Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Any new trustees would undergo orientation to brief them on their legal obligation under charity and company law, the content of the Constitution, the decision making processes, the objectives and strategies and recent financial performance of Creating New Beginnings.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

1. To advance the education of special needs children in Ghana and the UK in such ways as the charity trustees think fit, including by:
 - a. Awarding to such children scholarships, maintenance allowances or grants to enable them to undertake education in school
 - b. Providing and assisting in the provision of facilities for education in a school environment
 - c. Providing or assisting in the provision of their education (including the specialist therapeutic input e.g. speech and language therapy, psychological interventions and other interventions.)
 - d. Raising awareness of the public of the needs of special needs children in Ghana
 - e. Offering an Autism response team as a crucial resource for disadvantaged (illiterate) Ghanaian community in the UK through telephone calls, emails and online chats to field daily contacts and provide real time support for those impacted.
 - f. Continue to engage international and National partners to provide new resources, tools and information at no cost.
2. To advance progress in life skills and relieve needs of young people with Autism spectrum disorders in Ghana through:

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- a. The provision of recreational and leisure time activities designed to improve their conditions of life and social welfare.
- b. Providing support and activities which develop their functional skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as mature and responsible individuals.
- c. Establishment of Project Search Ghana in partnership with organisations (an internship initiative) for youth with Autism spectrum disorders in Ghana to help prepare the able ones for workplace

3. Food Bank Project to support the Brent Community

Our key achievements to date in this financial year include:-

Continuing to support the Ghana Autism School during the year.

Increase admission to the school in Ghana

Training Teachers on picture exchange community system to enhance learning for the children

Another School in Kumasi-Ghana to provide more access to children in other parts of the country now in place

The charity continues with its food bank project in Brent to support the Community

All services provided could not have been achieved without the help of our volunteers and advisors.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Continuous Training Teachers on picture exchange community system and other learning skills to enhance the learning experience of the children

Increase admission to the school in Ghana

Another School in Kumasi-Ghana to provide more access to children in other parts of the country

The charity continues with its food bank project in Brent to support the Community

Regular visits to the school in Ghana by the Trustees to oversee the effective support of the children and the development of staff.

Resources, materials and equipment to aid the children's learning are sent down often to support the school in terms of teaching and learning.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees are working on the intention to keep a three months operational working capital as part of our reserves policy.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

The charity will continue to work hard to turn profit to sustain its activities,

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's funding this year has come from direct debits, standing orders, and donations.

We are working to improve our donation receipt process to maximise Gift Aid claims and boost our income.

The funds have enabled us to pay staff salaries in Ghana monthly, even though Trustees have been supplementing them.

The Trustees have the power to invest in such assets as they see fit. The charity's investment policy is appropriate to the nature of the funds held. The primary investment aim is to provide a high degree of security and liquidity and to maximise returns whilst adopting a conservative approach.

Section F Other optional information

The charity is also involved in Advocacy work in Ghana
Raising awareness- Autism awareness creation on local radio stations in Ghana and UK and in schools in Ghana.
Working with British Council
UNICEF – working with UNICEF Ghana/Ghana Education Service as a member of their technical working group for Inclusive Education in Ghana.

Directors' Report For The Year Ended 31 July 2025

The directors present their report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 July 2025.

Directors

The directors who held office during the year were as follows:

Ms CORNELIA BOATENG

Ms SAMUEL OWIREDU

Ms FLORETTE HUTCHINSON

Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing the financial statements the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The directors are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Small Company Rules

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions relating to companies subject to the small companies regime within Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS
Accountant's Report
For The Year Ended 31 July 2025

Report to the directors on the preparation of the unaudited statutory accounts of CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS for the year ended 31 July 2025

To assist you to fulfil your duties under the Companies Act 2006, I have prepared for your approval the accounts of CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes, from the company's accounting records and from information and explanations you have given us.

As a practising member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants, we are subject to its ethical and other professional requirements which are detailed at <http://www.accaglobal.com/en/member/professional-standards/rules-standards/acca-rulebook.html>.

This report is made to the directors of CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagement letter dated . Our work has been undertaken solely to prepare for your approval the accounts of CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS and state those matters that we have agreed to state to the directors of CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS, as a body, in this report in accordance with the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants as detailed at http://www.accaglobal.com/content/dam/ACCA_Global/Technical/fact/technical-factsheet-163.pdf. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS and its directors as a body for our work or for this report.

It is your duty to ensure that CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS has kept adequate accounting records and to prepare statutory accounts that give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities, financial position and profit or loss of CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS. You consider that CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS is exempt from the statutory audit requirement for the year.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit or a review of the accounts of CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records or information and explanations you have given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the financial statements.

CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS
Notes to the Financial Statements
For The Year Ended 31 July 2025

1. General Information

CREATING NEW BEGINNINGS is a private company, limited by shares, incorporated in England & Wales, registered number 1153658. The registered office is 95 ETON AVENUE, WEMBLEY, MIDDLESEX, HA0 3BA.

2. Accounting Policies

2.1. Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 section 1A Small Entities "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" and the Companies Act 2006.

2.2. Turnover

Turnover is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of discounts and value added taxes. Turnover includes revenue earned from the sale of goods and from the rendering of services. Turnover is reduced for estimated customer returns, rebates and other similar allowances.

Sale of goods

Turnover from the sale of goods is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods has transferred to the buyer. This is usually at the point that the customer has signed for the delivery of the goods.

Rendering of services

Turnover from the rendering of services is recognised by reference to the stage of completion of the contract. The stage of completion of a contract is measured by comparing the costs incurred for work performed to date to the total estimated contract costs. Turnover is only recognised to the extent of recoverable expenses when the outcome of a contract cannot be estimated reliably.

2.3. Tangible Fixed Assets and Depreciation

Tangible fixed assets are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost of the fixed assets, less their estimated residual value, over their expected useful lives on the following bases:

Motor Vehicles	20% on reducing balance basis

3. Average Number of Employees

Average number of employees, including directors, during the year was: NIL (2024: NIL)
