Ikhlass Mosque and community center

Ikhlass mosque is constituted as a charitable trust registered with the charity commission under the charity number 1141284.

The charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefits. The trustees meet as a body monthly and are responsible for all decisions taken in relation to running the mosque and community facilities and activities provided by the charity. To assist in the smooth running of the charity the trustees have set up a number of sub-committees that help them oversee certain aspects of the charity's work. Sub-committees are currently set up for construction department and finance for the day-to-day management of the building and report back with their recommendation to the full meeting of the trustees. The sub committees each meet weekly.

The objects of the charity are set out in the charity's trust deed and are summarized as follows:

To advance the Islamic faith in the Cheetham hill area for the benefit of the public in particular through the holding of prayers, meetings, lectures, the public celebration of religious festivals and the distribution of literature on the Islamic faith to enlighten others. To advance the education of, and to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for leisure-time occupation with the objection of improving the condition of life for all the local community members by the provision, maintenance, and management of a Ikhlass mosque.
