REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 AUGUST 2024

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 August 2024. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The main objectives of the charity are:

- To advance and promote the practice and teaching of traditional Judaism and in particular by undertaking the continuance of the Synagogue known as the Beth Abraham Synagogue at present at 46 The Ridgeway London NW11, and by holding religious services, lectures and classes, and by employing such staff as the trustees consider necessary for the furtherance of the company's objectives and aims.
- To raise and distribute funds for the relief of poverty.

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities.

Significant activities

The charity administers the Beth Abraham Synagogue and ensures that it is managed in a legal, correct and efficient manner. The Synagogue caters for the need of traditional members of the Jewish faith. It is open every day of the year for organised prayer, and public and private learning. It organises cultural and social events and provides social welfare for those in need.

The Synagogue receives subscriptions and donations from those who wish to become members but all its facilities and services are available at no cost to anyone who wishes to utilise them.

The charity is responsible for all financial aspects of the Synagogue, both income and expenditure, and ensures the upkeep of the Synagogue building.

The charity also collects donations and distributes them to aid poverty and to further education for deserving individuals and organisations.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The trustees have reviewed the reserves of the charity whose policy is to try to retain sufficient funds to meet all foreseeable expenditure.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is a company limited by guarantee not having a share capital. It is registered with the Charity Commission (Charity Registration number 1142879).

The charity's governing instruments are its Memorandum and Articles of Association, dated 22 September 1972.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

New trustees are recruited and appointed by the existing trustees as required.

Organisational structure

The overall management of the charity is vested in the trustees, who regularly meet to discuss and review the charity's activities, and are assisted in their decisions by the Rabbi of the Synagogue.

Induction and training of new trustees

Any new appointment of trustees will be followed by suitable induction and training to ensure the new trustees understand the nature of the charity and their responsibilities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF BETH ABRAHAM SYNAGOGUE LIMITED

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Beth Abraham Synagogue Limited ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 August 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of certain assets.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the year end date are noted as a commitment but not accrued as expenditure.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Freehold property	- not provided
Plant and machinery	- 15% on reducing balance

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
