The classes are taught by a Bulgarian speaking tutor, which is helpful to people who have very little knowledge of English and need more explanation of words and grammatical rules. This has helped to improve their communication skills, access to local information and services, employability and integration.We also had two adults' folk dancing class which were open to people from all abilities for fitness. The class brings together people from across Kent who have a shared love of Bulgarian folklore and dance.- Classes for children:

		The charity runs a Saturday Bulgarian school for children, which in 2021 provided education to children from year R to year 8 in Bulgarian language, literature, history and geography. This education is recognized by the Bulgarian Ministry of Education and children returning to Bulgaria do not need to sit exams in these subjects but can go direct back to school. There were three folk dance classes for children, split into age groups. In relation to objective b) We organised the celebration of two national holidays - the National Independence day in March and the day of the Cyrillic alphabet and Bulgarian language and culture in May. This year, due to COVID measures, these were in the classrooms and online via Teams. For the periods of lockdowns the classes were run through distance learning. We also provided information and support to parents in relation to the British educational system – e.g. GCSEs, A-Levels and 11+ exams, community safety with the help of Kent Police. We have supported the Bulgarian orthodox mission St St Konstantin and Elena in Cuxton. The association also regularly disseminates information to members about local events, concerts, sports clubs, elections, etc. that might be of benefit to the community. In relation to objective c) We provided materials and presentations to local community groups. Due to Covid rules, the traditional community events were cancelled.
