The charity's object is to promote the voluntary sector for the public benefit by enabling access to its' offices and services and providing support to other charities and organisations in the voluntary sector. To promote social inclusion for the public benefit by working with members of the community who are socially excluded on the grounds of age, gender, disability, language, and ethnic origin and to relieve the needs of such people and assist them to integrate into society.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In planning the activities for this year, the trustees have continued to review the Guidance on Public Benefit published by the Charity Commission at their trustee meetings.

The summary of the charity's main activities are as follows:

We have continued to organize and hold our annual calendar of large ceremonial events. At these gathering, there is live music, key notes speakers and food and drink in provided. These gatherings offer an invaluable opportunity for the community to gather and allows families, especially those living in exile to meet in a safe and welcoming environment.

With our office being forced to close during the lockdown, we continued the weekly gatherings online. Our virtual meetings allows the service users to share their life experiences and information in real time without the need for being physically located in the same room together.

Additional details of objectives and activities (optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Achievements and Performance:

We have continued to educate young people whose parents fled their homeland and refugee children. Many of these children were born in the UK or arrived in the UK as young children. In many cases this has caused a conflict of identity as the children struggle to identify themselves. Their family and background cultures often contradict the values of the society in which they live. Many of these children are Muslim, which in the current climate adds additional pressures. One of our greatest successes has been to organize meetings and Q&A sessions aimed at helping these children identify as British and helping them to embrace British values while at the same time respecting their cultural heritage.

We have assisted the victims of domestic violence in the community. Often these women do not speak English and are therefore unaware of their rights and are lonely and isolated. We have provided these women with the latest information on their legal rights as well as assistance with their housing rights, children's rights, immigration rights as well as information on separation and divorce. All our services were online or on the phone during the lockdown.

More than 20 volunteers in our charity, have signed up to the new volunteer hub following the urgent call, to help vulnerable people during the Coronavirus pandemic. We provided food parcels, befriending phone calls for the lonely and isolated, personal shopping, and support for shielded residents.
