Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Throughout the year we continued to deliver Islamic religious education classes Monday to Friday in the evenings and in the afternoons during the weekends. Our programmes for our female community members continue to be very popular and well attended. We expanded the number of sessions run whilst also broadening the range of activities being delivered. Our core activities of holding regular prayer meetings, lectures and seminars for the benefit of the public continued throughout the year. Our activities have provided opportunities for our community to come together and provide spiritual and pastoral support to one another. We are extremely grateful to all our donors who made voluntary donations and also provided qard-al-hasna (interest free loan) to allow us to deliver the objectives of the organisation. We also very grateful to our volunteers for giving their time and effort to ensure that our work and activities continued throughout the year. Future fund raising activities will continue which will enable us to cover routine running costs, repay the qard-al-hasna and complete the car-park resurfacing work.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

Independent
examiner's statement

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
