Annual Trustees' report for Cawood Community Centre Association
Charity number 1154452

16/05/23 to 15/05/24

We have remained fairly static for another year whilst waiting for the charity/owners of the building to propose a refurbishment.

There are signs of movement from them as they have commissioned and received a general condition survey of the building and commissioned a structural survey.

We wait to meet to meet with them to discuss the building's future. After this meeting we will make a decision on our future commitment to a village community centre.

Michael A Cowling
Chair and Trustee of Cawood Community Centre Association.

CAWOOD COMMUNITY CENTRE ASSOCIATION

England & Wales - Charity number 1154452

Accounts

Cawood Community Centre Association Trustees' Report. CC number 1154452.

The charity was set up to provide a new community centre for Cawood in North Yorkshire for the benefit of all in the village. The current village hall is an old building that is in need of refurbishment and is currently not fit for purpose. The four trustees and five other volunteers of the association have worked hard on the project.

The charity has remained inactive for the last two years owing to a number of outside factors. Owing to these the charity has been unable to proceed with its intentions to build a new community centre for the village. The owner of the current village hall, the Cawood Feoffees, are now planning to refurbish their property and provide a more pleasant venue for villagers to gather.

The CCCA now aims to support Cawood Feoffees in their plans and is joining discussions with them about the future of the refurbished venue in the village and lending its experience to the project.
