In particular there are policies and procedures for vulnerable adults protection and for health and safety risks.

As described on page 5, the Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144(1) of the Charities Act 2011 and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

State whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of Independent examiner's statement

Our examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and items or disclosures in the accounts, seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act have not been met; or

Risk Management

The Trustees have identified the major strategic risks to which CET-c for Women is exposed and established controls and actions to mitigate them. Each year, risk assessments take place the centres we hire in Surrey and Hertfordshire and these risk assessments are subject to continual review and monitoring. The Trustees take all appropriate steps to moderate and manage the inevitable operational risks to which the volunteers can be exposed. Competence based training for Volunteers, liability insurance, monitoring of new legislative requirements are examples of steps taken. In particular there are policies and procedures for vulnerable adults protection and for health and safety risks.

Organisation

CET-c for Women is governed by a Board of Trustees elected to serve the charity and run its affairs. Annually the Board reviews the range of skills it has available and uses its power of co-option to ensure that gaps are filled. There are a number of other criteria that a trustee must meet. The Board of Trustees are assisted by the Department leaders. There are three trustees on the Board. The Board of Trustees meet quarterly and are responsible for the strategic direction and policy of the Charity. A scheme of delegation is in place and day to day responsibility for the provision of the services rest with the Managing Director who is also the Chief Executive. She is ably assisted by voluntary administrative staff in the day to day running of the charity operations. The administrative team continue to develop their skills and working practices in line with good practice.

As described on page 5, the Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144(1) of the Charities Act 2011 and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 132 of the Act 2011);

Basis of Independent examiner's statement

Our examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and items or disclosures in the accounts, seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiners statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Our Aims and Objectives

Purpose and Aims

Our geographical area are primarily London and Kent with activities extending to neighbouring boroughs and societies.

Ensuring Our Work Delivers Our Aims

We review our aims, objectives and activities each year. This review looks at what we achieved and the outcomes of our work in the previous 12 months. The review looks at the success of each key activity and the benefits they have brought to people and families that we support and help. The review also ensures that our aim, objectives and activities remained focused on our stated purposes. We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aim and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, the trustees consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives they have set.

The Focus of Our Work

Our main objective for the year is to achieve healthy marriages, reduce divorce rate and achieve the balanced and ideal family-life that will result in a gratifying society by advancing of the Christian religion values and ethics. The strategies we used to meet these objectives included:

1. Providing Christian support services and empowerment to women and the families
2. Providing training and enlightenment workshops to enhance healthy and sustainable matrimonial and family lives for a stable society
3. Providing Christian marital guidance and counselling for sustainable marriage, family lives and communal harmony.

How Our Activities Deliver Public Benefit

Our main activities and who we help are described below. All our charitable activities focus on the advancement of the Christian religion and support to women in matrimony. We operate across several regions and counties in UK.

Who used and benefited from our Services?

We support women and their families by providing family-focus Christian support services aimed at developing their Christian faith, values and ethics for sustainable family lives. We train and develop women who in-turn develop other women with family responsibilities that will translate to change in individual families for corporate community development and stability. Our ultimate focus is the family and community, we involve both men and women, old and young, single or married and offer them periodic training for a collective knowledge for the purpose of family and communal involvement.

Financial Review

The charity was able to raise a total income of £35,147 during the period under review.

Principal Funding Sources

The principal funding sources for the organisation are currently by way of Donations and Gifts from corporate organisations and individuals during the year under review.

Reserves Policy

It is the policy of the charity to maintain unrestricted funds which are the free reserves of the charity at a level which equates to at least 3 months of unrestricted expenditure. This provides sufficient funds to cover management and administration and support costs and to respond to emergencies which may arise from time to time. The trustees have set this as a target, and are satisfied that the charity is in a position to meet its financial obligations, fund its activities and continue to grow.

Plans for Future Periods

The Charity plans continuing the activities outlined above in the forthcoming years subject to satisfactory funding arrangements. Plans are also being developed to become more active in Medway borough and communities requiring our services.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Organisation is a charitable company limited by guarantee, incorporated on 22 June 2007 and became a registered charity on the 19th March 2012. CET-c for Women

Trustees Induction and Training

Most trustees are already familiar with the practical work of the charity. Additionally new trustees would be invited as required and encouraged to attend a series of training sessions to familiarise themselves with the charity and the context within which it operates. These sessions would be jointly led by the Chair of Trustees and the Chief Co-ordinator of the Charity and cover:

- o The Obligations of Trustees
- o The Main documents which set out the operational framework for the charity including the Memorandum and Articles.
- o Resourcing and the current financial position as set out in the latest published accounts
- o Future plans and objectives

A Question & Answer pack would be prepared which draws information from various Charity Commission publications signposted through the Commission's guide "the Essential Trustee" as a follow up to these sessions. This will be distributed to all new trustees along with the Memorandum and Articles and the latest financial statements.

Risk Management

The Trustees have identified the major strategic risks to which CET-c for Women is exposed and established controls and actions to mitigate them. Each year, risk assessments take place the centres we hire in London and these risk assessments are subject to continual review and monitoring. The Trustees take all appropriate steps to moderate and manage the inevitable operational risks to which the volunteers can be exposed. Competence based training for Volunteers, liability insurance, monitoring of new legislative requirements are examples of steps taken. In particular there are policies and procedures for children and vulnerable adults protection and for health and safety risks.

Organisation

CET-c for Women is governed by a Board of Trustees elected to serve the charity and run its affairs. Annually the Board reviews the range of skills it has available and uses its power of co-option to ensure that gaps are filled. There are a number of other criteria that a trustee must meet. The Board of Trustees are assisted by the Department leaders. There are three trustees on the Board. The Board of Trustees meet quarterly and are responsible for the strategic direction and policy of the Charity. A scheme of delegation is in place and day to day responsibility for the provision of the services rest with the Managing Director who is also the Chief Executive. She is ably assisted by voluntary administrative staff in the day to day running of the charity operations. The administrative team continue to develop their skills and working practices in line with good practice.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of CET-c for Women for the year ended 31 March 2022

As described on page 5, the Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144(1) of the Charities Act 2011 and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

Examine the accounts (under section 145(1) of the Charity Act 2011

Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 132 of the Act 2011);

State whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of Independent examiner's statement

Our examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and items or disclosures in the accounts, seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiners statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

We review our aims, objectives and activities each year. This review looks at what we achieved and the outcomes of our work in the previous 12 months. The review looks at the success of each key activity and the benefits they have brought to people and families that we support and help. The review also ensures that our aim, objectives and activities remained focused on our stated purposes. We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aim and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, the trustees consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives they have set.

Financial Review

The charity was able to raise a total income of £33,596 during the period under review.

Principal Funding Sources

The principal funding sources for the organisation are currently by way of Donations and Gifts from corporate organisations and individuals during the year under review.

Reserves Policy

It is the policy of the charity to maintain unrestricted funds which are the free reserves of the charity at a level which equates to at least 3 months of unrestricted expenditure. This provides sufficient funds to cover management and administration and support costs and to respond to emergencies which may arise from time to time. The trustees have set this as a target, and are satisfied that the charity is in a position to meet its financial obligations, fund its activities and continue to grow.

Plans for Future Periods

The Charity plans continuing the activities outlined above in the forthcoming years subject to satisfactory funding arrangements. Plans are also being developed to become more active in Medway borough and communities requiring our services.

Trustees Induction and Training

Most trustees are already familiar with the practical work of the charity. Additionally new trustees would be invited as required and encouraged to attend a series of training sessions to familiarise themselves with the charity and the context within which it operates. These sessions would be jointly led by the Chair of Trustees and the Chief Co-ordinator of the Charity and cover:

- o The Obligations of Trustees
- o The Main documents which set out the operational framework for the charity including the Memorandum and Articles.
- o Resourcing and the current financial position as set out in the latest published accounts
- o Future plans and objectives

A Question & Answer pack would be prepared which draws information from various Charity Commission publications signposted through the Commission's guide "the Essential Trustee" as a follow up to these sessions. This will be distributed to all new trustees along with the Memorandum and Articles and the latest financial statements.

Risk Management

The Trustees have identified the major strategic risks to which CET-c for Women is exposed and established controls and actions to mitigate them. Each year, risk assessments take place the centres we hire in London and these risk assessments are subject to continual review and monitoring. The Trustees take all appropriate steps to moderate and manage the inevitable operational risks to which the volunteers can be exposed. Competence based training for Volunteers, liability insurance, monitoring of new legislative requirements are examples of steps taken. In particular there are policies and procedures for children and vulnerable adults protection and for health and safety risks.

Organisation

CET-c for Women is governed by a Board of Trustees elected to serve the charity and run its affairs. Annually the Board reviews the range of skills it has available and uses its power of co-option to ensure that gaps are filled. There are a number of other criteria that a trustee must meet. The Board of Trustees are assisted by the Department leaders. There are three trustees on the Board. The Board of Trustees meet quarterly and are responsible for the strategic direction and policy of the Charity. A scheme of delegation is in place and day to day responsibility for the provision of the services rest with the Managing Director who is also the Chief Executive. She is ably assisted by voluntary administrative staff in the day to day running of the charity operations. The administrative team continue to develop their skills and working practices in line with good practice.
