Objectives and activities

We provide long term support for orphans in Bangladesh or other areas of the world as the trustees decide, to enable them to continue in their education and provide them with sustenance, shelter, clothing, food, medical care etc.

Structure, governance, and management

Type of governing document	Constitution
Trustee recruitment and appointment	Appointed by Abdurrahman Idrissi (Chairman) and Yusuf Ahmad (Chief executive)

Charitable purposes	To advance education and to relieve need and sickness for orphans and poor people in Bangladesh and Madagascar, and other areas of the world as the trustees decide, by providing long term support to enable them to continue in their education, and provide them with sustenance, clothing, food, medical care etc...
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	We are sponsoring 472 orphans and 33 blind poor people in Bangladesh. We have supported them by transferring to their bank accounts £60 every six months per child to buy his/her food and to continue in his/her education. We made water wells in Madagascar to get clean water in villages

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/members of	Give To Orphans	Charity No:	1147787
On accounts for the year	2022
Set out on pages	1
Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">•examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,•to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and•to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.
Independent examiner's statement	In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none">•to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and•to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or 1.to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
