improving their conditions of life. To Promote and project the physical and mental health of sufferers of cancer related diseases through the provision of facilities, financial assistance, support, education and practical advice. To assist in the treatment and care of persons suffering from mental or physical illness of any description or in need of rehabilitation as a result of such illness by the provision of facilities for work and recreation.
Through sporting events, individual donations and individual challenges Arctic One will raise money to carry out our objectives. Arctic one will support the funding of new resources including the building of new facilities, the provision of equipment and the running of local sports clubs to enable individuals and teams to become involved in new sports and challenges irrespective of youth, age, infirmity, disability or financial hardship of social circumstances. Support the investment into new technology, to enable those with a physical or mental disability to have improved access into individual and team sports and recreational activities. This will include developing access into existing technology relating to equipment to enhance sporting mobility. Provide training, specialist knowledge and advice for those within the community to enable them access to playing of individual and team sports in particular swimming, cycling and running. This will include coaches, courses and events which are accessible by local clubs and individuals for both able and disabled members of the community. Work with other established charities to support the provision of sport for all. Provide financial support, facilities and advice to sufferers of cancer related diseases and associated family and friends who are in need of rehabilitation as a result of such illness to enable them to resume a normal life and introduce them to the benefits of sport and recreational activities. Provide financial support in the form of grants and donations to local hospices to enable them to provide treatment and care of persons suffering from mental or physical illness of any description, in particular for those who are suffering from cancer related diseases. Provide financial support, facilities and advice for those suffering from mental or physical illness of any description or in need of rehabilitation through specialist expertise and resources. Enhance the knowledge of the general public of cancer related diseases through educational campaigns. Work with and co-operate with other related charities to support the development of treatment and cures of cancer related diseases through the use of grants and external knowledge. Work with and co-operate with other related charities to assist in the treatment and care of persons suffering from mental or physical illness of any description or in need of rehabilitation as a result of such illness through the use of grants and external knowledge.

Dear Bex and Matt

I have now reviewed the Arctic One and Arctic One Events accounts for 2022 and can confirm that all income and expenditure is recorded correctly and supported with good documentation. I have found no material misstatements or omissions and I am confident that the accounts represent a fair and reliable assessment of Arctic One's financial transactions.

Your faithfully

David Walker ACMA, CGMA
