APPRECIATION REPORT

YOUR GENEROSITY IN ACTION
YOUR IMPACT, THEIR JOURNEY: SEE THE POWERFUL MOMENTS YOU'VE MADE POSSIBLE

CHABAD ON CAMPUS
BIRMINGHAM

A High Holiday Season Filled with Meaning— Thanks to You

Thanks to your unwavering support, the holidays at Chabad on Campus were nothing short of extraordinary. Each celebration was a testament to your generosity and commitment to our students' Jewish connection. Here's how YOU made a difference:

A Warm Welcome to the New Year

You brought students together for a beautiful Rosh Hashanah dinner, where they shared reflections on the past year and made inspiring resolutions. The room buzzed with connection, laughter, and the sweet taste of apples and honey.

Pride and Unity on Campus

With your help, students gathered for Shofar blowing in the heart of campus, expressing their pride in their Jewish faith in an environment that can sometimes feel unwelcoming.

A Joyful Sukkot

Students and professors alike celebrated together under the stars in the sukkah you built. Joyful meals, meaningful conversations, and a palpable sense of unity marked every moment.

Lulav, Sushi, and Connection

You made it possible for students to shake the Lulav and Etrog at a lively sukkah gathering filled with delicious sushi, warm soups, and endless smiles.

Honouring Shemini Atzeret with Unity

Through your support, students joined in hakafot, reciting special prayers to remember the victims of October 7. Your impact created an atmosphere of deep reflection and solidarity.

MICHAEL'S JOURNEY: FROM SKEPTICISM TO CONNECTION

When Michael* walked into the first session of Sinai Scholars, a programme that meets for 2 hours a week for 8 weeks and introduces students to the philosophy and practices of Judaism, he openly shared that he didn't believe in G-d. He admitted he was skeptical about Judaism's relevance in his life and unsure what he would take away from the programme.

But your generosity had created a space where he felt safe to explore these questions without judgment. By the third session, Michael began to reflect differently.

He was captivated by the idea of mitzvot as a way to build a relationship with G-d. "It's like being the caddy boy for a famous golfer," he said. "Each mitzvah is a small act of service, but it's part of something much greater than myself."

Week by week, Michael's perspective shifted. The philosophical discussions, the sense of community, and the genuine care he experienced all began to resonate. At the final session, he reflected on how far he had come. "Eight weeks ago, if you'd told me I'd be keeping Shabbat, I'd have laughed and said 'no way.' But today, I'm doing it. And I like it."

Rabbi Yossi, who witnessed Michael's journey, shared, "It's incredible to see someone come in with doubts and leave with a newfound commitment. Michael's story is a reminder of the power of open-minded exploration and the community we're building together." Because of you, Michael's journey from skepticism to connection became possible. You created a space where he could question, explore, and ultimately find his own path to Judaism. Your impact goes beyond one student—you're helping shape the Jewish leaders of tomorrow. (*name changed to protect privacy)

NEW INITIATIVE: MENTAL HEALTH WISDOM FROM THE TORAH

You're not just helping students connect to their faith—you're giving them the tools to face modern challenges. This year, you helped launch a new discussion group that explores mental health through the lens of Torah wisdom. These sessions have become a safe haven where students share, connect, and learn life-changing lessons rooted in Jewish tradition. One student remarked, "This group has given me strength I didn't know I had."

EMPOWERING WOMEN WITH GIRLS TORAH AND TEA

Through your generosity, young women on campus are discovering the beauty of women's mitzvot. Girls Torah and Tea is more than just a class; it's a supportive community where students find meaning and empowerment. One participant shared, "For the first time, I see how my role as a Jewish woman is not just important but deeply inspiring. Thank you for making this possible."

A NOTE OF GRATITUDE FROM RABBI YOSSI AND RIVKI

Dear Cherished Partner,

YOU are the heart and soul of everything we do. Every meal shared, every Shabbat candle lit, every connection made—it's all because of you. Your unwavering commitment and generosity have transformed Chabad on Campus into a beacon of light, a place where students find their roots, their community, and their faith.

You made it possible for students to gather together and celebrate the joy of Jewish life, even in challenging environments.

You created a space where Michael, who once doubted his connection to G-d, discovered the profound meaning of mitzvot and is now embracing Shabbat.

You made it possible for young women to find strength and inspiration through Torah and Tea, and for countless others to explore the wisdom of the Torah in ways that address their mental health and personal growth.

Because of you, students feel seen, supported, and proud of their heritage.

Your kindness extends far beyond the campus; it shapes the Jewish future, one meaningful experience at a time.

We are humbled and inspired every day by your dedication and hope to continue this journey with you.

Your impact is felt in every hug, every prayer, and every step toward a brighter Jewish tomorrow.

From all of us at Chabad, thank you for being an integral part of this journey.

Thank you,

Yossi and Rivki Cheruff

APPRECIATION REPORT - SPRING 2025

Your support has been unwavering this term!
So much learning, joy, and Jewish pride is happening because of YOU.

Because of your kindness, Shabbat meals, megillah readings, deep Torah learning, and Jewish pride are alive and thriving in Birmingham.

We even had visiting students from Israel who were shocked—in the best way—by the unity and warmth of the Jewish community here. They saw students from all backgrounds, just curious – sitting around one shabbat table, singing together, discussing deep ideas, asking questions and really enjoying one another's company.... all because of you.

This is what builds the Jewish future.
This is what builds the leaders of tomorrow.

From the bottom of our hearts—thank you.
We could not do it without you.

With deep appreciation,
Yossi & Rivki

You brought Purim joy and Jewish pride!

You brought so many students to Shul to hear the Megillah this Purim.
And when Haman's name was read aloud – You should've heard the noise!
Thanks to your support, the graggers were loud, the energy was electric, and the message was clear: We will stamp out evil and raise up light and goodness.
You made that happen.

Tefillin, Candles, and Challah: You helped us stand tall on Campus

While antisemitism raised its voice, YOU helped us raise ours.
You gave them the confidence and community to do that.
We showed up as proud Jews on campus—thanks to you.

Your gift keeps giving: Sinai Scholars keep learning

Because of you, students aren't just finishing the programme—they're continuing with deep, thoughtful courses on faith, free choice, and why bad things happen to good people.
You're building lifelong learners.
This is real, ongoing Jewish growth - thanks to you.

Two Sinai Groups. One Goal: Jewish growth

Basic and advanced classes meet weekly—thanks to you.
Students are deepening their understanding and their connection to Judaism.
You're enriching their lives and their future.

A space for Jewish women to grow

A weekly girls' class explores identity and the Jewish psyche. This space, this connection—it's all your doing.

You brought authentic Gemara learning to campus

Because of you, boys who've spent time in yeshiva now have the opportunity to reconnect with real Torah learning right here on campus.

Every week, they join a proper Gemara shiur—deep, challenging, authentic.

You've given them something they've missed: the chance to dive into the Talmud, ask questions, debate, and grow.

This isn't just learning—it's connection, it's identity, it's soul nourishment.

Thank you for making that possible.

You created a true open Jewish home—every Shabbat

There is only one place in Birmingham where every Jewish student is always welcome for Shabbat—no invite needed, no charge, no barriers.

At Chabad, students can sign up any week, and we never turn anyone away.

You've created a space where students feel safe, welcomed, and at home.

That space only exists because of you.

Can you help us keep it going—for Pesach and next term?

Please help support Jewish students on campus again.

Your donation today helps us prepare for a joyful, meaningful Pesach, and continue supporting Jewish students next term with powerful Jewish experiences.

Thank you again for everything. You're making a real difference.

Dear <>,

As the academic year wraps up, we wanted to take a moment to show you just how much your generosity has meant to our students. From the deeply personal to the joyfully communal, you've been behind every smile, every slice of pizza, every meaningful moment.

Thanks to you, here's what the last term looked like:

You Were at Their Seder Table

When Passover coincided with medical exams, some students couldn't go home. Because of you, we were able to host a warm, welcoming Seder right here on campus. One student confided, "I was so unsure—would it feel like home? But it ended up being one of my favourite Seders ever."

That comfort, that sense of belonging—that was you.

You Showed Up With Pizza and Kindness

Two Mondays during exam season, your support brought picnic suppers right to the students on campus. Amid deadlines and revision stress, your pizza and ice lollies were more than food—they were love in action.

“You made the effort to come to us,” one student said. “We felt so cared for—it really made a difference.”

You Kept the Shabbat Table Full and Open

Week in and week out, your support kept the doors open and the Shabbat table full. Students know they have a place to go—to exhale, reconnect, and be part of something larger. Many simply call it “home.”

That consistency? That warmth? That’s all you.

 You Gave Them a Shavuot to Remember

For students still on campus during Shavuot, you gave the gift of community. From a thought-provoking Tikkun Leil to a joyful garden party with a dairy buffet, you made sure no one felt alone on the holiday.

Because of you, Jewish life continued with beauty and depth—even at the quiet end of term.

 Thank You for Being the Heart of It All

Every moment of joy, comfort, and connection we were able to offer this term was only possible because of your generous heart. You are building a Jewish home on campus. One Shabbat, one holiday, one student at a time.

With heartfelt gratitude,
Rabbi Yossi & Rivki Cheruff

APPRECIATION REPORT

YOUR VITAL SUPPORT:
STANDING STRONG WITH OUR JEWISH
STUDENTS DURING THIS CHALLENGING TIME

BIRMINGHAMCHABAD.COM

AWAKENING DAVID'S JEWISH SOUL

Growing up, David faced the bitter sting of antisemitism, a struggle he grappled with without fully understanding what it meant to be Jewish. As a student in Birmingham, he joined the Sinai Scholars programme this term.

Something remarkable happened in David's life. He connected with the teachings on a profound level, and the pieces of his identity began to fall into place.

The once-confusing puzzle of his Jewish roots started to make sense. With newfound understanding and connection, he put on Tefillin for the first time, speaking volumes about the transformation happening within him.

David reflects on his journey, saying, "Taking part in this course has been an enlightening experience. I have started to observe some of the Mitzvot, and it has helped me create a space in which I can transcend the physical."

Your investment in knowledge and education extends beyond David's story.

"I have really loved spending time with like-minded university students who are as interested in learning about Judaism as I am. I am grateful for this opportunity and excited to continue to learn and grow with my community!" shares Katie Freedman, one of the enthusiastic participants. Izaac Roberts echoes the sentiment, expressing how Sinai Scholars has been a "fun and engaging experience that has brought me closer to Judaism." Ella Goldwater adds a unique perspective, noting, "Sinai scholars have given me a new and fascinating perspective of Judaism. The trip to the Mikvah, in particular, enabled me to experience my Judaism rather than just learning in a classroom. I feel the connection of our ancient traditions to the modern world."

In today's climate, your support in the education of our young people through the Sinai Scholars programme is more important than ever. Your investment is shaping journeys like David's.

Through your support, you are helping create a community of knowledgeable, engaged individuals who carry the torch of Judaism into the future. Thank you for being an essential part of David's transformative story and the education of our future leaders!

CELEBRATING THE HIGH HOLIDAY: YOUR IMPACT BEYOND BORDERS

Your generosity truly shaped the High Holiday celebrations, ensuring that our Chabad community thrives physically and spiritually. The Pre-fast Yom Kippur meal nourished the body and souls of our students. The Chabad Sukkah, transformed by your commitment, became a joyous hub, reinforcing that sense of belonging and community we all cherish. Thanks to your support, door-to-door visits brought the beauty of Lulav and Etrog directly to our students, creating a connection to our shared heritage.

SHABBAT SHALOM: OVER 100 FRESHERS UNITE FOR THE FIRST SHABBAT OF THE YEAR!

The joyous sound of laughter and camaraderie filled the air as over 100 freshers came together to celebrate the first Shabbat of the year. It was heart warming to witness new friendships being forged, a strong foundation for the tight-knit community that continues to flourish here at Chabad. Your partnership gives a sense of belonging and community to students during their university experience.

"I am so grateful to Chabad and its special donors for providing me with a home from home, somewhere to feel safe and comfortable!" expresses Amy Brown, highlighting the impact of your support on individual experiences.

MITZVAHS FOR ISRAEL & CANDLE LIGHTING: YOUR IMPACT AT WORK

Shortly after Simchat Torah we gathered to "Do a Mitzvah for Israel," committing to positive change. Each student pledged a new mitzvah, showing unity and Jewish pride in these challenging times.

Your generosity also lit up the Candle Lighting Campaign for Israel, bringing light and spirit to hundreds of Jewish students. Thanks for making a positive impact and being part of our journey!

CHALLAH BAKE AND DELIVERIES: SPREADING LOVE THROUGH YOUR KINDNESS

Your contribution made the Challah bake and deliveries to the elderly a heartwarming reality. The aroma of freshly baked Challah filled the air, and your kindness brought not just delicious challah but also warmth and companionship to the homes of the elderly in our community.

THE SECRET OF THE JEWISH WOMAN: YOUR SUPPORT FOR EMPOWERMENT

Female university students, inspired by your support, gathered to explore "The Secret of the Jewish Woman."

Allie Bohm reflects on the impact, saying, "This course has deepened my understanding of what it means to be a young Jewish woman in an ever-changing modern society. The importance and relevance of Jewish values in everyday life, such as relationships or raising a family, is often overlooked. But this course has encouraged me to see these values and teachings as a power and as a gift that I will carry with me always."

Mai Ozon shares a sentiment of joy, stating, "The highlight of our week - we learn with laughter and a light heart, it brightens our soul."

Your contribution has empowered these students on a journey of self-discovery and exploration, fostering a deeper connection to their femininity according to the Torah and Kabbalah.

YOU SPREAD THE CHANUKAH CHEER WITH CARE PACKAGES!

Thanks to your incredible generosity, we've been on a mission to brighten up everyone's Chanukah with our awesome care packages! Packed with menorahs, candles, dreidels, chocolate coins, latkes, and doughnuts, these packages are like a Chanukah party in a box. But it wasn't just for the lucky recipient – we encouraged everyone to share the Chanukah love with their Jewish or non-Jewish flatmates! Thank you for making celebrating our Judaism at university a cosy and joyous experience for everyone!

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI YOSSI & RIVKI

Dear Cherished Partner,

We hope this newsletter finds you well.

As the first term of the academic year ends, We would like to share the incredible impact that your generous support has had on our student community here at Birmingham Campuses.

This has been a challenging time for Jewish students, navigating pain, fear, and uncertainty. Your support has become a lifeline, thank you!

Your partnership truly makes a profound difference in their lives. We're delighted to share these highlights of the inspiring moments your support helped create.

Thank you for being here with us, standing on the front lines, supporting students physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Together, we are emerging stronger and more connected.

Your generosity is not just a financial contribution but an investment in the growth, connection, and enrichment of our community.

With heartfelt prayers for our brothers and sisters in the Holy Land and the safety of Jewish people worldwide.

We are so grateful for the part that you are doing for the Jewish people in Birmingham.
Am Yisrael Chai!

Thank you,

Yossi and Rivki Cheruff

APPRECIATION REPORT

YOUR VITAL SUPPORT:

Standing Strong with Our Jewish Students During this Challenging Time

ILLUMINATING HOPE

YOUR SUPPORT EMPOWERS RESILIENCE ON CAMPUS

In the face of recent challenges on campus, your unwavering support continues to be a beacon of hope and strength for our community.

Despite the shadows of adversity, a radiant light of resilience and Jewish pride shines brightly, illuminating our campus.

Jewish students, undeterred by the encampment's presence, proudly displayed their heritage, with Tefillin on their arms, Challah in hand, and Shabbat candles aglow.

These moments of pride and resilience are made possible by your generous support, serving as a testament to the transformative impact of your belief in Jewish life on campus.

Your dedication empowers us with courage and determination, fostering a community where hope prevails. Thank you for your steadfast support in illuminating hope and resilience on our campus.

Family News and Celebration: MENDEL'S BAR MITZVAH!

Thank you to all those who sent good wishes and or joined Mendel's first Tefillin experience and Bar Mitzvah! It was truly a community celebration, and as they say "it takes a village to raise a child".

All of you far and near are part of our village and community and we could not be more proud parents and grateful to our friends and extended family who have a huge part in Mendel's upbringing and becoming of a man.

Your generosity empowers students and extended community to embrace their Judaism joyfully and join in these kind of celebrations. Thank you for lighting up these moments and supporting our community.

Special Purim Students, Faculty, and Community

Thanks to your generous support, Purim was a joyous occasion for students, faculty, and our wider community. You made it possible to create a vibrant celebration, filled with joy, laughter and camaraderie.

Your support ensured that everyone could come together to experience the magic of Purim, fostering connection and strengthening our community.

We are deeply grateful for your commitment to making meaningful experiences like this possible. Thank you for your generosity and dedication!

THANKS TO YOU, RACHEL EXPERIENCED HER FIRST SEDER

Rachel's first Seder at Chabad was a night she'll never forget.

She felt curious and excited as she walked in, unsure of what to expect. But thanks to the warmth and hospitality of the Chabad community, she quickly felt right at home.

From the lively discussions to the interactive rituals, Rachel was amazed by how inclusive and welcoming everyone was.

One moment that really stood out to Rachel was when the children recited the "Mah Nishtanah" (Four Questions) followed by all the adults together. It made her think deeply about the importance of imparting our values to the next generation.

Participating in the Seder also helped Rachel feel more connected to her Jewish identity and understand the true meaning of freedom.

Rachel asked us to thank the generous donors who make these events possible. Without your support, she wouldn't have had this unforgettable experience.

MAZEL TOV!

We are delighted to share and celebrate the wonderful milestones within our community.

Here are some joyous occasions we are thrilled to announce:

- Ron and Sarah Davis on the birth of a great-granddaughter.
- Abigail Gilbert and Tolly Cohen on your marriage.
- Hannah Glass and Gidon Ross on your marriage.
- Natasha Hertz and Dov Seitler on your marriage.
- Joel and Elisha Marks on the birth of Haleli Tzofiya.
- Nyman Family on the birth of twin grandchildren.
- Miriam and Josh Nassim on the birth of Natan Eliav.
- Josh and Rachel Caplan on the birth of Micah Raphael.
- Tammy Kwartz and Jacob Gersch on your upcoming wedding.
- Natalia Berke and Simmy Wahnou on your upcoming wedding.

STRENGTHENING FOUNDATIONS: YOUR SUPPORT FOR THE NEW ROOF

We are thrilled to announce the completion of a vital project: a new roof for our Chabad House. This renovation was urgently needed to address issues of leaking and mold. Thank you for your generous support. Your contribution made this essential upgrade possible, ensuring the safety and comfort of all who gather under its roof for years to come.

With your support, the Chabad House remains a welcoming and secure space where our Jewish students can come together to celebrate, learn, and grow.

We are immensely grateful for your support in safeguarding the heart of our community. Thank you for your generosity and dedication.

TASTE THE JOY YOU BRING: A RECIPE TO SAVOR AND SHARE Everything Cabbage Salad

- 2 sweet potatoes, peeled and diced
- 1 white cabbage, shredded
- ½ cup dried cranberries
- 1 cup pomegranate seeds
- 3 spring onions, thinly sliced

Dressing:

- 1/3 cup olive oil
- 1/3 cup balsamic vinegar
- 2 Tbsp maple syrup
- 2 Tbsp honey
- 2 tsp mustard
- Pinch salt

1. Roast the sweet potatoes in olive oil, salt and pepper.
2. Assemble the salad.
3. Combine dressing ingredients, shake or mix well.
4. Mix salad with dressing shortly before serving.

Enjoy!

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI YOSSI & RIVKI

Dear Cherished Partner,

We hope this newsletter finds you well.

As the academic year draws to a close, we are excited to share the incredible impact your generous support has had on our student community here at Birmingham Campuses.

This has been a challenging time for Jewish students, navigating fear and uncertainty, particularly during the anti-Israel encampment. However, your unwavering support has provided students with strength and Jewish pride.

Through tefillin, challah, and Shabbat candles on campus, you have empowered them to maintain their identity and connection to their heritage during these difficult moments. Thank you for being here with us, standing on the front lines, supporting students physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Together, we are emerging stronger and more connected.

YOUR IMPACT THIS PESACH!

YOU GAVE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS A PLACE TO CELEBRATE PESACH AND EAT KOSHER FOR PASSOVER FOOD

Holidays can be a very lonely time for an international student who doesn't have the luxury of going home. You made sure that these students were cared for and had a home away from home to spend the holiday and eat Kosher for Passover food. Thanks for caring!

YOU GAVE ROWAN* HIS FIRST SEDER IN 10 YEARS!

Rowan*, a 28-year-old post-graduate research student at University of Birmingham, speaks Yiddish and is descended from a Breslover Chassidic family yet he has not participated in a seder since 2012! He said his mother was "Kvelling" that he was at a seder.

Rowan met Rabbi Yossi on campus a few days before Pesach and was given some hand-baked matzah and gratefully accepted the invitation to join an authentic seder.

Throughout the whole seder he was excited and engaged, sharing his own ideas, insights and memories of Pesach.

Thank you for reigniting his Jewish spark and helping him feel connected to his Jewish identity. He hopes to stay in touch and get involved in more Jewish life and learning. *Name changed to protect privacy.

YOU GAVE THE GIFT OF AUTHENTIC HAND-BAKED SHMURAH MATZAH TO 60 FAMILIES AND ELDERLY RESIDENTS IN BIRMINGHAM

“YOU MAKE THEIR DAY AND BRIGHTEN THEIR LIFE” – HOW YOU SUPPORT THE STUDENTS IN SUPPORTING THE ELDERLY:

The residents love to receive the freshly made challahs on Friday mornings and especially love to see the students who bring them.

There are a group of students who also visit the elderly residents on a Wednesday afternoon for a onehour chat, the residents love this and greatly look forward to it.

“I cant stress enough how wonderful and important it is for the older residents to see and engage with the young students who show interest and listen to the older folks. Not only does it make their day but it brightens their outlook on life generally.”

Phillip Linz,
Birmingham Jewish Housing Association, Chair.

YOU GAVE THE JOY OF PURIM TO STUDENTS AND ELDERLY

“SHNOODLE” SALAD

FROM THE KITCHEN AT CHABAD
- Taste the warmth you give to others -

- Egg noodles or spaghetti (boiled, drained and rinsed)
- Toasted sesame seeds (optional)
- Spring onions (optional)
- Dressing: Equal amounts of oil, sugar and soya sauce.
- A few drops of sesame oil.
- Mix into salad. Enjoy 😊

 Purim at Chabad
 Loaves of Love
 Sinai Scholars this Term

You Gave Purim to so Many Students!

On Purim day over 20 student homes were visited and over 100 students received Mishloach manot. Your gift reminded them of their people, their heritage and their connection to each other. It brought a lot of Purim joy and fun on Purim day. Thank you!

Megillah and Dinner to 80 Students!

As Purim began, 80 students gathered at Chabad to hear megillah and celebrate the day with a festive dinner and break-fast of sushi and noodles.

You Gave Students an Authentic Jewish Study Journey

You provided a new group of students with a quality educational and experiential Jewish experience. The Sinai Scholars programme offers a rich and satisfying series of classes and experiences to develop a "Think Jewish" approach to modern life. Every class gives students the space to develop and find their unique path in Judaism.

Hamantash Bake

A few days before Purim, 10 students gathered to bake the traditional Purim treat, hamantashen, and learn all about its significance. You helped students connect our beautiful Jewish traditions with their day to day lives!

A Home Away from Home Every Shabbat, Thanks to You!

Perhaps what the students appreciate the most is the comfort and availability of a home away from home at Shabbat.

Students from all years of university, gather at Chabad every Friday night and Shabbat lunch for a delicious 3 or 4 course meal and a feeling of home.

They chat and share a sense of camaraderie with their fellow Jewish students. They feel a sense of connection and belonging.

Thank you for the gift of Shabbat that you provide every week at Chabad!

Loaves of Love

Students Looking for Meaning Connect with Lonely, Elderly People.

Your support ensures that every Friday at 11am, students come to Chabad to bake challah. They then go on to Silverstone court – an assisted living facility with Jewish elderly, to deliver the freshly baked challah.

This provides support to the elderly, who sometimes don't eat homemade food for days. It also provides the students with a sense of purpose and meaning, which can be a struggle in the life and culture of a university student.

APPRECIATION REPORT

IN THIS ISSUE:

- Jacob and Jonny May have been Lost from the Jewish Community without You (Page 2)
- The Students Homes may be Temporary but you make sure that their Judaism isn't (page 3)

THE IMPACT YOU HAVE ON STUDENTS LIVES

YOU GAVE JACOB A BAR MITZVAH!

Jacob comes from a small town, in the southern region of the UK. His family are the only Jews in their town. Jacob began University in Birmingham this year. He came for the first Friday night dinner of the term. He arrived before Shabbat and nervously said that this will be his first Jewish experience. He had not had a Bar mitzvah and so we helped him put on Tefillin for the first time!

We celebrated his Bar Mitzvah there and then at the first Friday night of term! This was so meaningful to Jacob and he is so grateful to you for giving him the opportunity to explore his faith and participate in Jewish life for the very first time!

YOU SUPPORT JONNY AND WELCOME HIM INTO THE JEWISH COMMUNITY!

Jonny, a graduate student at the university of Aston, reached out to us a few weeks ago to see if he could get involved in Jewish life. He said that moving to a new city hasn't been easy and that he is feeling very lonely.

He was brought up by a Jewish mum and a non Jewish dad in a small village in the U.K. and has had very little exposure to Jewish life.

We invited him to join the Sinai Scholars course and he gratefully accepted the invitation.

Thanks to you, Jonny is now an active member of the Sinai Scholars group who meet once or twice a week to study Jewish values and experience Jewish life.

Jonny may have felt alone, but you stepped in to make sure that Jonny is supported. You welcomed him into the Jewish community to experience Judaism at its best.

If not for you, Jonny may never have had the chance to engage with his Judaism, meet Jewish people and feel a part of the Jewish community.

Thank you for all that you do for Students like Jacob and Jonny.

SNAPSHOTS OF YOUR IMPACT THIS TERM:

You give the students the opportunity to explore their Judaism and discuss Jewish values and practice at the Sinai scholars course this term. They are not only studying Judaism but also experiencing it – with a Shabbaton, trip to the mikvah and a challah bake for the elderly in Birmingham.

New for this year! An advanced track for Sinai Scholars!

On Rosh Hashana – students and community met to hear the Shofar, go to “Tashlich” and enjoy a traditional Rosh Hashana dinner. People who didn’t have the opportunity to go to shul, were able to connect and find meaning on this special day.

You put Mezuzahs up in so many flats over Birmingham! The students homes may be temporary, but you make sure that their Judaism isn't!

First Friday night of term – you gave close to 100 Freshers the opportunity to meet and celebrate shabbat together over a hot cup of chicken soup and traditional delicacies!

You gave a wholesome, nourishing and delicious dinner to 80 students before the fast of Yom Kippur. The students felt your love and care for them.

You connect the students with the elderly! This gives meaning and a sense of purpose to the students and the joy of connection and care to the elderly.

Notes to the Accounts for the year ended 30 June 2022

1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with FRS 102, The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (as applied to small entities by section 1A of the standard).

Creditors

Short term creditors are measured at transaction price (which is usually the invoice price). Loans and other financial liabilities are initially recognised at transaction price net of any transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortised cost determined using the effective interest method.

Your Appreciation Report

Autumn 2021

You Hit a Record in the Annual Raffle!

210 donors, 494 tickets, raising over 13K

You hit a record!!

This is the 9th year of the annual summer raffle and your participation and support has never been so strong!

We are thrilled and touched by your commitment to a vibrant Jewish life in Birmingham!

You Brought Shabbat Back to Chabad – a Students Home Away From Home! First In-Person Events!

You provided 1,000's of shabbat packages over lockdown, so that students could celebrate shabbat in their flats.

As soon as it was possible the students were excited to gather again for shabbat dinners.

Thanks to you – a few shabbat dinners were held before the summer break and some students even joined over the summer.

Because of your support, every Jewish student in Birmingham has a place to call home and somewhere to have a beautiful shabbat dinner together with friends.

"The atmosphere is amazing! Everyone is just so excited to be able to see each other and celebrate Shabbat together again! Thank you to the donors of Chabad who make this happen!" Leah.

You Gave Freshers a Place to Go For the First Friday Night of Term!

You provided a home for 130 freshers on the first week of term.

Steaming hot chicken soup, kneidels, homemade challah and lots of faces!

Thank you! The freshers know that you care and that their connection their people matters to you!

Thank you!

Rosh Hashana – You Kept Leon Connected with the Sound of the Shofar!

With Yom tov being midweek this year, not everyone was able to take off work to come to shul. You made sure that students, young professionals and community members were able to hear the shofar and be reminded of its message at a beautiful Rosh Hashana service and dinner in the evening after work.

"I have just started a new job and I was sadly not able to make it to shul on Rosh Hashana. I felt disconnected and sad. Rosh Hashana is an important day for me.

Thanks to you I was able to go to a shofar service after work at Chabad. It meant a lot to me to have marked this special day and to be connected to my people. I also enjoyed a delicious yom tov meal and made new friends. Thanks for supporting Chabad and caring about me! Leon.

Yom Kippur – You Made Sure Lauren Ate a Hot, Nutritious Meal Before the Fast!

Homesickness turns up when its least expected.

Erev yom Kippur is a day to eat but what do you do when you have just arrived for your year of university and you feel lonely and your cooking skills aren't that good yet?

Thanks to you Lauren was able to eat a delicious hot filling meal before the fast and she went into the new year and this auspicious day knowing that you care about her!

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI YOSSI AND RIVKI

Dear Friends,

Your support has been so strong through Covid and beyond. Thanks to you, we have transitioned from covid remote events to in-person hosting.

Thank you for being there for the students and keeping students connected to the Jewish community 24/7. With your help the Chabad House is buzzing with people again! The Friday night dinners are bustling, the classes are full, (and the chicken soup requests are non-stop 😊).

We could not do any of it without your support.

You have hosted 100's of students over the Chagim and welcomed them to Birmingham with your kindness. You have shown them how they can be a proud Jew in University. The students are experiencing for the first time (since covid) the power of your love and care for them. They are so excited to be back. Some of them have never seen it before and didn't believe it was possible.

Millie, a second year student this Friday night thanked us with tears in her eyes. She said her brother, an alum of Birmingham, told her many times about shabbat at Chabad. Because of Covid she didn't believe him. "Now I understand what he meant! How Special are Friday nights at Chabad, You have no idea how much this means to me as a student to have a place to go and celebrate Shabbat!"

Through Covid and beyond- you pulled us through some tough times. Thank you!

Lechayim to some exciting times ahead! Thanks to you we only have good times to look forward to!

Love,
Yossi & Rivki

YOU ANSWERED MY QUESTIONS AND SHAPED MY IDENTITY!

- By Ilan Biescas -

When I first heard about Sinai Scholars, I didn't think it was going to make a difference to my Jewish life. I thought it would be a good place to socialise with other Jewish people.

What I found out was life-changing!

Sinai Scholars answered questions that I was having since my Bar Mitzvah.

I found topics such as love, relationships and purpose in life particularly meaningful. It changed my way of thinking about a Jewish marriage and purpose.

If not for the Sinai Scholars course my questions may have never been answered.

Thank you to the donors of Chabad for giving answers to my questions and shaping my identity!

YOU HELPED ME DISCOVER AN APPRECIATION FOR SHABBAT AND MY JUDAISM FOR THE FIRST TIME!

- By Kayla Hommel -

I didn't go to a Jewish school. Choosing to develop my Jewish education through the Sinai Scholars programme has been an enriching experience that has truly changed my perspective on Jewish living.

Keeping Shabbat for the first time with Sinai Scholars was the most powerful lesson I received. Keeping Shabbat seemed so daunting at first.

However, I discovered a deep appreciation for stepping away from my phone for a day and allowing myself to have a true break.

Not only did this make me feel closer to G-d, but I also gained a greater insight into my own Judaism.

I have discovered that I can keep Shabbat and have continued to do so weekly.

This has made me feel more connected to my Jewish identity than ever. I found myself gaining an increased sense of belonging within the Jewish community and I am proud to say that the lessons I have learned on this course are ones I can carry with me forever.

Thank you for giving me a new perspective on what it means to be Jewish!

I can't wait to talk about my experience with other Jews and share my growing interest in Jewish living.

CHANUKAH IN A BOX YOU INSPIRED JEWISH PRIDE!

This Chanukah you gave students the necessary items for the holiday and you inspired them to be proud Jews and share their celebrations!

"My Chanukah was enriched with the Chabad Chanukah box kindly funded by some amazing sponsors.

"The Chabad family gave me chocolate coins, doughnuts and dreidels so I could celebrate and show my non-Jewish flatmates how we celebrate Chanukah.

They were much more interested than I expected and they asked me loads of questions.

They really loved the doughnuts, latkes and chocolate coins and we had lots of fun.

I feel so much more comfortable of my Judaism now. This has helped me to be openly Jewish in my flat and with my flatmates. "

Saskia Livingstone (2nd year student)

YOU BROUGHT THE STUDENTS AND THE COMMUNITY TOGETHER FOR A WONDERFUL CHALLAH BAKE

Over 100 students and community members came together for a beautiful Challah bake in Central shul. Many people enjoyed baking challah and learning about this mitzvah.

FROM THE KITCHEN AT CHABAD

- Taste the warmth you give to others -

Carrot kugel - a very sweet versatile recipe (We serve as a side dish for the main course with meat or chicken, but some may serve as a cake :))

- 4 large carrots
- 1 cup flour
- ½ cup dark brown sugar
- 1 ½ tsp baking powder
- ½ cup sugar
- ½ cup oil
- 2 eggs
- 1 tsp vanilla

Boil the carrots until soft. Drain and mash/blend. Mix in the rest of the ingredients and beat well. Bake at 350° for 45 mins or until the toothpick comes out clean in a 9x9 inch pan. Enjoy!

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI YOSSI AND RIVKI

Dear Friends,

Your positivity, generosity and kindness mean so much to us..

Thanks to you lots of new students have enjoyed taking part in a warm community. A place where they know they can always turn in good times and when they need help.

Thanks to you, every Jewish student and community member knows that they have a Jewish home in Birmingham where they will always be accepted for a warm Shabbat meal , a friendly chat, a quick question or an engaging class.

Your support is the backbone of Chabad in Birmingham. We hope you can come and see the warmth and light you bring into peoples lives on a daily basis.

You might see a class, a discussion, a challah bake, or a delicious and buzzing shabbat table. None of this can be done without YOU!

Thank you for being here for the Jewish students and for lighting up so many lives with your love and the joy of Judaism.

We are very grateful for your support,

Best Wishes,

Yossi + Rivki

YOUR IMPACT THIS PESACH!

YOU GAVE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS A PLACE TO CELEBRATE PESACH AND EAT KOSHER FOR PASSOVER FOOD

Holidays can be a very lonely time for an international student who doesn't have the luxury of going home. You made sure that these students were cared for and had a home away from home to spend the holiday and eat Kosher for Passover food. Thanks for caring!

YOU GAVE ROWAN* HIS FIRST SEDER IN 10 YEARS!

Rowan*, a 28-year-old post-graduate research student at University of Birmingham, speaks Yiddish and is descended from a Breslover Chassidic family yet he has not participated in a seder since 2012! He said his mother was "Kvelling" that he was at a seder.

Rowan met Rabbi Yossi on campus a few days before Pesach and was given some hand-baked matzah and gratefully accepted the invitation to join an authentic seder.

Throughout the whole seder he was excited and engaged, sharing his own ideas, insights and memories of Pesach.

Thank you for reigniting his Jewish spark and helping him feel connected to his Jewish identity. He hopes to stay in touch and get involved in more Jewish life and learning. *Name changed to protect privacy.

YOU GAVE THE GIFT OF AUTHENTIC HAND-BAKED SHMURAH MATZAH TO 60 FAMILIES AND ELDERLY RESIDENTS IN BIRMINGHAM

“YOU MAKE THEIR DAY AND BRIGHTEN THEIR LIFE” – HOW YOU SUPPORT THE STUDENTS IN SUPPORTING THE ELDERLY:

The residents love to receive the freshly made challahs on Friday mornings and especially love to see the students who bring them.

There are a group of students who also visit the elderly residents on a Wednesday afternoon for a onehour chat, the residents love this and greatly look forward to it.

“I cant stress enough how wonderful and important it is for the older residents to see and engage with the young students who show interest and listen to the older folks. Not only does it make their day but it brightens their outlook on life generally.”

Phillip Linz,
Birmingham Jewish Housing Association, Chair.

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI YOSSI AND RIVKI

Dear Friends,

We can't believe another School year has gone by.

It's tough to say goodbye to the students who have become our family.

Thank you for the warmth and love you have given these graduating students the last 3 years they have been in Birmingham.

You have given them a home, a place to celebrate shabbat and festivals, a place to study and a place to be themselves.

They are truly grateful and so are we!

Your support during these formative years is life changing!

You make the difference between loneliness, isolation and a university experience rich with meaning, connection and personal growth.

Thank you for being here. Thank you for being you!

Have a happy and healthy summer!

Best Wishes,

Yossi + Rivki
