The trustees, who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2023. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The objectives of the charity are to advance the arts for the public benefit in particular among the communities of South Wales by delivering high quality professional art experiences, ensuring that creativity plays a role socially, educationally and culturally by innovating, inspiring and including. Our objectives are underpinned by the seven goals of the Wellbeing of Future Generations Act. Our activities have focussed on prosperity, resilience, health, equality and cohesive communities.

The main activities undertaken in relation to these objectives are as follows:-

- Supporting innovation, enterprise and creative industries pathways through:

Creative Pathways: Funded through RCT 360 and National Lottery Community Fund, Creative Pathways included a programme of activities to engage young people and adults in confidence and skills building, developing interests in hobbies, and encouraging thinking about possible career paths. During the first half of the year, we've delivered networking events including Creative Conversations, mentoring, training and masterclass workshops in printmaking, singing, song writing and dance. We facilitated weekly Creative Caffi sessions focussing on individual professional development needs, upcycling and skill sharing. It was great to see some of our Creative Ambassador Volunteers taking part in the sessions.

An example of the positive legacy of the project was one of our volunteers joining the Make It! programme employed as a videographer.

The Make It! Partnership supports emerging artists with skills development and employment opportunities. The Make It! development team did a fabulous job organising our Dyma Ni Yma event in Ynysangharad Park!

Dyma Ni Yma took place on the 3 September. The event was a collaboration with Canolfan Calon Taf in the park, Community Music Wales, RCT Arts Services, and the Make It! team. An event development team was formed between the Artis Creative Ambassador Volunteers and Make It! emerging artists. The development team organised masterclasses, outdoor event production and were engaged in a series of 8 training, planning and development workshops in the lead up to the event. They led the organisation of Creative Conversations and the Scratch Night. Approximately 232 people attended Dyma Ni Yma.

Our Creative Caffi has played a key role within the programme bringing people together weekly, to explore, network, share skills and learning, and create together. The programme explored opportunities for people taking part to gain employability skills and receive training relevant to individuals on their personal creative pathway, including opportunities to learn Welsh phrases, and practice Welsh in a safe and comfortable environment.

We've been developing our Dance Pathway for children and young people with Ransack Dance Company and freelance dance professionals. Connecting with schools through our Creative Learning Body Project, co-learning with teachers, pupils and dance practitioners.

We received funding from Rhondda Cynon Taf Arts Service, for the Summer School, which again, was a huge success! We had a total of 146 participants across 5 days with 2 professional musicians, dancers, and filmmakers facilitating each element of the Summer School. The Summer School ended with a performance performed at Coleg Y Cymoedd, Nantgarw to an audience of 93 people.

With funding from Arts Council of Wales, we were able to recruit 3 independent artists as well as 2 dance tutors from Artis for the EXPLORE PROJECT. We worked for a week with the Ransack Dancers to research and develop a new idea around identity. We delivered a professional development training day focussed on community dance practice, sharing skills and knowledge of facilitating community dance on various settings and with different age groups.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Our Go Create programme engaged 30 people at Llanharan drop-in centre, University of South Wales, and Pontypridd Museum. This programme was specifically tailored to engage learners who are about to enter the arts or creative industries. During the workshops, they explored, signposted, and established a range of different pathways with and for participants, aligned to their individual, current needs. Themes included:

Taking care of and empowering oneself
Being part of a wider professional creative community
Accessing Personal & Professional Development
Creating cross disciplinary/sector links to encourage peer to peer learning
Accessing Training Opportunities

Welsh Government Kick Start Programme: We recruited a six-month Bookings and Administration post and we're pleased that we have continued the post beyond the Kickstart period.

Creative Ambassador Volunteer Programme: Building opportunities and training with people wanting to support the promotion and future of YMa; Man Creu Meithrin Celf | Place for Culture Creativity Arts. As the year began, we saw an increase in volunteer hours and introduced Tempo Time Credits. We celebrated Volunteers Week and have hosted a series of Volunteer Social events in appreciation of the generosity of support we receive from these fabulous people.

The Creative Pathways programme has been a success on many levels, it has provided bespoke, person-centred opportunities, developing life skills and providing freelance artists with platforms to skill share within the community. We have developed a whole new provision with volunteers and participants because the programme has been developed through conversations and identifying needs within the assessment process. We have managed to maintain and develop lasting relationships which will continue to grow beyond the project.

We've continued to support freelance artists through employment and training.

- Arts, Health & Wellbeing:

Health & wellbeing is the thread that runs through all of our programmes. Our regular classes included classes such as Crafty Cuppas, Movers Dance, afterschool dance clubs, Barnardos Young Carers Choir, Barnardos Space for Me and Creative Caffi. In total 125 participants had fun and got creative through arts, crafts, dance, and song. They explored fun themes with props, music, upcycled, recycled and reused materials! It was wonderful to bring children and young people together face to face for our Ransack Summer school.

Barnardo's Young Carers Choir regular singing and mental health and wellbeing sessions. The choir performed in the Royal Albert Hall again this year!

- Creative Learning:

Creative Learning Body Programme: At the beginning of the year, we completed 30 x 1-hour sessions with two primary schools, supporting themes being learned in class and working creatively through movement, developing our descriptive language and knowledge about the rainforest, space and energy.

Year 5 & 6 from one of the schools accepted the invitation to perform in the Ransack Dance Company curtain raiser in the Parc and Dare Theatre, Treorchy. They relished the opportunity and found the experience very rewarding. We worked with 215 children learning through creative dance. At the end of the project, we delivered a 2-day training opportunity with the staff of both schools where the skills, methods and activities from the sessions were shared and explored.

In September, the schools committed to another academic year, this time with Year 3/4 and 5 pupils and staff. We worked with 51 children aged between 7-11. The schools are really invested in the programme and see the benefits of teachers gaining experience and skill development in how movement, dance and creative learning can be integrated as an experiential vehicle for learning across the curriculum. The classes were introduced to the 5 Creative Habits of Mind while exploring the themes of The Moon Landing and The World Landscapes.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

- Disability Arts:

As with our Health & Wellbeing programme, access and inclusivity runs through our programmes and creative practices. We also facilitate targeted arts practices specifically with young disabled people and adults – True Colours and Includance dance groups. We worked with 4 RCT Skills for Independence Day Care Centres across the region, who form True Colours dance groups. In total we had 48 participants exploring the theme of 'Freedom'.

We were thrilled to be invited to facilitate 3 face-to-face sessions as part of Wales and West Carbon Monoxide Project with the day centres from Lower Taff and Cynon areas. We explored the safety and danger of carbon monoxide and had fun with scarves and ribbons.

We had 867 attendances across the year.

- Welsh Language:

Encouraging and promoting Cymraeg is integral to our programmes and this year we've been working with a local Welsh medium primary school exploring 'performance' skills. We've delivered 'Sensing Welsh' bilingual practice training with dancers across Wales through the Wales Wide Training Programme and we've supported our partner Menter Iaith RhCT with Parti Ponty, facilitating creative workshops with Welsh speakers across a spectrum of fluency, during the event. We were thrilled to be acknowledged as a Cynnig Cymraeg organisation by the Welsh Language Commissioner.

We engaged 244 children, young people and adults in activities through the medium of Cymraeg.

- Business Development:

We continued with our preparations towards establishing ourselves and tenants in YMa: Man Creu Meithrin Celf | Place for Culture Creativity Arts in the centre of Pontypridd. We introduced new roles including an Access, Diversity and Participation Practitioner supported by the National Lottery Community Fund, a bookings and general administrator through the Welsh Government Kickstart Programme and towards the end of the year we recruited YMa front of house staff. We experienced a number of delays in the completion of YMa and in as much as it stretched the organisation financially, our reserves enabled us to sustain adequate staffing in preparation for YMa opening. We will build back our reserves as YMa establishes itself in its community.

- Environment:

We've been working with Benthg Cymru and RE: MAKE Newport, setting up our Pontypridd Repair Cafe and Library of Things. Exploring operations, set up, logistics and possible ideas for how our project would be run with our volunteers. To promote and advertise the Repair Cafe and Library of Things we took part in 3 events throughout the summer months including Ponty Green Week, offering upcycling workshops creating wash cloths, and a clothes swap rail to save clothing going to landfill.

Our Creative Ambassador Volunteers offered small sewing repairs and we repaired 15 items, as well as having a Japanese embroidery workshop to upcycle ripped or worn jeans.

We've delivered 5 workshops throughout the summer months with families, encouraging upcycling, recycling, and reusing plastic and cardboard with nature. We created bug hotels, seed bombs, musical instruments, and bird feeders with a special workshop from Plantasia Zoo, sharing knowledge on how to care for our environment, its insects and wildlife. Over the 5 sessions we engaged with 50 participants.

We continued to engage the local community in creative arts and crafts workshops in Meadow Street Allotments and St Johns Church. This allowed us to continue to fulfil our ACW (outreach) aims of the project. We delivered two workshops in October half term, creating Halloween crafts with twigs, leaves, and recycled items, printed and embroidered with leaves, twigs and flowers. Followed by one workshop during the festive period, creating Christmas upcycled crafts, reusable wrapping paper and wreaths using twigs, leaves, berries, and flowers. The workshops were led by our freelance artists and engaged 32 participants in total.

In February we took part in InterLink Connecting Communities events. We delivered the 2nd pop up Repair Cafe promoting a Clothes Swap Rail, repairs made by volunteers including upholstery, and bag and belts. With the help of 4 volunteers and one 3rd year Creative and Therapeutic Arts student we were able to put on a fun creative arts session making reusable washcloths and an Eco zine to teach people how to make small changes to the environment. We've engaged with 30 people at these events.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Facilitating workshops has given us the opportunity to raise awareness of the Repair Cafe and Library of Things, getting feedback from people on how and when they'll use the service. The workshops were a really great way to physically show people who took part, how elements of the Repair Cafe and Library of Things can work. By encouraging and supporting people to continue to reuse and recycle items will help make a positive impact on biodiversity. It has also been important and encouraging to see the community embracing the idea of a Clothes Swap and sharing of items. With the economy and the cost-of-living crisis we have tried to encourage people to reuse and upcycle as much as they can from plastic and cardboard instead of spending and throwing away items which have a one-time use.

By making reusable washcloths we have tried to encourage people to not have to spend money but to also reuse old clothing to make them rather than throwing them away. We had conversations with participants to develop knowledge in the understanding of resourcing waste rather than throwing it away. People really enjoyed the sessions and were enthused by what they had created and how it could encourage better habits.

Throughout activities, Planed Ponty Planed has promoted the 'reduce, recover, re-use, recycle' message, directly reducing consumption safeguarding our precious natural resources. It has done this in a way which promotes wider environmental enhancements and a care to recycle and reuse rather than throw away. The programme supports the Wellbeing of Future Generations Act by bringing community members together and through the workshops we've begun to inform people on how they can reduce carbon footprint and landfill waste and why it is important to do this. By focussing on community wellbeing and establishing new partnerships, opportunities for jobs and skills development, it is enabling us to see how we can increase our environmental responsibility, develop initiatives and ideas to engage people of all ages and backgrounds. Our project encourages sharing, supports people on low incomes and empowers people to take positive practical action, which will help (especially younger people) with eco-anxiety and help create a more cohesive Wales. We're collecting conversations on what people think about environmental change, through which we continue to build on a shared ethos throughout our local communities.

Working in partnership with Benthg Cymru and Friends of the Earth as well as local partners like Meadow Street Allotment, Small Woods Wellbeing Project, Keep Wales Tidy and Hope Rescue we can enhance our outcomes through collaborations with like-minded people. These partners are also helping to share what we are doing through social media platforms to reach a wider audience. We hope to continue to make a positive change in the community and begin to make some of these events sustainable.

Artis Community provides high quality art experiences that are driven by social outcomes. We believe in the transformational power of creativity to make a real difference to people's quality of life.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

The financial results for the year ended 31 March 2023 are shown in the attached financial statements. Total income for the year was £414,927, with net expenditure being (£37,722).

The restricted income was £124,076, the net income on restricted funds was £15,125. The unrestricted income was £290,851, the net expenditure on unrestricted funds was (£52,847).

The position at the end of the year showed a healthy cash at bank figure of £92,476 and total funds of £111,615.

Principal funding sources were:

Arts Council of Wales Revenue Grant
Arts Council of Wales Project Grants
Wales Council for Voluntary Action

Reserves policy

The trustees of Artis Community have established a policy whereby, the unrestricted funds not committed or invested in tangible fixed assets (the free reserves) held by the charity should be between 6 and 12 months expenditure, this would currently equate to between approximately £135,000 and £270,000. At this level, the trustees feel that they would be able to continue activities of the charity in the event of a significant drop in funding. It would obviously be necessary to consider how such funding would be replaced or activities changed. At present the free reserves of the charity are £44,143. The trustees are considering ways in which additional unrestricted funds will be raised.

FUTURE PLANS

With increasing cost of living and the additional costs of running a building we will have to monitor our finances carefully; we do however have much to look forward to next year. Our future plans include: -

- Taking up residence in YMa along with our co-tenants.
- Further developing the business plan for the future sustainability of our new home.
- Establishing Planed Ponty Planed with the Repair Café & Library of Things in YMa.
- Fundraising for an exciting programme of accessible creative, arts-based learning, skills development and entertainment for wellbeing.
- Recruitment of additional staff for the new building.

Since the year end, we are delighted to have moved into our new home YMa and opened the building to the public on June 5th 2023 with activity. We're planning an official launch in 2024.

The charitable company operates a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions payable to the charitable company's pension scheme are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities in the period to which they relate.

Financial instruments

The charity only has financial assets and financial liabilities of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently measured at their settlement value.

Debtors with no stated interest rate and receivable within one year are recorded at transaction price. An losses arising from impairment are recognised in expenditure. Prepayments are valued at the amount prepaid net of any trade discounts due.

Creditors and provisions are recognised where the charity has a present obligation resulting from a past event that will probably result in the transfer of funds to a third party and the amount due to settle the obligation can be measured or estimated reliably. Creditors and provisions are normally recognised at their settlement amount after allowing for any trade discounts due.

Operating lease commitments

Rentals applicable to operating leases where substantially all of the benefits and risks of ownership remain with the lessor are charged against profits on a straight line basis over the period of the lease.

The benefits of lease incentives are recognised in the statement of financial activities over the lease period.
