Activities

Objects: 2.1 To relieve the financial hardship of children and youth by reason of loss of parents and/or guardians in Sri Lanka. 2.2 To advance the education of such disadvantaged children and youth. 2.3 To provide youth with vocational education and training to acquire skills to earn a living.

Activities: we are mainly a donor organisation, providing sponsors, for the foster care project, administered by local AEDU units in Sri Lanka. It is devoted to the education and holistic development of orphans and other children traumatised and impoverished by the civil war. In targeting affected children, we also enable the build up of family units by placing disadvantaged children with foster families.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- To relieve the financial hardship of children and young people following loss of parents and or guardians in Sri Lanka.
- To advance the education of such disadvantaged children and youth.
- To provide young people with vocational education and training to acquire skills to earn a living.
- To enhance the livelihoods of impoverished communities

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- We are mainly a donor organisation providing sponsors, for the foster care project, administered by local AEDU organisations in Sri Lanka.
- We are devoted to the education and holistic development of orphans and other children traumatised and impoverished by the civil war.
- In targeting affected children, we also enable the build up of family units by placing disadvantaged children with foster families in their own localities.
- Initial focus on primary and secondary education; expanding to the tertiary sector, both academic and vocational.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

- We have sponsored the education of nearly 5,000 children since our launch in 2009.
- We are financing the full-time education of 600 primary and secondary school children.
- 30 of our school leavers are engaged in university education and 14 students completed medical degrees in 2024.
- We are engaged in launching other vocational courses for school leavers.
- We have opened study centres in many towns, providing extra classes for O and A Level students and also Year 5 scholarship pupils.
- We have supported self-employment schemes, mainly aimed at women running households: five women were assisted with start-ups for clay-pot making, coconut oil extraction, tailoring and store-keeping.
- As part of the 'We Can' movement, we invested five lakhs to help five shops run their businesses in Batticaloa.
- Under our 'Livelihood Enhancement Scheme', nearly 20 women learned to make and market handicrafts made from recycled products like coconut shells and wood cuttings.
- Our sewing project in the Urani village of Amparai has proven successful in the creation and distribution of tailored products.
- AEDU-UK supplied five sewing machines, sewing tools and equipment valuing approximately Rs.1,528,000 to enable women in Kilinochchi to run their own tailoring centre. The centre was officially opened in July 2025. This project was overseen by the Rural Development Office (RDO).
- Five families in Vaharai, Trincomalee, have benefitted from our investments in irrigation and provision of 4 and a half acres of land and tools for cultivation.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

- To relieve the financial hardship of children and youth by reason of loss of parents and or guardians in SRI LANKA.
- To advance the education of such disadvantaged children and youth.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- We are mainly a donor organisation providing sponsors, for the foster care project, administrated by local AEDU organisations in Sri Lanka.
- We are devoted to the education and holistic development of orphans and other children traumatised and impoverished by the civil war.
- In targeting affected children, we also enable the build up of family units by placing disadvantaged children with foster families in their own localities.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/ members of	Charity Name Association for Educational Development of the Underprivileged
On accounts for the year ended	31 December 2022	Charity no (if any)	1142552
Set out on pages	Two

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

- It is my responsibility to:
- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
 - to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
 - to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
