Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	For the advancement of education and, in particular, in older people and those who are retired from full time work by all means, including associated activities conclusive to learning, development and wellbeing.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The main purpose centres around self help groups of all types, organised and managed by a Group Leader. In addition, Monthly Meetings are organised for members which include a Speaker and Raffle when possible and notices announced of national and local activities. During the continuation of the Coronavirus pandemic, meetings were conducted by Zoom until face to face meetings could be re-commenced. Monthly newsletters prepared and emailed or posted to every member.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Trustees are aware of and have had regard to the commission's public benefit guidance when making decisions. They are aware that the charity's purpose is to benefit their members in general and not give rise to more than incidental personal benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Our membership is open to all who meet our entry requirements – namely, by not being in full time work. The main aim of our charity is to provide an environment for our members where they can further their wellbeing. We encourage our members to create groups of any description, perhaps by using their own knowledge and expertise, and to offer places to the membership. Our aim is also to provide a sociable and welcoming atmosphere at our monthly meetings, groups and events. By offering the above we believe our members obtain long term benefit by belonging to and participating in our organisation.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Wellingborough and District University of the Third Age

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2025 which are set out on pages 1 and 2.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

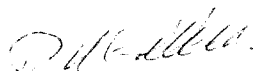

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
