 6. Minister Esther Smith on 31st December 2024
 7. Counsellor Peter Kwaku Yeboah visiting us from Ghana

All the above programmes were fully participated by the members and the Community and was richly blessed by their ministration.

The members spiritual and emotional needs were met through prayer and counselling, they grown both in their spiritual life and emotional needs as it was borne in testimony by the leadership and members alike in the church.
- Beside the above we also achieved all our programmes by organising weekly bible studies, Sunday church services, and educative programmes were also organised.
- Bread Of Heaven International Ministries has four Trustees under the period who meet in line with the Charity Commission guidance to review the charity's activities periodically.
- Alongside the regular donations, we reviewed the donation aspect of the charity as individuals has slowdown in their zeal to undertaken various fundraising efforts due to the economic hardship in terms of personal issues in their lives and some members Has lost their jobs. To further support the work of the charity, we intend to organise more programmes and activities in the future.

Structure and Governance

Bread Of Heaven International Ministries is a charity; therefore, Trustees have duties that are set out by the Charity Commission.

Trustees have a duty to act in utmost good faith and must not profit personally from the charity or get into any situation whereby personal interest will conflict with the interest of the charity. If there is any doubt about a conflict of interest, the Charity Commission must be approached.

The Trustees recognise that their major responsibility is to ensure a good and appropriate governance of Bread of Heaven International Ministries in accordance with the Charity Commission guidelines.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner the trustees of the charity are responsible for the preparation of accounts: they consider that the audit requirement under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act)), does not apply. It is my responsibility to:

Examine the accounts under section 43(3) of the 1993 Act. Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners made under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act, and State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

BASIS OF INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS REPORT

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Direction given by the Charity Commissioner's. An examination included a review of the accounting records kept. It also includes consideration of any unusual items of disclosures in the accounts. And seeking examinations from you as trustees concerning any matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and as a result I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In accordance with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me a reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting record in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act and
 - to prepare which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act.
 - Have not been met.
2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
