Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Charity's objects are to prevent or relieve poverty amongst orphans in Pakistan as the trustees shall determine; and the prevention and relief of poverty (or financial hardship) anywhere in the world by providing or assisting in the provision of education, training, healthcare projects and all the necessary support designed to enable individuals to generate a sustainable income and be self-sufficient.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity has continued to operate an orphanage in Peshawar, Pakistan during the year.

It provided living accommodation, educational facilities, care and a safe environment for eighteen female orphans during the year.

The charity also raised funds for specific projects during the year including educational and cultural support for those in need in Pakistan.

The Charity primarily exists for the benefit of orphaned children in Pakistan and, as such, the Trustees consider that the Charity's activities are delivering public benefit in accordance with the guidance issued by the Charity Commission.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The Charity appealed for donations and provided financial support to finance the deployment of a number of water pumps to communities in need in Pakistan.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Charity's main achievements during the year were the ongoing development of the orphanage in Peshawar, Pakistan, which provides a safe living environment for female orphans who would otherwise be living on the streets.

The charity also raised funds through appeals to successfully finance a number of specific educational and cultural projects during the year for the benefit of those identified as being particularly in need.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Charity maintains sufficient reserves to enable it to meet the day to day operational needs of the orphanage in Peshawar, Pakistan.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The Charity's principal source of funds is donations.

1 to 2

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30 April 2024

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
