Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objective of the Friends shall be to advance the education of the public by promoting, supporting, assisting and developing the No 11(F) Group Operations Rooms as a site of national heritage.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Friends fulfil the following functions:

- The No 11(F) Group Operations Rooms are owned by the London Borough of Hillingdon and are based at the former RAF Uxbridge site. The Friends will work in close association with the Borough and the appointed Manager and Senior Curator.
- Encourage, promote and assist in the development of The Friends, including promoting membership of the Friends.
- Engage in, support and co-ordinates research, publishing, education, advertising, curatorial work and other work for the furtherance of the No 11(F) Group Operations Rooms.
- Provide support to the preservation and development of the Battle of Britain Bunker as a site of national heritage.
- Raise funds for the Friends through the operation of the Gift Shop in support of the preservation and development of the No 11(F) Group Operations Rooms and Visitors Centre.
- Co-operate with other bodies where there is mutual or direct benefit to the No 11(F) Group Operations Rooms and Museum.

Public Benefit

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The year was adversely affected by the continuing impact of the Covid pandemic and the immediate aftermath, which disrupted efforts to hold an AGM, although the Trustees were able to meet to fulfil their obligations. However, the process of transition in the wake of the change of ownership of the Operations Bunker from the RAF/MOD to the London Borough of Hillingdon continued. The establishment of the Gift Shop as the prime source of income for the Friends continued until January 2022 and the work of the volunteers who oversaw its operation until that point and participated in a difficult handover to LBH was, yet again, highly commendable. This change had been at the direction of LBH and despite the Friend's concerns that the change from a volunteer-run facility to one overseen by salaried LBH staff would adversely impact the financial success of the shop, we acceded to LBH's requirement. The loss of the shop removed the Friend's main source of income and, as a consequence, the approach to grant making by the Trustees was to continue to do so very cautiously, despite the very healthy level of funds held by the Trust, until our future operating model and ongoing relationship is clarified.

Volunteers from the Friends have continued to support the Visitors' Centre as tour guides. However, the trend continued within the Visitors' Centre to reduce its reliance on Friend's volunteers acting as guides with a shift towards LBH accredited guides and a more modern, technology enhanced visitor experience.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

This has been another challenging year for the Friends, although the underlying financial performance, driven by the growing success of the Gift Shop until it was handed over to LBH, was very positive and reflects very well on the efforts of a number of key individuals several of whom make up the Trustees' Operational Committee. Despite the loss of its main income source, the Friends funds are in a very strong position, and we now have an opportunity to develop a revised operating model.

Unfortunately, the Covid 19 pandemic and its lingering presence affected our work. Arrangements for the AGM had to be postponed yet again (latterly through the illness of the Chair of Trustees) with the Trustees and Operational Committee continuing to oversee the Friends interests. However, through good management, income from the Gift Shop and tight control of expenditure, the Friends remain a viable entity and as the accounts demonstrate, with no worries over its status as a "going concern". It is intended to convene an AGM before the end of March 2023 and to put forward proposals for the future running of the Friends in the light of the post-transition relationship with the LBH Visitor Centre and its operating model.

Volunteering activity continued throughout the year after Covid-led to temporary closures of the Visitors Centre ended. The loss of dedicated office space for the Friends within the visitor centre was a further blow to our active members, who were required to share space with other LBH staff and volunteers, and this diminished the sense of identity of the Friends, particularly when allied to the transfer of the operation of the very successful shop away from the Friends to LBH management.

The Friends has again approached the leaders of the Visitors Centre and asked for an insight into their future strategy, so that the future support role and approach of the Friends could be developed.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Unfortunately, the LBH management agreement to work with the Friends on this important matter has again been affected by changes amongst senior managers, including the very recent resignation of the Curator.

However, we will persevere and, going forward, we are discussing to potential fund a series of lectures within the Visitor Centre to fulfil the objective of the Friends to advance the education of the public by promoting, supporting, assisting and developing the No 11(F) Group Operations Rooms as a site of national heritage. Trustees are also considering what other activities can be supported on the Uxbridge site and possibly more widely within the London Borough of Hillingdon to meet the aims of the Trust and its Constitution.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

As our end of year accounts show, the funds of the Trust are in a very healthy position despite the loss of our main source of income. This position will be retained through the tight control of expenditure and the development of a revised financial plan that will be recommended to the forthcoming AGM by the Trustees. The Friends has yet to set a formal policy on the level of reserves to be held but now that the Gift Shop has transferred to LBH, we will be able to agree a policy once we are able to meet for an AGM before the end of March 2023.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- To follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
