Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The charity exists to promote the welfare of parrots and other companion birds through rescue, rehabilitation, and rehoming services. As set out in its governing document, the charity is dedicated to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing safe, nurturing environments for parrots in need, including those who have been neglected, abandoned, or surrendered. • Delivering a comprehensive welfare programme that addresses both the physical and emotional needs of rescued birds, including veterinary care, behavioural support, and enrichment. • Operating a structured adoption scheme that carefully matches rehabilitated parrots with responsible, well-informed adopters. This includes thorough home checks, education on species-specific care, and ongoing support post-adoption. • Educating the public on parrot welfare, behaviour, and long-term care to prevent future cases of neglect or abandonment. • Advocating for improved standards in companion bird care through outreach, community engagement, and collaboration with other welfare organisations. The charity's work is grounded in compassion, expertise, and a commitment to lifelong wellbeing for every bird it supports.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	During the reporting period, the charity undertook a range of activities aligned with its core purpose of promoting parrot welfare and responsible rehoming. These activities were designed to deliver clear public benefit, as defined by the Charity Commission's guidance, and are reflected in the financial accounts. Key activities included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rescue and rehabilitation The charity provided safe shelter and care for parrots in distress, including those surrendered due to illness, behavioural challenges, or changes in owner circumstances. Each bird received tailored support, including veterinary attention, dietary planning, and

		behavioural enrichment. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Structured adoption scheme A formal adoption process was maintained, involving home assessments, adopter education, and post-adoption follow-ups. This ensured that rehomed parrots were placed in environments suited to their species-specific needs, reducing the risk of future abandonment. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Aviary development for non-adoptable birds Recognising that some parrots are unsuitable for traditional home environments due to complex behavioural or medical needs, the charity invested in the construction of dedicated aviaries. These purpose-built spaces offer long-term sanctuary, allowing birds to live safely and comfortably in enriched, species-appropriate settings. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Public education and outreach The charity delivered educational materials and advice to the public on parrot care, including diet, socialisation, and environmental enrichment. This included online resources, community talks, and one-on-one guidance for prospective adopters. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Volunteer engagement and training Volunteers were actively involved in daily care, transport, and outreach. Training sessions were provided to ensure high standards of welfare and safety, while also fostering community involvement and skill development. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Welfare advocacy and support services The charity responded to welfare concerns raised by the public, offering guidance, intervention, or direct support where appropriate. This included liaising with other animal welfare organisations and local authorities when necessary. These activities were funded through donations, fundraising events, and modest adoption fees, all of which are detailed in the accompanying financial statements. The trustees are satisfied that the charity's work continues to deliver meaningful public benefit by improving the lives of parrots and promoting responsible ownership across the community.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that they have had due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives, planning future activities, and making decisions about the use of resources. The trustees remain committed to ensuring that all activities carried out by the charity continue to deliver demonstrable public benefit in line with its charitable purposes.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the reporting period, the charity made significant progress in advancing its mission to improve the welfare of parrots and companion birds. The trustees are proud to report the following key achievements, which have made a meaningful difference to both individual beneficiaries and the wider community. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The charity successfully rescued and rehabilitated a substantial number of parrots, many of whom arrived in poor physical or emotional condition. Through expert care, enrichment, and veterinary support, these birds were given a second chance at a safe and fulfilling life. • A structured adoption scheme enabled numerous birds to be rehomed with responsible, well-informed adopters. Each placement was carefully managed to ensure compatibility and long-term welfare, reducing the likelihood of future surrender or neglect. • Two new aviaries were constructed to provide permanent sanctuary for parrots who could not be rehomed within a domestic setting. These purpose-built environments offer safety, stimulation, and social interaction for birds with complex behavioural or medical needs, ensuring they can live comfortably and securely under the charity's care. • The charity provided ongoing education and support to the public, helping to raise awareness of parrot welfare and responsible ownership. This included guidance on diet, housing, socialisation, and species-specific needs,

		contributing to a broader cultural shift in how companion birds are understood and cared for. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Volunteers played a vital role in delivering care, outreach, and operational support. Their involvement not only strengthened the charity's capacity but also fostered community engagement and personal development.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	The trustees are pleased to report that the charity has made strong progress against its stated objectives, as outlined in the governing document. These objectives include the rescue, rehabilitation, and rehoming of parrots; the promotion of parrot welfare; and the education of the public on responsible ownership. Achievements against these objectives include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The successful rescue and rehabilitation of numerous parrots, many of whom arrived in poor condition and were restored to health through expert care and support. • The rehoming of birds through a structured adoption scheme, ensuring placements were made with responsible individuals who had received appropriate guidance and support. • The construction of two new aviaries to provide permanent sanctuary for parrots who could not be rehomed in domestic settings. These aviaries offer enriched, species-appropriate environments that support long-term welfare for birds with complex behavioural or medical needs. • The delivery of public education initiatives, including advice on diet, behaviour, and environmental enrichment, helping to prevent future cases of neglect and abandonment. • The provision of welfare advice and intervention in response to public concerns, demonstrating the charity's active role in safeguarding companion birds beyond its immediate care. These achievements reflect the charity's continued commitment to its mission and its ability to translate objectives into meaningful outcomes that benefit both individual birds and the wider community.

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	This 12 months have been a challenge for the charity due to continued cost of living crisis. Despite the financial crisis and the greater need for our service with the public having to relinquish their pets, we have managed to support many parrots to stay in their own home with financial support. Where this has not been possible we have been able to rescue and rehome birds throughout this year but the numbers of parrots we are able to help has reduced and we has to stop taking in birds at some points through the year due to financial pressures and the reduction of volunteers due to the cost of living and people not being willing to support.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The fundraising and donations have been significantly influenced this 12 months due to the continued cost of living crisis. We continue to be within our financial agreed limit to ensure safe running of the charity, but we are looking for other methods to financial support the parrots in our care over the coming 12 months.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The policy is in place to ensure if we were not to receive any donations in a certain time frame that we can continue to support and care for the birds within our care for a certain amount of time.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To provide education to the public on the correct husbandry of parrots within the UK To offer safehouse and refuge for all sick, injured and unwanted Parrots within the UK To find forever homes for all parrots within our care

We have supported a large number of people keep their birds within their own family homes due to the support and guidance given. We have also provided rescue and rehabilitation to over 1800 parrots. The charity has also been to events around the UK educating the public on correct parrot husbandry to ensure people have the right skills and support to prevent them having to give up their parrot

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Recued and rehabilitated 236 sick, injured and unwanted parrots during this year. This number has significantly increased from pervious years due to the pandemic and the lock down restrictions that prevented us completing our normal activities. Supported owners keep their bird at home rather than have to get rid of them due to not being able to cope Educating many members of the public in the high quality of care for their parrot to ensure that they avoid neglect. Financially supported owners through the pandemic who could not pay for their vets bills to ensure that their parrot received the correct treatment

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We are in line with our charity reserve policy despite this years struggle with not being able to attend fundraising events due to the pandemic and the avian flu that has prevented us taking birds out into the community.
