The charity has continued to build strong relationships with other Sikh Charities and interfaith groups across the UK.

All trustees give their time voluntarily and receive no remuneration or any other benefit.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Advancement of the Sikh Faith and way of life through various in the UK, Europe and India.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In planning our activities for the year we kept in mind the Charity Commissions guidance on public benefit at our trustee meetings.

The aim of the charity is the advancement of the Sikh faith and its practices in the United kingdom & abroad by firstly arranging lectures seminars, Conferences & Gurmat camps. These take place at universities, Gurudwaras, multi faith events, private companies and community fairs across the country.

Secondly through providing books & other material, Including multimedia, English, Punjabi & other languages to enlighten the public about the Sikh faith.

- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The focus of our activities remains the annual Sikh2Inspire camp held in the summer. This year saw several hundred people of all ages from across the UK attend to gain a deeper understanding of the Sikh faith and to experience the true Sikh way of life.

The Summer Smagam held in Birmingham continues to grow attracting thousands of worshippers.

During COVID we increased our services through our online channels.

The charities Youtube and SoundCloud pages have continued to be updated with new resources and are available for viewing and listening. Both resources have proved very popular and heavily used.

The charity has continued to help with Gurudwara's, Universities, and Interfaith events across the country sharing the message of Guru Nanak Dev Ji.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
