Planet Mercy

Report of the Trustees
for the Year Ended 31 March 2023

Structure, governance and management

Governing document

Planet Mercy is constituted as a charitable trust registered with the Charity Commission in December 2012 under charity number 1150069. It is governed by a deed of trust last updated in July 2000.

Organisational structure

The charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefits.

Objectives and activities

Our aims

The objects of the charity are set out in the charity's trust deed and are summarised as follows:

- To develop the capacity and skill of the members of the socially and economically excluded and / or disadvantaged community of Greater Manchester in such a way that they are better able to identify, and help meet, their needs so that they may participate more fully in society. (the trustees in furthering this object are required to work for the benefit of all but in line with the teachings of Islam)
- To further such other charitable purposes as the trustees see fit from time to time (in furthering this object the trustees are required to work for the benefit of all but in line with the teachings of Islam).

Our objectives

Our objectives are set to reflect our faith and community aims. Each year our trustees review our objectives and activities to ensure they continue to reflect our aims. In carrying out this review the trustees have considered the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit and in particular its supplementary public guidance on the advancement of religion for the public benefit.

Use of Volunteers

Volunteers are an important resource in both our faith and community work. Volunteers are involved in most of our faith and community activities. All our trustees give their time freely. We encourage all members of our charity to be involved in voluntary activities and to share their skills with others.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing an annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the charity trustees to prepare financial statements for each year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees for the purposes of charity law who served during the period up to the date of this report are set out on page 1.
