Annual Report of Trustees of British Quality Care Foundation

This report covers the period from the recognition of the charitable status in July 2024 until June 2025.

Establishing Operating Procedures

During this operational year, meetings were held by the trustees to establish procedures for assessing projects and then how the payments could be made once the work had been completed. So far all monies paid out have been on work that had been completed but a process for ensuring that the relevant work has indeed carried out has been established. The Charity also had a set off agreement.

Activities Supported

The Charity's main activity in this financial year was holding Skills development and employment workshops for unemployed adults and young people, Carers, support workers and Supported housing accommodation.

Support was offered to support beneficiaries into employment, education and training. The Charity also provided Consulting and staffing support to care providers which were paid services.

Fund Raising
