How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Trust
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	The Trustees are elected/re-elected annually via the Annual General Meeting, which is held in November each year.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;• the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;• relationship with any related parties;• trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.	Crash Bang Wallop Youth Theatre (CBW) has been a registered charity since 19th September 2011. The current governing document is the approved Constitution, which was revised at the AGM in November 2014. CBW is governed by its Trustees, who are elected/re-elected annually at the Annual General Meeting, scheduled for each November. Our last AGM took place on 10 November 2021. Established trustees work with newly appointed trustees to provide face to face induction training. The Trustees meet as a management committee at least six times per year, together with two parent/guardian representatives, two youth members from rehearsals, and two teaching assistant representatives. This continues to provide ample opportunity for all CBW users to have their say about the Youth Theatre and its future development. Nominations to become a trustee are actively welcomed from the parents and guardians of the youth theatre members, and from other people from the local community who have an active interest in the performing arts and can offer their business knowledge and skills, in order to assist the financial wellbeing and future development of the Youth Theatre Group. RISK REVIEW CBW trustees are very aware of the need for risk assessment and to plan strategically for the long term future of our Youth Theatre. All our trustees are committed and they have a range of relevant skills to assist with the further development of CBW Youth Theatre. The main risks continue to be financial ones, as there are monthly outgoings for rent, utilities and insurance which are not fully covered by income from productions. The management committee aim to keep between 3 to 6 months of monthly costs in (cash) reserves to cover contingencies. CBW Youth Theatre continues to organise many fundraising events in order to provide sufficient finances to plan for future productions, and we apply for grants when available. The CBW family always pull together to fundraise. We offer our rehearsal studios and facilities for hire to other organisations and we will continue to encourage other organisations in our local community to make good use of them. One of CBW's greatest strengths is its excellent reputation, and the fact that all our productions are featured in the local and regional press, meaning that our performances are well attended by families, friends and the local community, generating a strong positive cash flow from ticket sales. Working with young people, safeguarding is also a priority on the risk register and we have a safeguarding officer and documented safeguarding policy and procedures.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document	The Charity's objects are to advance the education of young people in the performing arts by running and maintaining a Youth Theatre, and to develop public appreciation in a rural area of such art through the showing of such performances.
Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)	The Charity's objectives and principal activity for the public benefit is to continue to provide education and training for young people in all aspects of the performing arts. CBW usually performs two major productions for the public each year, and these are very well received by all audiences. Following 2 years of covid lockdown, we returned to 2 full audience performances in the year to 31 August 2022 at Northallerton. Legally Blonde in February 2022 and In the Heights in July 2022 were both very successful, with excellent reviews from NODA and with cast members being proposed for and receiving NODA awards. CBW also provides and maintains its own Youth Theatre Studios, a rehearsal space which is also available for use by other community groups who have put on shows throughout the year. The CBW trustees confirm that they have referred to the Charity Commission's guidance on 'public benefit' in making its decisions, and by reviewing the Youth Theatre's aims and objectives on a regular basis.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• policy on grant making;• policy programme related investment;• Contribution made by volunteers.	CBW Youth Theatre does not employ any paid staff. The artistic director, Dan Brookes, who set up CBW Youth Theatre in 2005 has never received any financial payments, and our Choreographer and rehearsal assistants also provide their services on a voluntary and unpaid basis. The Musical Director is usually paid a fee following each major production and we also pay a small fee to all orchestra members including a conductor, to ensure that we obtain high quality and experienced musicians.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year	With the lifting of Covid restrictions we were again able to put on two shows this year, Legally Blonde in February 2022 and in the Heights in July 2022 We were once again able to run our Christmas fair fundraiser in November 2021, which raised over £800, our popular open mic night in March 2022 raised £415, and our annual 'parents and alumni' show which raised £700. We also successfully applied for a Co-op community grant and received our first payment of £850 during the year, which was used to purchase new microphone headsets for the cast. The CBW Trustees are extremely grateful to the parents and guardians of the 40+ youth members of the theatre for their time and skills, and without their help and support it would not have been possible to have achieved what we have done as a registered charity. The children's parents continue to be involved with all major shows each year, helping with set painting, obtaining props, costumes making, dressing room cover as well as other forms of fundraising. Feedback for the children involved is overwhelmingly positive about the CBWYT Theatre experience. Seeing their growing confidence and abilities is hugely rewarding, as is the fact that there is now a strong stream of alumni now entering higher and further education in the performance arts area. The children all work extremely hard in rehearsals and the theatrical performances that result from this are always of a high standard. Local and regional newspaper articles continue to comment regularly upon the energy and professionalism of our Youth Theatre group. Further information about CBWYT can be found at: http://crashbangwallop.org.uk/

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	The charity had £13,593 in liquid assets, either in cash or in the Charity Bank Accounts, at the year end. The charity aims to keep small reserves (3 to 6 months of operating costs) to cover running costs for the continuance of the charity into the next financial year. As of 31st August 2022 our reserves stood higher than usual as a result of significant individual fundraising events from the previous year and remaining cash reserves from prior year covid grants. The trustees are discussing how these reserves might best be used to both improve the theatre space and ensure the security of the charity.
Details of any funds materially in deficit	N/A

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity’s principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- Investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The majority of income comes from performing our main productions each year and from cast membership subscriptions, together with two major fundraising events each year.
