Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity is in a strong financial position at year end with a surplus for the year of £4,565.97 leaving reserves of £15,831.33. The surplus was largely due to a large one-off sponsorship payment that will not be repeated next year. Expenditure was again predominantly focused on improving facilities.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Our policy is to hold enough reserves for the club to function for 2-3 years without any income. Currently our reserves equate to approximately three times the value of the unavoidable expenditure of the club (Sports Club Fees, League Fees, Match Balls, Insurance, Umpires), which is an acceptable position for the Trustees.

Section A Independent Examiner’s Report

Report to the trustees	Charity Name Tata Steel Cricket Club
On accounts for the year ended	30/09/2024	Charity no (if any)	1145644
Set out on pages	6 <small>(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)</small>

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity (“the Trust”) for the year ended 30/09/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report
As the charity’s trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 (“the Act”).

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust’s accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner’s statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a ‘true and fair’ view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
