Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To relieve the suffering of stray and abandoned cats by providing shelter and veterinary care, promote neutering of animals and educate the public in welfare matters to prevent cruelty and suffering

Summary of the main activities in relation to these object

We promote and support the mutually beneficial bond between animal and owner which provides a proven increase in both mental and physical welfare. This is achieved via rescue and rehabilitation and placement with ongoing community support if necessary.
The trustees give regard to the Charity Commission 's guidance on public benefit in achieving our aims.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Via continued and persistant fundraising efforts , the charity has enabled rescue, rehabilitation and rehoming of neglected, abandoned and injured animals. These activities have led to placements in various homes giving a new life to these animals and in many cases, essential companionship to elderly and isolated individuals. This in turn often leads to a more frequent and positive contact with others socially.
We have reached out through the community and enhanced the quality of life of people via practical and financial support to assist retention of their beloved pets during this difficult time.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Report to the trustees/ members of	Charity Name KITTY IN THE CITY
On accounts for the year ended	26 JULY 2020	Charity no (if any)	1144129
Set out on pages	1 to 2 <small>(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)</small>
Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act)) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>examine the accounts (under section 43 of the Act),</li> <li>to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the Act), and</li> <li>to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.</li> </ul>
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:           <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 41 of the Act); and</li> <li>accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or</li> </ul> </li> <li>to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.</li> </ol>
