(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 / 12 / 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

~~[The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [insert name of applicable listed body]]. Delete [] if not applicable.~~

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The Huge Partnership

Report & Accounts 2024 – Overview of the Year

About Us

The HUGE Partnership, a UK registered charity (1153640), was created in 2013 to promote education in Uganda. It specifically provides financial and resource support to the Nabugabo Community Learning Centre, a private NGO set up in 2012 in the district of Masaka, SW Uganda, solely to provide free education and support to vulnerable and disadvantaged children, who would otherwise not be able to attend school. Now in its 13th year, NCLC provides umbrella support to the Nabugabo Community Primary School, the Secondary Education Fund and ongoing initiatives in the community relating to education, welfare, recycling, and female empowerment.

The governing principle of HUGE is to provide children, most at need, with a caring education, a confidence in their own abilities and genuine belief and ambition that they can contribute to the future success of their lives and those of the community.

2024 at a Glance

- Extension to Beatrice House to provide further residential accommodation for girls most at risk.
- Redecoration of school library including new floor.
- New classroom furniture made from recycled plastic to overcome the challenges of termites.
- Rethatching of the Round House, the focal point of the school for assemblies, drum and dance, staff meetings etc.
- Timber repairs to staff accommodation damaged by termites.
- Strengthened safeguarding training for all staff.
- Introduction of phonics testing as part of early years programme.
- Introduction of PSHE workshops for primary children on the following topics – Adolescence, Personal Values and Rights in relation to Health and Gender.
- Reusable Afripad packs given to girls for home.
- Community engagement with the giving of 350 bras donated from the UK.
- Construction of house by students from Pangbourne College for a family in need.
- Continued partnership work with Pangbourne College and Sotogrande International School.

Our Impact

- 140 children received free primary education and wellbeing support (food and healthcare) who would

- otherwise not be able to attend school.
- 60 students supported through secondary education who would otherwise not attend.
 - 65% of all students were girls which means they are staying in education helping to reduce early marriage and child labour risks.
 - 100% pass rate at PLE (secondary school entrance exam) for 20 students sitting the exam in November 2024.
 - 8 secondary school students, funded by HUGE, achieved 9 O levels. This was the first cohort to sit O levels.
 - 12 girls in safe residential accommodation.
 - 12 students from Pangbourne College visited Nabugabo building cross-cultural understanding and support.
 - 3 female staff members funded to complete their professional diplomas strengthening local teaching.
 - Families and the wider community benefitted through outreach, housing, and livelihood support.
 - All students partake in extracurricular activities including sports, and traditional drum and dance.

Our Supporters & Partnership

We are a 100% reliant on fundraising and donations. We are deeply grateful to our individual sponsors, partnership schools, and grant-making trusts whose commitment makes this work possible. Key relationships in 2024 included:

Sotogrande International School and the Kindred Project

Pangbourne College

Beatrice Laing Trust

ESG Robinson Charitable Trust

Nicholas James Hair Salon

Kitchen Table Charities Trust

Looking Ahead

In 2025 we will continue to strengthen education and safeguarding at Nabugabo, expand support for secondary students, and assist where appropriate on key community initiatives. In particular, the School Development Plan for 2025 highlights the following priorities:

- Improve numeracy programme in Early Years.
- Build on Phonics testing programme in Early Years.
- Improve Additional Needs teaching throughout school.
- Whilst we are proud of the 100% pass rate at PLE, our goal is to raise the levels attained.
- Continue to foster our key relationships.
- Develop new relationships with Ugandans both in the UK and in Uganda, as well as with others who share our commitment to education.

Governance & Accountability

The Huge Partnership is run entirely by five unpaid trustees in the UK, with no overhead costs and no expensed raised by any of the trustees. We comply fully with UK Charity Commission regulations, safeguarding protocols, and financial reporting standards. A full set of policies and procedures are available for inspection.

Thank You

None of this would be possible without the generosity of our donors, the dedication of our staff in Uganda, and the encouragement of our supporters.
