Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objectives of the Kerry Key Foundation are the relief and prevention of sickness and suffering, and the promotion of Health.

Our activities are to build on the charitable work carried out by the late Kerry Key, through fundraising and sponsorship.

The Kerry Key Foundation has promoted the relief and prevention of sickness and suffering for all different types of cancer.

We have raised awareness of disease and health conditions affecting people.

We have made charitable donations, and will continue to do so, to various charities and organisations which assist those affected by disease and health conditions.
