Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During this period, Restoration of Hope was able to support 136 children and young people with their education. Of the 136, 10 were at University, 76 at Secondary School and 50 at Primary School. 75 children get their education and are also supplied with one meal per day. 50 children/young people live in the homes that Restoration of Hope run or support and children in these homes get three meals a day and all living expenses covered (food, medicines, clothes, transport, etc).
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	We have given grants regularly throughout the year to pay for education, equipment, uniforms and everyday living costs.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	The trustees have been creating a business plan, exploring grant funding opportunities, redesigning the website, etc. in preparation for a concerted fundraising campaign. In addition, we have attracted additional individual supporters, and some have increased the level of their financial support.
Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	Without the financial support given by Hope in Burundi, through Restoration of Hope, more than 136 children and young people would not be able to access education. The fact that they are in the classroom, learning and having success, is enabling them to make progress towards graduation, after which we trust they will go on to become employed citizens who will be agents of change in this country.
Other		A decision was made by the trustees in the course of the year that the charity would accept income from Stewardship (a charity that supports charities overseas by accepting donations from individuals). All monies received via Stewardship go to Restoration of Hope for general living costs for the children and young people that they support in Burundi. We started to receive income from Stewardship in December 2020.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Our financial position is stable.
---------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------	-----------------------------------

Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	As a charity we have no ongoing or long-term liabilities. We do not currently have any reserves or have a policy. If we do not raise the funds, we are not able to send money to Burundi.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£0
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	Our charity runs solely on grant making and we have no overheads apart from £8/month for our bank account. We are not responsible for the running of Restoration of Hope and it is understood that we aim to raise the money to help but it is not guaranteed.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	N/A
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	No concerns

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	Donations given either by standing order or one-off gifts by individuals, companies and churches Gift Aid reclaims Occasional fund-raising events.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	We do not have any investments
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	We do not see any principal risks facing the charity at this time. We are in a stable position being supported by lots of individuals financially.
Other		A decision was made by the trustees in the course of the year that the charity would accept income from Stewardship (a charity that supports charities overseas by accepting donations from individuals). All monies received via Stewardship go to Restoration of Hope for general living costs for the children and young people that they support in Burundi. We started to receive income from Stewardship in December 2020.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
