Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Almadina Educational Trust

I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 July 2024, which are set out on page 10 - 12.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) instead an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the company is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for an independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act
- To follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 43(7) of the 1993 Act; and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance to the General Direction set by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the trust and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. The examination also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, in addition to seeking explanations from you as trustees in regard to such matters. These procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011: and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 act

Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Periodic review are made to ensure that the trust continues to identify and mitigate any major risk that may arise. The trustees have identified no major risks at this point in time.

Objectives and Activities

The Charity objectives are:

- The charity's objects ("the objects are") to advance education for the benefits of the public in the subjects of Arabic literature, Grammar, Linguistic Arts and extra curricula education in the subjects of science, maths and English
- To advance education and to provide facilities in the interest of social welfare for recreation, leisure time occupation, with the objective of improving the conditions of life for the residents.

In furtherance of these objectives, but not otherwise - the trustee shall have the power

- to establish or secure the establishment of a community centre, and maintain/manage the maintenance of such centre, co-operating with any statutory authority, managing activities promoted by the charity in furtherance of the above objectives.

The Trustees consider that the public benefit arising from activity undertaken to advance the objects are mainly achieved by the development and increase in effectiveness of the work by the trustee members and others whom the trust works with.

Trustees Responsibilities

Charity requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which gives a fair, clear and true view of the state of the trust and the surplus or deficit of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements the trustees have:-

- Selected suitable accounting policies and applied them consistently.
- Made judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- Stated whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- Prepared the financial statements on the going concern basis.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping records which reveal with realistic accuracy the financial position of the company at any time in addition to enabling them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the charity commission. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets for the trust and hence for taking steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- There is no relevant information of which the trust independent examiners are aware; and
- The trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant information and to establish that the examiners are aware of that information.
