TRUSTEES' REPORT AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED
31 DECEMBER 2022

REGISTERED NO 1145990

LONDON PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TRUSTEES' REPORT

The trustees present their report and accounts for the year ended 31 December 2022.

The activities of the charity

London Presbyterian Church ("the Trust") exists to advance the Christian religion in accordance with Presbyterian beliefs for the public benefit.

Financial

The surplus for the year is £11,143 and has been transferred to the general fund.

Trustees

The Trust was administered by its three trustees:

Sang Chul Sin
Ki Soon Hwang
Mi Hwa Lee

Trustees' responsibilities

The constitution of the charity and charity law require the trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and the incoming resources and application of resources for that period. In preparing those accounts the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts; and
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue its activities.

The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the charity. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities with an appropriate system of internal controls.

Independent Examiner of the Trust is Yang & Partners Ltd trading as Archbird of Suite 41, Chessington Business Centre, 37 Cox Lane, Chessington, KT9 1SD.

This report was approved by the Trustees on 28th June 2023.

LONDON PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES

We report on the accounts of London Presbyterian Church for the year ended 31 December 2022, which are set out on pages 3 to 5.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that the audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is our responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act,

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. The examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not Approved by the Trustees on 28th June 2023 and signed on their behalf:
accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with our examination, no matters have come to our attention:

- 1) which give us reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - i)
 - i) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the charities Act; and
 - ii) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
 - have not been met; or
- 2) which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn to in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
