Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document	Trust Deed
How the charity is constituted	There are 3 Trustees having one of them as a chairman. The trustees have statutory powers as regards the acquisition or disposal of land and the employment of agents, nominees and custodians. The trustees may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee of two or more trustees. The trustees must exercise their powers jointly at properly convened meetings.
Trustee selection methods	There must be at least 2 trustees, Apart from the first trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of 5 years by a resolution of the trustees passed at a special meeting called under clause 15 of the Trust Deed.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

RISK POLICY

The Trustees have examined the major strategic, business and operational risks which the charity faces and confirm that systems have been established to enable regular reports to be produced so that the necessary steps can be taken to lessen these risks.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

1. To advance the Christian Religion for the benefit of the public
2. The prevention or relief of poverty or financial hardship anywhere in the world by providing or assisting in the provision of education, training, healthcare projects and all the necessary support designed to enable individuals to generate a sustainable income and be self sufficient.

During the year under review, the charity made various donations to very poor areas of Ghana to support the provision of clean water and educational facilities.

For educational purposes, the charity provided books, printed handouts, DVDs and face to face preaching and lecturing in communities around Milton Keynes, London and Watford, in the UK. Some of the materials were also sent to Ghana.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/members of

Flames of Victory Ministries International

On accounts for the year ended

30 September 2023

Charity no
(if any)

1143465

Set out on pages

1 - 2

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/09/2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
