educational and other projects anywhere in the world, but with a particular focus on Africa and the developing world.

Selected projects should aim to improve education, relieve poverty and improve the conditions for socially and economically disadvantaged people and communities.

b. Public benefit that is provided by the charity

Throughout the financial year the main objective of the charity continued to be to identify young people in the developing world and support them through their education as well as supporting those students currently sponsored by the charity.

The charity believes that the provision of a support structure to ensure that a young person receives an adequate education is a very important step in ensuring that a young person, their family and ultimately their community can lift themselves out of poverty.

The trustees of the charity have been directly involved in mentoring selected individuals so that they can assist them with their paths and ensure, as far as possible, that the recipients use their talents and education for the benefit of their native country.

In framing the objectives of the charity, the trustees have had regard to the general guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit, including guidance on the prevention and relief of poverty for the public benefit.

c. The charity's aims including the changes or differences it seeks to make through its activities

The charity's vision is to develop future leaders of the developing world. This will be achieved by providing educational funding for disadvantaged young people with leadership ability and providing individually tailored support for their development, encouraging an open mentoring relationship to boost their confidence and creating an avenue for exploring the opportunities open to them.

The charity is committed to providing access to education for the young people in its programme by paying tertiary education fees. In addition, the charity will provide ancillary services to the scholar mentees such as phones, laptops, books, academic wear and travel and subsistence allowances to bridge the gap between school and university and facilitate work experience in any gap year periods.

To maximise the benefit of any education that it provides, the charity believes that mentoring and guidance is an important part of the education process. The charity provides UK mentors to all the scholarship scholar mentees, offering long term support, guidance and encouragement to enable scholar mentees to pursue their personal goals and ambitions.

The charity has a wide discretion in its powers and can help the education process in several ways. This could also include assisting and funding research to create an economic plan for a country, provide funds for the education of potential leaders, as well as helping build the educational structure in third world countries.

d. An explanation of the charity's main objectives for the year

During 2024 the objective of the charity remained to expand its base of mentors and to develop and strengthen links with sponsoring partners with the aim of increasing the number of students receiving educational support.

The charity has also actively continued to strengthen the administration, mentoring offering and marketing of the charity.

e. An explanation of the charity's strategies for achieving its stated objectives

The Madrinha Trust Development Plan outlines the charity's strategies for achieving its stated objectives. In summary these are:

1. Find suitable beneficiaries

Candidates are selected by our local partner charities and are responsible for the authenticity and validation of all candidates and their supporting paperwork. The potential new scholars are then interviewed by Madrinha Trust trustees, via video link, who assess their suitability for scholarship selection and the mentorship programme. The final list of successful candidates is then formally approved and signed off by the trustees at a trustee meeting.

In 2024 the charity provided scholarships for 57 scholars whose educational expenditure has been approved.

The Scholar mentees of the Trust comprise individuals who display the following:

- are high achievers who very often have no positive role models within their local communities.
- are from disadvantaged backgrounds and often the first within their families to aspire to higher education and unlikely to further their education without trust support.
- have the potential to become leaders in various fields and within their communities. Our mentors continue to guide them to recognise this potential and fulfil it.
- have strong commitments to give back and 'pay forward' to their communities and to contribute to making the wider world better for others. Accepting a mentored funding agreement which incorporates a strong personal statement of 'give-back commitment' is essential to the commencement and continuation of our relationship.
- are able and willing to communicate their needs, goals (short, medium and long) and their challenges to their mentors. Their mentors will keep working with them to find suitable solutions.

2. Mentor the beneficiaries

Before the approval of any financial support the scholar mentees have to agree to participation in the mentoring process. Each of the approved scholar mentees is allocated a mentor and the communication and support process has started.

To ensure that the scholar mentees are paired with a mentor from whom they can benefit and to ensure the ongoing quality of the mentoring process, the charity maintains good communication via WhatsApp and holds regular meet ups.

The overall objective remains to ensure that mentors are paired with suitable scholar mentees and to coach the skills required to be a successful mentor, the records that need to be kept of communications, guidelines for scholar mentees, evaluation techniques and how to report success.

Madrinha places great value on the role of the mentor being performed to as high a standard as possible to ensure that the process is carried out for the maximum benefit of Scholar mentees. Therefore, a mentoring handbook has been published and is issued to all mentors. The mentoring handbook contains the Madrinha Trust's core values, the roles and responsibilities of mentors, rights and responsibilities of scholar mentees, steps in the mentoring process, record keeping requirements, the requirement for a filter in the mentoring process, tips on letter writing and developing relationships as well as guidance in the case of problems.

The charity has 100 mentors who regularly communicate with the charity via WhatsApp to stay in regular contact with Madrinha and the Madrinha scholar mentees.

- Our mentors are professionals in various fields who understand the value of their gift of time to support a scholar mentee, they are all volunteers.
- They have an affinity for either the scholar mentee's country, subject of study or aspirations; very often all three.
- Our mentors are empathetic and have a good understanding of the scholar mentees' circumstances, environment, and educational system.
- Our mentors attend interactive sessions and actively strive to understand and mentor in line with the Trust's ethos.
- Our mentors often have language skills that make communicating with the scholar mentees both easier and more enjoyable for the scholar mentees.

3. Complete its mission

The charity supports both existing and recently graduated students through both their time as a scholar mentee and afterwards:

- Multiple communication channels have been put in place including WhatsApp, phone and e-mail for both scholar mentees and for mentors.
- Madrinha has set up a buddy mentorship programme made up of local alumni who can offer in region peer to peer support to scholar mentees.
- Madrinha holds regular workshops for all students focusing on a well-constructed career skills programme.
- Madrinha has created an active alumni association Madrinha Trust Alumni Committee (MTAC) for its graduates who have completed the formal period of education and mentoring.
- Madrinha will continue to take on new beneficiaries but only where it has the funds available to finance each scholar mentee's educational programme to completion.

4. Marketing the charity

The main marketing activities of the charity are:

- Promotion via its website: www.madrinha-trust.org
- Maintenance of a LinkedIn page with connections to scholar mentees, mentors and "on the ground co-ordinators".
- Production of a regular Madrinha trust newsletter issued to Scholar mentees, Mentors and supporters of the charity.
- Preparation of an annual report detailing the work of the charity during the year.

Achievements and performance

a. Charitable activities during the year

The charity funded 57 scholar mentees during 2024 of whom 51% are female and 49% are male. They are based in 9 developing countries. Payments to scholar mentees totalled £228.3K in the year to 31/12/24 (£184K in 2023) and the trustees intend to make payments to existing scholar mentees of £271.5K over the years from 2025 to 2028.

The charity has now provided a total of £2.41m in educational fees and support since inception.

b. Fundraising activities

During the course of the year the charity was funded by an additional donation from the settlor, Mr M F Geoghegan, together with the original expendable endowment of a gift of shares given by the settlor and related investment revenues. No additional fundraising activities were carried out during 2024.

c. Investment performance achieved against investment objectives set

The trustees have adopted a statement of investment principles which are described in the section of the trustees' report relating to investment policies and objectives.

The market investments are managed by Meridiem Investment Management (formerly known as Veritas Investment Partners). The charity Treasurer and a second trustee hold a formal annual meeting with Meridiem Investment Management LLP to review the investment portfolio and carry out a suitability review. Monthly valuation reports are supplied by Meridiem and ad hoc meetings are arranged as and when necessary.

Financial review

a. Policies on reserves

At the end of December 2024, the Charity held £322.5K (2023 £334.5k) of net assets after allowing for future commitments for existing scholar mentees.

Endowment fund reserves are only used with the agreement of the Founder and Trustees.

b. Principal funding sources and how expenditure in the year under review has supported the key objectives of the charity

The charity funded expenditure in 2024, as permitted in its trust deed, primarily by drawing down cash from the investment portfolio managed by Meridiem Investment Management.

The main expenditure of the charity in 2024 continued to be the funding of scholar mentees education in developing countries in accordance with the charity's key objectives.

c. The investment policy and objectives, including the extent (if any) to which social, environmental or ethical considerations are taken into account

1. Background ^{[1][1][1]}_{[SEP][SEP]}

The Charity is an unincorporated charity, given initial funding in the form of £1.9m in shares donated by Mr M F Geoghegan.

The majority of these shares were immediately invested in a medium risk investment fund as advised by Meridiem Investment Management LLP (formerly known as Veritas).

Meridiem Investment Management issue a monthly portfolio valuation and in addition the Charity Treasurer and Chairman hold meetings with the fund managers to discuss and review the charity's portfolio. The fund continued to generate above inflation returns in 2024.

During the course of the year the value of the funds under management generated realised gains of £79.9k, and unrealised revaluation gains of £79.1k. After withdrawals of £386K the funds under management excluding cash decreased slightly from £1.60m to £1.52m. The performance is analysed in the table below.

Investments	2024
	£000s
Brought forward	1,604
Purchases	142
Sales	(386)
Realised gains	80
Net unrealised gains	79
Carried forward	1,518

2. Investment Objectives ^{[1][1][1]}_{[SEP][SEP]}

In order to guide the investment strategy, the board of trustees has adopted the following objectives with respect to investments:

- The day-to-day management of investments is undertaken by professional investment managers on a discretionary basis.
- The trust wishes to maximise the returns on all its investments, commensurate with its defined level of risk, whilst adhering to the general principles of trust law for charitable investment portfolios.

At 31 December 2024, approximately 68% of the portfolio was held in equities and 32% in fixed interest securities and cash.

3. Risk ^{[1][1][1]}_{[SEP][SEP]}

The assets of the charity will be exposed to various financial risks. The board has considered the following risks when agreeing their strategy:

- The risk that investments will not deliver the increases in real capital or income values expected.
- The risk that the investment managers will not achieve the returns projected.

4. Investment Strategy ^{[1][1][1]}_{[SEP][SEP]}

The strategy adopted is that:

- Investments are held to create real returns over the investment horizon of five years plus through both dividend and interest income and capital growth. The Development Plan targets a real return of 2%.
- The trustees are willing to accept a medium risk approach in the achievement of their objectives.
- The long-term indicative guideline asset allocation for the main fund will be 65% equities and 35% fixed income or cash equivalents within ranges of 50-80% equities and 20-50% fixed income or cash equivalent.
- Short term treasury needs (ie commitments due within next 12 – 18 months) are held in cash and money market funds when possible.

5. Ethical Position ^{[1][1][1]}_{[SEP][SEP]}

The charity has issued no specific ethical guidelines to Meridiem Investment Management LLP.

6. Day to day management ^{[1][1][1]}_{[SEP][SEP]}

The trustees have appointed Meridiem Investment Management LLP as the investment manager to manage the trust's investment portfolio. The investment manager exercises its investment powers to achieve the trust's objectives with the appropriate level of diversification as directed in section 3.12 of the Charitable Trust deed.

The charity Treasurer and a second trustee monitor the performance of Meridiem and assess the performance annually in a meeting with Meridiem Investment Management as well as ad hoc meetings should the circumstances necessitate.

Note: Meridiem Investment Management changed its trading name to Navera Investment Management in June 2025

d. Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The board of trustees is satisfied that the charity's assets in each fund are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations in respect of each fund.

e. Transactions and Financial position

The Statement of Financial Activities shows net outgoing resources for the year of £12.0K (2023 net outgoing resources £63.9k).
