STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing Document

Stockport Islamic Centre is controlled by its governing document, a Memorandum and Articles of Association as incorporated on the 30th April 2012, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Recruitment and appointment of new Trustees

The charity presently has 4 directors. All directors of the company are also charity Trustees. Nominations for the position of director or Trustee are sought from individuals with an interest in the governance of the organisation. An initial discussion takes place with the interested party and the chair of the management committee. If suitable, individuals are then invited to the membership of the charity.

All directors give their time voluntarily and received no benefits from the charity during 2023/24.

Organisational Structure

The Trustee board administers the charity. The board meets regularly throughout the year. A Chair of the Board is appointed by the Trustees to manage the day to day operations of the charity. To facilitate effective operations the Chair of the Board has delegated authority for operational matters including finance, employment and programme related activity.

Risk Management

The Trustees have a duty to identify and review the risk to which the charity is exposed, and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurances against fraud and error.

OBJECTIVES & ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The aims of the charity are to provide a cultural centre and have qualified Aalmah teaching Tajweed classes and therefore increasing the pupils ability in both English and Urdu. In addition they have fun days and other community events.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Stockport Islamic Centre

I report on the accounts for the year ended 30th April 2024, set out on the pages at the end of this report.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the charity's Trustees of the Company (who are also the directors of the company for the purpose of company law), you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ("the 2006 Act").

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited for this year under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the 2011 Act"). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions give by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention which give me cause to believe that accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities.

I have no concerns, and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report, in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
