Nutfield Village Hall Ltd
For the year ended 31st December 2021

The trustees present their report (which also constitutes the report of the directors) together with the financial statements of the Nutfield Village Hall Limited for the year ended 31st December 2021.

Nutfield Village Hall Limited (NVHL) is responsible for promoting and administering the Hall on behalf of its Custodian Trustee – the Nutfield Parish Council (NPC) – as a viable, not-for-profit, local community centre and facility for use by the residents and parishioners of the village of Nutfield and its environs. NVHL is responsible also for all aspects of the maintenance of the hall.

The trustees have complied with the duty to have regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charities Commission.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Organisational structure

Nutfield Village Hall Limited (NVHL) is incorporated at Companies House as a company limited by guarantee and is also registered as a charity with the Charity Commission of England and Wales. During the period of this report, its board comprised of two directors;

Bill Damen (Chairman) from 1st January 2020 to 21st July 2021

James Kearney (Chairman) from 22nd July 2021

Cormac Murphy (Secretary)

Adele Reast Duggan (Committee Trustee) from 22nd July 2021

Rachel Coker (Committee Trustee) from 22nd July 2021

Bob Austin (Committee Trustee) 22nd July 2021 – 11th April 2022

Stephen Hall (Committee Trustee)

Helen Cameron (Committee Trustee)

Financial matters were administered by Nutfield Parish Council who have appointed the Village Hall Coordinator to carry out these duties.

The board of director-trustees is supported by a management committee of six individuals, four of whom have been individually nominated and elected for appointment annually by the respective regular hall-user organisations in accordance with the original founding deed of the trust. The two additional members of the management committee are appointed for individually stated duties to support NVHL. During the period of this report, the members of the management committee have comprised:

Helen Cameron (Nutfield Pre-School)

Chris Hanson (Showtimers)

Hilary Martin (Wednesday Guild) (David Watts Art Group)

Rigel Mowatt (Nutfield Parish Council)

Tim Mumby (Nutfield Link)

Stephen Hall – Health and Safety advice to NVHL

Laura Pollock – Clerk and Treasurer

Carla Scott – Village Hall Coordinator and Treasurer from June 2021

The NVHL board and its management committee meet together, every two months as required, and are responsible for making decisions on all matters of general concern and importance to the hall.

For the year ended 31st December 2021

The foregoing report is endorsed and authorised by the board of director-trustees of NVHL to be signed on their behalf by James Kearney, Chairman.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which NVHL is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

NVHL is committed to enabling as many diverse local organisations, people and their families, as possible to use the hall for both regular and occasional educational, recreational and social activities at an affordable and realistic cost. During the period covered by this report these activities have, for example, included an Ofsted registered pre-school, dance classes providing tuition in a variety of different dance styles, providing a venue for weekly rehearsals and performance for a local amateur dramatics group, a place to practise painting skills with a local art group, a venue for a youth judo club, printing and collation of a monthly village magazine, puppy training classes, plus a venue for meetings held by the Parish Council.

In addition to these regular activities, the hall has been the venue of choice for a wide variety of occasional events, ranging from private family birthday parties and family christening celebrations, Christmas crafts workshop, comedy nights, Boogie Monsters dance events and a Christmas fair and shopping event.

In supporting all these activities and in the promotion of future additional and expanding activities, NVHL policy adheres strictly to the Charity Commission's issued definition and guidance on what constitutes public benefit.

Achievement and Performance

In accordance with the responsibilities for the proper maintenance and refurbishment of the fabric of the hall, NVHL undertook the following actions during the period covered by this report:

1. Replaced the worn signage at the front of the hall
2. Invested in wifi boosters to improve the wifi signal for hall users
3. Took on a replacement village hall coordinator, chairman and three new committee trustees
4. Undertook general maintenance: plumbing repairs, lighting replacement in the main hall
5. Roofing repairs in January and February 2021

Financial Review

NVHL generates the majority of its income through the booking of the hall by village societies and organisations. The total income for the year was £29,033 (2020 - £22,104) and total expenditure amounted to £20,923 (2020 - £15,053) resulting in a net income of £8,110 (2020 - £7,051). The bookings for the year 2021 amounted to £15,362 compared to £10,715 for the previous twelve months period in 2020.

The trustees would like to acknowledge the grants received during the year from Tandridge District Council of £11,501 and from Nutfield Parish Council of £2,000.

As at the period end the charity held funds of £41,535 (2020 - £33,425).

Going concern

After making appropriate enquiries the trustees are satisfied that there is a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future, and for this reason they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements.

Future Plans

Village Hall Website

The NVHL website www.nutfieldvillagehall.com shows full details of the facilities and rates applicable together with a calendar showing the dates of booked events so that customers making enquiries can see which days are available. There is a gallery with photographs of the facilities and the latest reviews have now been added to the reviews page.

Additional content, including a floor plan and a ‘What’s On’ page, is in the pipeline.

The website is being used well, and bookings are now made by e-mail/online form.

Trustees’ responsibilities in relation to the Financial Statements

The charity trustees (who are also directors of Nutfield Village Hall Limited) are responsible for preparing a trustees’ annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice):

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and the group and hence taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charitable company’s website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of
Nutfield Village Hall Ltd

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Nutfield Village Hall Ltd for the year ended 31st December 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of Nutfield Village Hall Ltd you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the accounts of Nutfield Village Hall Ltd as required under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. Accounting records were not kept in respect of Nutfield Village Hall Ltd as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. That accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. That accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than the requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Nutfield Village Hall Ltd
Notes to the financial statements
For the year ended 31st December 2021

The charitable company is registered in England and Wales and the registered office is situated at Nutfield Village Hall, Mid Street, South Nutfield, Surrey RH1 4JJ.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard (FRS102) Statement of Recommended Practice in Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing accounts in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) and Charities Act 2011. Nutfield Village Hall Ltd constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS102.

Income

All incoming resources are included on the Statement of Financial Activities when the charity is legally entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. Income from local authority grants is recognised when received.

Expenditure

Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings, they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Depreciation rate – 25% on cost.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purpose within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Going concern

The trustees are satisfied that there is reasonable expectation that the charitable company has adequate resources to enable it to continue to operate as a going concern for the foreseeable future.
