- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity has appropriate policies and procedures in place. Trustees meet regularly to oversee the activities and management of the charity.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The purpose of the charity, as set out in its governing document, is to advance the Christian faith in accordance with its statement of beliefs. The charity seeks to promote spiritual development, provide religious teaching, and support the community through its activities.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity carries out its objectives for the public benefit by holding regular church services, prayer meetings, and Bible studies which are open to all members of the public. The charity also organises community outreach activities, workshops, and events aimed at promoting the Christian faith, supporting individuals, and strengthening community cohesion.

In addition, the charity provides support through education, training, and guidance to help individuals develop spiritually and improve their wellbeing. These activities are provided free of charge or at minimal cost to ensure they are accessible to the wider community.

The trustees confirm that they have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when planning and carrying out the charity's activities.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity organised regular Sunday services, prayer meetings and Bible study sessions throughout the year to support the spiritual development of its members.

In addition, the church held retreats, workshops and conferences aimed at promoting the principles and teachings of the Christian faith. Fundraising activities were also carried out to support the charity's operations and future development.

The charity also undertook community outreach activities to engage with the wider community and provide support where needed.

These activities have contributed to the advancement of the charity's objectives and have had a positive impact on individuals and the local community.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity aims to maintain sufficient reserves to support its ongoing activities and meet its financial obligations. The trustees monitor the level of reserves regularly to ensure the charity remains financially stable.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's main sources of income include donations, offerings and fundraising activities. Expenditure during the year was primarily used to support church services, events, retreats, workshops, and community outreach activities.

The trustees ensure that all funds are applied in line with the charity's objectives and for the benefit of the public.

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees

Charity Name
BETHESDA CHURCH (BC)

On accounts for the year ended

2025

Charity no
(if any)

1153291

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30 / 06 / 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
