Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Our objectives are for the benefit of the public and the advancement of the Christian faith in the UK and around the world. We do this by strengthening and encouraging international Christian workers and their organizations. Our goal is to care for those who care for others.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

One Another Ministries provides professional services, training, consulting, resourcing, and crisis and trauma debriefing to Christian workers and missionary societies; thus benefitting the public in the communities served by these churches and missionary societies.

One Another Ministries' religious activities aim to provide services, advocacy, advice, and information. These services are offered at our ministry centre, through teleconferencing, or at the point of need when necessary.

In planning and carrying out all charity activities, the trustees have had due regard to the commission's public benefit guidance, and have taken special care to ensure that all activities are in accordance with the stated purpose of the charity and are for public, rather than private, benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

All activities of the CIO are undertaken and provided by volunteers.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

- In 2024, One Another Ministries provided services for 274 missionaries and international Christian workers. These missionaries were sent out by 142 missionary societies.
- Services were provided to field or ministry teams, families, couples, and individuals.
- We provided training for 73 international Christian workers through training on-line and in person training events.
- In addition to the training events, approximately 53% of the services offered to individuals and small groups were proactive in nature. This included consulting, debriefing, encouragement and resourcing.
- Approximately 47% of our services to individuals and small groups were responsive in nature and included: consulting, conflict intervention, traumatic incident or crisis intervention.
- Many resources for the training and development of Christian workers were made available online.
- One Another Ministries normally provides hospitality to those receiving services at our ministry centre.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

It is the policy of the CIO to operate only from available funds.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

The CIO does not allow any funds to go into deficit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The CIO does not engage in active fundraising. The source of all of the charity's funds is voluntary donations from partnering ministries, missionary societies, and their members.
