- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To attend generally to the welfare of all boxer dogs in England in need of care, attention and or rehoming.
 To assist and support members of the community who find themselves unable to meet the needs of their boxer dog.
 To promote kindness to animals, encouraging and educating on responsible pet ownership.
 To suppress and actively discourage cruelty and neglect of animals.
 To establish a series of foster homes, or to provide funding for the use of commercial kennels and training facilities where needed, for stray and unwanted boxer dogs. To provide care for them until they are rehomed or indefinitely when rehoming not possible.
 To co-operate with and establish working arrangements with similar charities or organisations who share the same aims.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The rescue, treatment and rehoming of boxer dogs whose ownership has been relinquished to the charity from owners/keepers in England and Wales, particularly in the North of England.
All trustees are willing to act as trustees of the organisation named above and none are prevented from acting as a trustee.
All trustees understand the charity's purposes and rules set out in its governing document and their responsibilities relating to their role as trustee.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We have successfully rescued a number of boxer dogs whose owners were no longer able, or no longer willing, to care for them. We have provided necessary veterinary care to most of the dogs and arranged safe, secure and caring homes for them to move to. We have provided help and support to boxer owners in order to prevent their dogs ending up in rescue and post-adoption support to new owners. We make follow-up contact with new owner/s to ensure the placement is successful and that both the dog and new owner/s are happy and safe.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Reserves are required to safeguard all our dogs future care and to ensure the charity is able to continue operating in accordance with its objectives.
