The Charity was registered on the 21st of March 2012 and is governed by a Trust Deed dated 12th February 2012.

ORGANISATIONAL GOVERNANCE

The Board takes overall responsibility for Lyra, including responsibility for identifying key risk areas, considering significant financial matters, and reviewing the performance of management, strategic plans and budgets. The Board is also responsible for ensuring that a comprehensive system of internal control policies and procedures is operative, and for compliance with sound governance principles.

The Board ordinarily meets four times a year. During the 12 months period, the Board met five times (one Annual General Meeting, four Ordinary Meetings and one Extraordinary General Meeting) and discussed various matters about Lyra including budgets, funding, operational performance, risk management and risk reviews, safeguarding, tax liabilities, change of financial year, review of general Board affairs and approval of financial statements.

The Board delegates the day-to-day management of Lyra in Africa (Lyra) to the CEO and COO. Members of the senior management team are occasionally invited to attend Board Meetings and facilitate the effective control of all Lyra's operational activities.

Lyra is committed to the principles of effective governance. The Directors also recognise the importance of integrity, transparency and accountability.

Lyra in Africa, Tanzania:

In 2015 an affiliated charity – Lyra in Africa Organisation – was established in Tanzania to facilitate the delivery of the UK charity's objectives. It is now well established in the Iringa district with an office and staff to manage projects, such as the construction of hostels, training of digital education in schools and entrepreneurship training to rural youth groups.

The Management of Lyra in Africa in Tanzania is currently under the National Director and is organised in the following main departments:

- Finance, Human Resources and Administration
- Eco-friendly Construction
- Young people's Livelihoods and savings and loans schemes
- Digital Learning in rural Government schools

Lyra is currently active in the Southern Highlands of Tanzania with the intention to scale into further rural regions in the country.

1. Lyra's VISION AND MISSION

Vision

Thriving rural communities where specifically youth have the right to a good education and social well being.

Mission

To create vibrant rural communities by improving education and income opportunities specifically for marginalised girls, youth, and women across rural Tanzania.

Lyra's mission is to give rural girls and youth equal opportunities to complete their secondary studies and increase their access to social and economic opportunities.

Lyra is currently active in the Southern Highlands of Tanzania with the intention to extend into other rural regions in the country.

2. PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES

Lyra has three interwoven principal activities as detailed below which are implemented by Lyra in Africa, Tanzania:

2a. Construction of Hostels for Girls in rural Government Secondary Schools:

Lyra builds eco-friendly dormitories so that girls from wide rural catchment areas (where secondary schools serve villages up to 30 km apart), can attend secondary school safely and complete their studies. Lyra works with local government (District Councils) and communities (Wards) and together have constructed sixteen hostels in Iringa Region as of 30th June 2024, with a total bed capacity of 1098 and occupancy rates averaging 130%

Lyra contributes an average of 80% of the total Hostel construction costs, while the District, Wards and other Stakeholders contribute the rest. At a handover ceremony, maintenance and responsibility for the hostels are handed over to the District Authorities and schools.

As an example of our green credentials, we make and use Interlocking Soil Stabilized Bricks (ISSBs) which are compressed earth - instead of burnt bricks that use natural forest resources, thus stopping deforestation around our partner schools. By training local labourers, we transfer these skills into the communities. We also use Biofil digester toilets to stop the use of pit latrines. Water gutters are installed for rainwater collection.

In each of the projects, the Ward Construction Committee members help in the day-to-day supervision of the project, while each School assigns a teacher to be in charge of stock control of all the construction material stored in a safe room at the school. The projects are successfully implemented in a very collaborative way with any arising issues communicated without delay.

2.b. Girls sponsorship for ultra-poor girls in government secondary schools:

Since 2012, Lyra has continued to sponsor girls from the most vulnerable families by subsidising their attendance at schools, colleges and Vocational Training institutes. Sponsorship is provided in terms of provision of Hostel and training fees, as well as basic needs including health insurance. These girls would not have otherwise been able to live in Lyra Hostels due to their inability to pay costs; nor would they be able to continue education beyond lower secondary schools. During 2023/24, Lyra in Africa sponsored -- 140 girls

2.c. Digital Learning Program:

Lyra leverages the power of digital technology to transform learning so that students and teachers can self-study and gain relevant skills to prepare them for work in the 21st Century.

Lyra's Digital Learning Programme (DL) comprises two parts: the installation of computer labs with offline, high quality educational content as well as teaching weekly ICT club classes in our partner schools.

Lyra expanded the digital learning programme to total 10 partner schools during the year by installing a further two computer labs and installed two computer labs in government run teachers colleges.

Since November 2023, The Digital Learning programme has continued in the form of a Tech-inclusive Education programme, TIE. The aim of TIE is to create self-sufficient EdTech communities of Practice, where each school has its own sustainable strategy and process for managing and improving the ICT component in their education, by making teachers take ownership and be the drivers for multiplying the impact of digital tools through the school.

2.d. Rural Livelihoods Programme for marginalised youth- Imarika Kijana (IK)

This programme incorporates two interventions - the Imarika Kijana (IK – Strong Youth) Programme and the Village Savings and Loan Associations (VSLA) Programme.

2.e. Imarika Kijana (IK) Programme: Strong Rural Youth

The IK programme was introduced in 2018 to meet the urgent need for supporting rural based youth to open their minds to opportunities in their communities, teaching them about "bootstrapping" and how to develop new business ideas. With an increasingly large number of unemployed youths, the demand for the program is very high, especially in the rural areas where Lyra is active, as up to 90% of the community members are subsistence farmers.

Implementation of the programme during this reporting period has focussed on a 'business boost programme' which focusses on accelerating the growth of enterprises started under IK phase1. Through this programme, 418 youth have received business boost training and over 80% have more than tripled their income within a year.

2.f. Village Savings and Loans Associations (VSLAs):

In the absence of formal banking structures, the organisation uses the VSLA methodology for rural based families and communities to self-manage their money and access credit within the groups. We train and support VSLAs to register with their respective Local Government Authorities (District Councils), so they become formally recognised, thus allowing them to open formal bank accounts.

During the reporting period, the Organisation works with 11 Community Based Trainers (CBTs) who in turn provide support to existing VSLAs, as well as start new groups in their communities. There are 53 supervised VSLA groups with 1050 members (732 female and 318 male) with 45 groups being registered with their respective districts.

3. Reserves Policy:

The Charity operates with limited cash reserves. The Trustees' objectives is to maintain a sufficient balance to meet committed expenditure on current projects and cover foreseeable administration expenses. Major projects and initiatives are met from separate fundraising activities.

Declaration: I declare in my capacity as charity trustee, that the board of trustees have approved the report above and have authorised me to sign it on their behalf.
