

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

CHARITY COMMISSION
FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/ members of	Superhands Charity
On accounts for the year ended	31/03/2025	Charity no (if any)	1152161
Set out on pages	1 to 11

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Charities Act") and that an independent examination is needed. [The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [named body]]. Delete [ ] if not applicable.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

* Please delete the words in the brackets if they do not apply.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity operates in areas where there is a significant shortage of school places and persistently high levels of illiteracy. During the year, Superhands provided free education to approximately 780 children across five schools that the charity operates. In addition to tuition, pupils are provided with meals, uniforms, and essential learning materials, removing key barriers to education. The children supported by the charity would otherwise be unlikely to access formal schooling. The charity follows a planned growth model, with schools expanding annually as existing pupils progress into higher classes and new students are admitted at nursery level. This approach ensures continuity of education and long-term impact for the communities served. This year marks a significant milestone for the charity, as the first cohort of students has completed their full schooling journey with Superhands, progressing from primary through to middle and high school. The charity intends to support these students further by providing scholarships to enable them to attend local colleges. Two schools, Dina and Islamgarh, now offer the full range of classes from nursery through to completion of high school. Two further

		schools, Khari Sharif and Mian Muhammed Town, currently operate up to middle school level, while the fifth school, Jatlan, continues to operate at primary level. All schools are performing well and are overseen by the charity's local management team, who are responsible for day-to-day operations and ensuring appropriate oversight, safeguarding, and effective use of charitable funds.
