Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	AL-SUNNAH CENTRE is constituted as a charity registered with the charity commission in April 2011 under charity number 1143066. The charity is governed by a charity constitution which is formed in 2011.
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	The charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time for free and receive no remuneration or other financial benefits. The trustees meet together as a body monthly and are responsible for decision making in relation to the running of the centre and all activities provided by the charity. There are sub committees who support the centre (AL-SUNNAH) activities in order to create an effective centre control systems. These committees oversee certain aspects of the charity work. For example, sub-committees for finance, education and day to day management of the centre. The sub-committees each meet five times a year, on different months to each other
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	The procedures for electing or appointing new trustees are set out in a charity's governing document and selection method used is consistent with these procedures. For example, if members elect the trustees at the AGM, the existing trustees might be able to suggest which candidates they feel are most suitable but will not have the final say on who is appointed.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The charity's objective is to advance the education of the public in general (and particularly amongst Muslims). In particular but not exclusively on the subjects of Islam i.e. the Quran and religious tolerance.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Held lessons and lectures on Islamic topics for the public which they have benefitted from greatly. We also educated the youth on the correct beliefs of Orthodox Islam and they also memorised the complete Quran (Koran).

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees have reviewed the reserves of the charity. Their policy is to hold enough funds to meet three month's operating costs of the Centre. The trustees are considering raising funds to purchase the building and establish funeral services facilities. The trustees are also planning to increase education sessions. The financial forecasting for the purchasing of the building and extending education sessions is under process.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Section F

Other optional information

Section G

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/members of

AL-SUNNAH CENTRE

On accounts for the year ended

21 APRIL 2022

Charity no
(1143066)

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
