Objectives of the Charity.

Principal Activities and Organization of our work

Kingdom Mandate Centre (KMC) is charitable organization. The objectives of KMC are:

A) to advance the Christianity for the public benefit in accordance with the doctrines of our Lord Jesus Christ, through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures, evangelism, distributing of literature and tracts, broadcasting and such charitable means as the trustees consider appropriate;)

B)The relief of poverty by such charitable means as the trustees consider appropriate, in UK and in Ghana and anywhere else God opens doors for us. The principal activities of the church are Christian worship, Christian outreach program to increase Christian awareness and to spread the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and the development of the mankind, spiritually, mentally and physically, and saving lost souls.

To aid with aged persons and persons in condition of need, hardship or distress, arising otherwise, periodicals, magazines, books, leaflets, or other documents, films, records, tapes or discs and pen-drive, also on all our social media.

To provide teaching and other educational provision to the church, and the Community. We have several volunteers and staffs who assist in helping us achieve our objectives. Development, Activities and Achievements in the period Kingdom Mandate Centre became a registered charity on the 1ST of April 2011.

The charity ministers to the needs of various social groups within and outside the church. The charity provides forum for empowerment, development for its members to be equipped educationally, socially and spiritually. It offers various counselling sessions to the needy, unemployed and educational and makes referral whenever the need arises. Do all such other lawful things as are necessary or expedient for the attainment of the said objects. In planning our activities for the year, we have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. KMC's services are held at a leased premise at 410 Ashton Old Road. Manchester. Empowerment house. Kingdom Mandate Centre in Manchester.

Review of financial position Please refer to the annexed accounts for details of the Financial Statements for the year ended 1st April 2025 Statement of Trustee's responsibilities:

The Charities Act requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the situation of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are requested to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- State whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Online In 2025 we continue our online presence and building community with virtual members, to ensure our virtual members have access to all services and materials. we continue to broaden our online community and increase in members across the globe.

Regular Giving . Active members have continued in their giving in free will offerings and tithes.

Donations including Gift Aid, this is encouraging to the Trustees and Leadership. The charity leased a property in Manchester, Ashton Old Road and building works and maintenance was done during the year, New lighting in the auditorium. Electrical works In addition, maintenance to the roof and walls were made to make the building comfortable for the church and the community. There are still works to be done. Still work in progress. All the recommendations of the gas installation are in plan. The building is an important asset to the life of the church and the community groups who use it. We did most of the works mentioned above are done but still more to be done We still have more building work to do in the coming years especially outside of the building.

RISK ASSESSMENT. The trustees actively review the major risks which the charity faces on a regular basis and believe that maintaining the free reserves stated, combined with the annual review of the controls over key financial. Systems carried out on an annual basis will provide sufficient resources in the event of adverse conditions. The trustees have also examined other operational and business risks which they face and confirm that they have established systems to mitigate the significant risks.

RESERVES POLICY. The trustees have considered the level of reserves they wish to retain, appropriate to the charity's needs. This is based on the charity's size and the level of financial commitments held. The trustees aim to ensure the charity will be able to continue to fulfil its charitable objectives even if there is a temporary short fall in income or unexpected expenditure. The trustees will endeavour not to set aside funds unnecessarily
