Hoylake Parade Community Centre: The Heart of Our Town

A Year of Connection

Looking back on the past twelve months, the word that best describes Hoylake Parade is "connection." In a world that often feels increasingly digital and distant, The Parade has remained a steadfast physical space where people from all walks of life come together. Whether it's the quiet companionship found in Popsy's café, the collective viewing of a movie on a big screen at Hoylake Film Club, the energy of a fitness class, the quiet reflection of yoga, learning a language, or the creativity of local resident artists, this building is much more than bricks and mortar - it is the heartbeat of our community.

Celebrating Our People

The true success of the last year isn't found in our spreadsheets, but in the people who walk through our doors:

- Our Users: From toddlers in playgroups to our more senior members attending social clubs, we are proud to be a multi-generational hub.
- Our Staff: I want to personally thank our small but mighty team. They go above and beyond every day to ensure the building is safe, clean, and welcoming. We have made it a priority this year to ensure they feel supported and respected in their workplace, as their well-being is fundamental to the Centre's success.

A Vibrant Community Program

This year saw a wonderful resurgence in local events. We have hosted everything from local artisan markets and film nights to essential support services that provide a lifeline to those in need.

Trustees

In the last 12 months we welcomed co-opted trustee, Sarah Briscoe and accepted the resignation of Kathryn Holmberg. The current remaining directors/trustees would like to thank Kathryn for her service to Hoylake Parade Community Centre.

Upholding Our Values

As Trustees, our role is to act as guardians of this space. To keep the Centre a happy and safe environment for everyone. We believe that everyone - staff, volunteers, and visitors alike - deserves to be treated with kindness and respect. By upholding these values, we ensure that the Community Centre remains a "safe haven" for the vulnerable and a professional space for our partners.

Looking Forward to next year

As we look to the year ahead, we will look to reinvest profit we generate back into the fabric of the building. Our goal is to ensure that "The Parade" remains a landmark we can all be proud of - not just for its history, but for its future.

The Parade belongs to the people of Hoylake. Thank you for choosing to spend your time with us, for supporting the various classes and groups that use our spaces, and for keeping the spirit of our community alive.

Report of the trustees (incorporating the directors report)
for the year ended 31 March 2025

I report on the accounts of Hoylake Parade Community Centre for the year ended 31 March 2025 set out in Section B.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required under section 144 of the Act and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- 1 examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act.
- 2 to follow the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act, and
- 3 to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which give me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- ~ the accounts were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- ~ the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- ~ the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a "true and fair" view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Chair's Report

Hoylake Parade Community Centre's staff and board of trustees remain committed to the provision of a community centre for Hoylake during these economically challenging times with rising energy costs and rising operational costs.

The Community Police Station, Sanderlings Nursery, The Sensory Room, Popsy's Café, a number of small business users, as well as long term users such as, Wirral Sandyacht Club, Hoylake & West Kirby Theatre Group, Hoylake Evangelical Church all remain long term parties to the operation of the community centre generating stable income that allows the centre a financial base on which to remain stable and look to build for the future.

October 2023 saw the reintroduction of cinema usage at the centre with the creation of Hoylake Film Club publicly screening films on the last Friday of each month. Something that was instigated by popular demand from previous users of Hoylake Community Cinema.

In 2022 we welcomed co-opted trustee Kathryn Holmberg. In November 2023 Kathryn Holmberg was formally appointed to the board.

September 2023 saw the resignation of director/trustee Julio Cesar Camacho Bonila. The current remaining directors/trustees would like to thank Julio for his service to Hoylake Parade Community Centre.

Since staffing and trustee changes in 2021 the trust has moved away from seeking grant funding to supplement income or fund individual projects.

While these accounts show a slight deficit the trust retains sufficient reserves and remains confident that the financial position can improve in the coming year.

Thanks to all trustees and staff for giving their time and support to ensuring the Parade remains one of the best places for the community to enjoy in Hoylake.

We look forward with confidence to the next year and continuing to serve as a centre for the local community and will continue to balance the ongoing community aspects of the centre with the need to generate revenue from local business sources.

for the year ended 31 March 2021

I report on the accounts of Hoylake Parade Community Centre for the year ended 31 March 2021 set out in Section B.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required under section 144 of the Act and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- 1 examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act.
- 2 to follow the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act, and
- 3 to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which give me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- ~ the accounts were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- ~ the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- ~ the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a "true and fair" view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The Police, Popsy's Café, the Sanderlings Nursery, Wirral Sandyacht Club and other local small businesses continue as longer term users which generates stable income that allows the centre a financial base on which to remain stable and build for the future.

In 2023 we welcomed Kathryn Holmberg as a co-opted trustee. The directors/trustees have continued in a more active role in the day to day running of the centre as we continue to recover since reopening after the pandemic lock down. We have taken on a few new staff on flexible hours to alleviate pressure from holiday and sickness cover as well as caretaking cover on those weekends we have bookings.

Though there is always a general 'churn' of regular users we have seen the level of bookings remain stable since reopening. Users of the centre continue to express positive comments about the centre building, how the place is run and the friendliness and helpfulness of the staff/trustees.

Thanks to all trustees and staff for giving their time and support to ensuring the Parade remains one of the best places for the community to enjoy.

We look forward with confidence to the next year and continuing to serve as a centre for the local community.

for the year ended 31 March 2023

I report on the accounts of Hoylake Parade Community Centre for the year ended 31 March 2023 set out in Section B.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required under section 144 of the Act and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- 1 examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act.
- 2 to follow the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act, and
- 3 to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which give me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- ~ the accounts were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- ~ the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- ~ the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a "true and fair" view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Chair's Report

A challenging year for Hoylake Parade as for the first half of the year the Community Centre building remained closed to the general public due to the situation with the Covid pandemic.

The Community Police Station, Popsy's Café and the Sanderlings Nursery remained operational during the period of closure and a number of rooms let to small business users also continued to generate income for the Trust. The Government furlough scheme and other support grants from the local authority were key to keeping afloat and enabling the retention of our permanent staff until the centre reopened in September 2021.

In 2019 we welcomed co-opted trustees, David Stevens, Jill Anderton-Stevens and Julio Camacho. In April 2020 they were formally appointed to the board. Immediately prior to our reopening in September we saw the resignation of 3 long standing directors/trustees, John Magee, Vaughan Williams and Roger Bates. Furthermore, the remaining directors/trustees accepted the retirement resignation of long-standing director/trustee Ray Davies at our AGM in October 2021. The current remaining directors/trustees would like to thank those who resigned for their long-standing service to Hoylake Parade Community Centre.

Upon re-opening we saw several staffing changes. Despite this and other challenges the centre has remained open. The directors/trustees taking a more active role in the day to day running of the centre has steadied the ship and kept us on an even keel during a rather stormy period.

Bookings have increased since reopening. New staff have been taken on. Users of the centre have expressed positive comments regarding how the place is run. We look forward with confidence to the next year and continuing to serve as a centre for the local community.

In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;

- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

for the year ended 31 March 2021

I report on the accounts of Hoylake Parade Community Centre for the year ended 31 March 2022 set out in Section B.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required under section 144 of the Act and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- 1 examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act.
- 2 to follow the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act, and
- 3 to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which give me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- ~ the accounts were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- ~ the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- ~ the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a "true and fair" view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Chairman's Report

Another very strange year for the Parade as we remained closed for general use groups due to the Covid situation.

The Police, Popsy's Café and the Sanderlings Nursery remained open and a number of rooms were let to small business users which generated some income but the Government furlough scheme was the key to keeping us afloat and enabling us to retain our staff. Other grants were sought and the overall financial position is satisfactory as we move to reopening in September. We were all very touched by the residents of Dovedale Road adjacent to the Centre donating the results of a fund raiser to the Parade. This was much appreciated and shows the special place we have in the Local Community.

We have bookings going ahead and have been able to do refurbishment work to the building including energy saving lighting installations. We look forward with confidence to the next year so we can begin to move forward and continue to serve as a centre for the local residents.

for the year ended 31 March 2021

I report on the accounts of Hoylake Parade Community Centre for the year ended 31 March 2021 set out in Section B.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required under section 144 of the Act and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- 1 examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act.
- 2 to follow the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act, and
- 3 to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which give me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- ~ the accounts were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- ~ the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- ~ the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a "true and fair" view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
