

The Purposes of Crossway Church

Crossway Church exists for the advancement of the Christian faith in accordance with the Basis of Faith, primarily but not exclusively within Northfield and the surrounding neighbourhood; and such other charitable purposes as shall, in the opinion of the members of the Church in general meeting further the work of the Church.

Review of Main Activities Undertaken by Crossway Church to Carry Out its Charitable Purposes for the Public Benefit

- We run weekly meetings open to the general public
- We seek to enable the church family to live out their faith in ordinary life
- We are committed to supporting UK and Global mission
- We seek to provide pastoral care, teaching and training
- We seek to partner with other churches to help strengthen Christian mission in Birmingham
- We maintain the fabric of the building we rent in order to accomplish our objectives
- We seek to be supportive and servant hearted towards the local community

Summary of Achievements of Charitable Purposes for the Public Benefit

During the last year, Crossway Church has achieved the following:

- An increase in weekly attendance of services and membership of the church.
- Attendance of inquirers groups, and discipleship groups.
- Dedicated guest services for the local community at Christmas and Easter, in addition to an annual Half-Term Holiday Club in Autumn.
- Financial support for Birmingham City Mission, Open Doors, Just Caring Midlands, West Smethwick Congregational Church and the Midlands Gospel Partnership.
- Financial, pastoral and practical help for those experiencing hardship within our church family.
- A full program of regular teaching and training for adults and children.
- Flourishing community children's work & youth club
- Partnership with and assistance of a national fellowship, The Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches, to help strengthen Christian mission beyond our own walls, particularly in the area of church revitalisation
- The ongoing maintenance of the building we use

We believe that as trustees, in the decisions we have made, we have had due regard to the commission's public benefit guidance.
