Structure, governance and Management

The charity is governed and managed in accordance with the provisions of its Trust Deed adopted on 18 August 2011.

Methods of recruitment and appointment of trustees

The new trustees of the charity are appointed by the existing trustees at a special meeting called for this purpose.

Jamia Masjid Abu-Bakr and Islamic Centre
Trustee's report (continued) for the year ended 30 September 2025

Objectives and activities

The charity's objectives

To advance the Islamic religion and culture by provision of Islamic education to muslims and non-muslims, to help relieve poverty and the distress anywhere in the world by assisting in the provision of education, training and healthcare projects and the promotion of religious harmony among religious faiths in Huddersfield and Kirklees.

The Charity's main activities

Jamia Masjid Abu-Bakr and Islamic Centre offers a place of worship for holding of regular prayer meetings, lectures, public celebrations of religious events, producing and distributing literature on Islam to enlighten others about the muslim religion in light of Quran and Sunnah and providing religious education facilities for the muslims and non- muslims alike.

Public benefit statement

In setting our objectives and planning our activities our trustees have given serious consideration to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

Achievements and performance

This year also, the demand for our services have stayed strong. We are dealing with more or less similar number of children, as last year, attending Arabic language and Islamic education classes. Number of people attending major religious celebrations and regular prayers are similar to last year.

As an organisation we acted positively to meet new demand for our services. In accordance with our Equal Opportunities policy we have provided bilingual teachers who can communicate with the pupils in English as well as in their mother tongues.

The staff and volunteers have been critical in serving our community for many years. I acknowledge and value their efforts in making Jamia Masjid Abu-Bakr and Islamic Centre a successful and trusted community service organisation- thank you.

Financial Review

The net deficit of resources for the year were £6,158.

Reserve Policy

The charity's free reserves, excluding fixed assets, at the year end were £114,060.
The trustees have not adopted a formal reserve policy.

Jamia Masjid Abu-Bakr and Islamic Centre
Independent examiner's report
To the trustees of Jamia Masjid Abu-Bakr and Islamic Centre

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 30 September 2025 which are set out on pages 4 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and the examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. They consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to examine the accounts under section 43 (2) of the 1993 Act, follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43 (7) (b) of the Act) and state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedure undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:-

1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act;
- b) and to prepare accounts which accord with accounting records and comply with the accounting the 1993 Act have not been met; or

2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1 Accounting policies

Basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared under historical cost convention. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities (SORP 2005) and the Charities Act 1993.

There has been no change to the accounting policies since last year.

Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SOFA) when the charity becomes entitled to the resources.

Islamic books and Literature

These books are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Expenditure and liabilities

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability is incurred. Liabilities are recognised as soon there is legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to pay out the resources.

Taxation

As charity the organisation benefits from rates relief and is generally exempt from income tax and capital gains tax but not from VAT. Irrecoverable VAT is included in the cost of those items to which it relates.

Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets costing more than £500 are capitalised and included at cost, including any incidental expenses of acquisition. Land and property are not depreciated and are shown in the accounts at cost to the charity. However, Depreciation is provided on all fixtures and fitting at rates calculated to write off the cost on a straight line based over their expected useful lives as follows:

Fixtures and fittings - over 5 years

Fund Accounting

All the funds are unrestricted and are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in the furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.
