Principal Activities

The objectives of the charity are the advancement of education and relief of poverty in Pakistan and in the Pakistani community in the UK. The charity has been actively pursuing these objectives.

A number of fund raising events were organised during the year, where the focus was to impact education, knowledge along with donation collection.

The trustees confirmed that their decision making and running of the charity is to provide public benefit. They have full regard to relevant guidelines issued by Charity Commission

Organisational Structure

The charity is a limited company by guarantee and is not profit making. The trustees are responsible for the overall management and control of the charity.

Risks

The trustees have taken steps to establish the risks to which the charity is exposed and have put systems in place to mitigate those risks.

Review of the Results

The trustees consider that the results set out on pages 5 to 7 are satisfactory. They are of the opinion that the balance on the funds is sufficient to meet any future commitments.

Fixed Assets

The fixed assets are depreciated and currently there is no fixed assets

Trustees Responsibilities

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year (or other accounting period) which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of its surplus or deficit for that year. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonably prudent;
- prepare accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charity Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In preparing the above report, the trustees have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

TO THE TRUSTEES OF GHAZALI EDUCATION TRUST (UK) LIMITED

We report on the accounts of the Ghazali Education Trust (UK) Limited, registered charity number 1142618 for the accounts period ended 30th November 2024 set out on pages 5 to 7.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF TRUSTEES AND EXAMINER

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation for the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 43(3)(a) of the 1993 Act)
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to our attention.

BASIS OF INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT:

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT:

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention;

- (1) which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
 - . to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act; and
 - . to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
